

We apologize to the News and Observer for not giving credit for an editorial copied from its issue of Oct. 9th in our last issue. The fact is, we intended making some comment, but having so much illness in the family we were behind in our work and neglected doing so. In this article the administration of ten years ago was condemned as a condition to be guarded against in the future. Some of the Republican(?) bosses have tried to make capital of this against us, but we cannot see how any white man who had no finger in the pie ten years ago and who believes in better education, white supremacy and honest government, could take offence at it, even were we its author. Nor would they have done so had not these said bosses called attention to it, placing a false construction upon it and urging honest men to believe it meant reflection upon them. Read it again, friends, and see if you can find where you come in. You can't do it.

And again, the same men have tried to make capital against us because we published a letter recently signed "A Republican." Where we can be blamed for this is more than we can see. Such letters are published in all the papers, from all manner of men in every campaign, and the one trying to find something in this to use against us is indeed hard run for something, and would be only too glad to have something of the kind to use in his own favor. We did intend, however, to ask permission to use the real name of the writer, but have been away from home and have not been able to see him, and will not do so without his consent, but if anyone has reason to disbelieve the genuineness of it, we can speedily convince him if he will call on us. Then, as a result of this letter, our bad health is magnified by those who know better. While it is true our health debars us from hard work, no man in our knowledge makes more regular time at his work. We do not ask votes as a matter of charity, but on merit alone, having confidence that if elected we will fill the office as well and as acceptably as any man ever has.

Such as this goes to prove that those who wish our defeat can find nothing tangible against us, so jump at these little, insignificant things, contorting them and trying to induce others to see the wolf that does not exist.

FOR SHERIFF.

I take this method of returning thanks and appreciation to the citizens of Washington county for their confidence and support in the past, and as another year has dawned when a convention will be held for the purpose of naming a man for the position I have been holding for the past six years, I respectfully offer myself as a candidate for the consideration and action of the convention.

I have been conscientious in trying to discharge the duties of office acceptably to the law-abiding men of the county, and can only promise, if re-elected, to discharge those duties as I have in the past. Very respectfully yours, W. J. JACKSON.

Business Tattooed.
Some of the Japanese tradesmen in the smaller towns of Nippon have a curious way of advertising their business. On their right forearms they tattoo figures—the shoemaker a shoe, the woodcutter an axe, the butcher a cleaver. Underneath these emblems are such inscriptions as, "I do my work modestly and cheaply," or "I am as good as my trade as most of my fellows." When they are looking for work they bare their arms and walk about the streets.

King Alfonso's Body Guard.
King Alfonso is perhaps more thoroughly and carefully guarded during the hours of darkness than any other European monarch, except perhaps the Sultan of Turkey. For two centuries the slumbers of successive sovereigns of Spain have been watched all night by the "Menters de Espinosa"—a body of men to whom is relegated the exclusive privilege of guarding their monarch from sunset to sunrise. They must have an honorable military career, and be natives of the town of Espinosa. Ceremoniously, they lock the palace gates at midnight, opening them at 7 the next morning.—London Tatler.

FOR CLERK SUPERIOR COURT

I hereby beg leave to present my name for the favorable consideration of the Democratic voters of Washington county for nomination and election to the office of Superior Court Clerk.
Having always been a Democrat, I have done what I could for the success of that party since attaining my majority. Yet I make no claim upon it, believing that we are under obligations to it, and not it to us. It is well known that this office must have something to supplement it. I am in this position; I give convenient to the Court House; I enjoy a reputation for strict attention to business, and if honored with nomination and election, shall do my best to merit your confidence and approval. Yours, very respectfully, C. V. W. AUBSON.

To a Smart Property-Owner
Painting is practical work. Skill wins. It's the same with paint making. You know 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes enough paint for a moderate sized house—the best paint money can buy—because the L. & M. Z re hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron.
Buy L. & M. and don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil, as you do in ready-for-use paint, but buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents, and mix with the L. & M. Actual cost L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.
