Old People

NEED VINOL

It strengthens and vitalizes
With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the blood is thin and digestion weak. Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength. Vinol contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added. Try it on our guarantee.

BEACON FLASHES.

Those who have friends visiting them, or who intend leaving home themselves, will please let it be known at this office so the fact may be mentioned. It does not matter whether you are a subscriber or not. All we ask is—let us know it.

Ye editor spent a few days at Creswell the past week.

Mr. Frank Cowell was here for a few days this week.

Mr. W. J. Davis dropped in to see us while in town yesterday.

Tablets, Paper, Composition Books, Pencils, &c., are going cheap at the City Bakery.

Mrs. W. A. Forbes and children spent a few days in Roper this week.

Attorney E. A. Daniel of Washington, was in town on Wednesday.

Miss Ellen Tarkenton of Berkley, Va., is here visiting relatives and friends.

Messrs. A. L. Holmes and A. G. Walker of Creswell, were in town on Tuesday.

Ask Louis Gaylord and Pete Litchfield if they got the bear Wednesday night.

If you enjoy a really excellent cup of Coffee, you should try Chase & Sanborn's. Sold only by Louis P. Hornthal.

Mr. E. R. Marriner has been in town this week, visiting his sister, Mrs. T. T. Gardner.

Miss Mildred Alexander of Elizabeth City, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Hornthal, this week.

Lowney's Cocoa and Chocolate are as good as money can buy. We buy direct from the Lowney factory, so you always get fresh goods. Louis P. Hornthal.

Miss Clara Johnston of Roper, was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Johnston, last Sunday.

We acknowledge a pleasant call on Wednesday from Messrs. H. G. Blount and J. T. McAllister of Roper.

We would impress it upon the minds of people that next Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day, and that all business houses in Plymouth will be closed.

Important to both Ladies and Gentlemen—Why not have that last season's suit and dress cleaned, renovated and pressed by SAMUEL WIGGINS and made to look as new?

Mr. W. J. Starr of Creswell, passed through Plymouth on Tuesday en route to Greensboro, where he goes as a delegate to the M. P. Conference now in session in that city.

Several of our young ladies and gentlemen, chaperoned by Sheriff Jackson, are engaged in an opossum hunt on a Wednesday night and succeeded in bagging two of the vicious varmints.

Unless we are willing to devote one day out of three hundred and sixty-five to Thanksgiving, and that in the true spirit as intended by our government, we should not complain of hard times, short crops or low prices.

Young married people and old ones too, find their troubles will "little ones" be, if they take Rocky Mountain Tea. Sold by Spruill & Bro.

Special attention is called to the advertisement this week of Chas. M. St. Hill's sale of Jamestown Exposition Pianos. This ought to interest every one thinking of buying a piano, for these high grade instruments will be sold very low.

Many people would not be without a TURNER'S Almanac if they cost a dollar. Remember this is headquarters for this most valuable publication, and if you are a paid up subscriber for the BEACON you get one FREE. Tell your neighbor about it.

The attention of our farmers is called to the ad of J. G. Sullivan & Bro., "Plants and Seed for Sale." These gentlemen have made for themselves quite an enviable reputation as truckers, and know just what is best to plant. We would advise you to give them a trial this season.

Trial-Catarth treatments are being mailed you free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarth Remedy. Sold by P. E. Davenport.

Not So Very Bad, After All.

The directors of the R. R. R. & L. Co., who met here last Friday, as noted in these columns last week, to discuss the advisability of closing down their mills, decided, for the benefit of their employes, to continue work at a cut of 20 per cent. in wages. While this may not be very pleasant it is much better than a close down. We are also informed that the Plymouth Lumber Co., after being closed down for two weeks, will resume operations next week.

Annual Inspection.

Colonel Hood, assisted by Capt. Daniels, held the annual inspection of the Naval Reserves here last night. The boys were out in full dress and made a very fine showing. In his remarks to the company, Capt. Daniels complimented Lieut. Phelps and his staff very highly, saying that this company acquitted itself with remarkable honor at Jamestown this summer, and that it was holding its own yet; that Col. Hood said it was as good, if not better, than any company he had inspected this year.

Are YOU Blameless?

"Those who live in glass houses should not throw stones" is a piece of good advice. Although you may know of no stain upon your own family escutcheon in the past, you know not how soon one may make its appearance either on your own life or on the life of one you love, then it would hurt you more exceedingly than it now gives pleasure, were others to hurl vituperation against you or them, as some—unthoughtfully, we hope—now hurl it at others. While we most strongly condemn sin and wrong-doing in all, yet we should feel for others as we would wish them feel for us, and in our strength should make allowance for and help those who are weak. "Bless, and curse not, for with what measure ye meet it shall be measured to you again."

While we sympathize with those hurt, we feel more sorry for those that caused the wound, and trust that during these thanksgiving times they will seriously consider the rash act and, so far as possible repair the wrong, bearing in mind that no man was ever converted by being cursed. "Judge not, that ye be not judged."

A Great Reduction Sale.

In order to meet the demands of the hard times and short crops in our section, as well as to show my appreciation to my friends and patrons for their support in the many years of my mercantile career, I have decided to give them their winter purchases at, or about cost, and many things below cost, up until January 1st, 1908.

All you have to do to be convinced of this fact is to call at my stores and examine the goods and prices, which will at once leave no doubt in your minds but that I mean just what I say. Of course the goods will, in all cases be sold for cash, as there will be little or no profit in them. Remember this sale is to consumers only, and not to be purchased to re sell.

It would be useless to begin to name prices, as everything in way of Dry Goods will be reduced.

This sale does not apply to the grocery trade, but all articles in Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., in both of my stores.

Sale will begin on Monday, Nov. 25th, 1907.

Very truly,
W. C. AYERS.

Women have decided that in case they cannot vote, they will out out the "Stork" proposition. Perfectly proper to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's good for everything 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by Spruill & Bro.

A great investment, absolutely safe, brings returns that nothing else can; giving surplus earning power; securing comfort and health in your declining years. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Spruill & Bro.
