

Weak Lungs

NEED VINOL

its cod liver oil elements heal and strengthen the lungs

Many people labor with weak lungs which are likely to be attacked by consumption. So since are lungs weakened by disease or by a stubborn hacking cough. Vinol, which is a real cod liver preparation with all the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added, strengthens weak lungs and gives one the power to throw off wasting diseases. We ask every person suffering from weak lungs, stubborn hacking coughs or any wasting disease to try Vinol on our guarantee.

BEACON FLASHES.

Those who have friends visiting them, or who intend leaving home themselves, will please let it be known at this office so the fact may be mentioned. It does not matter whether you are a subscriber or not. All we ask is—let us know it.

Mrs. Mollie Wiley, of Skinnerville, was here Wednesday.

Mr. William Wiley, of Creswell, was in our town Wednesday.

There is going to be a big time in Creswell next Tuesday—Look out for The Beacon Man.

Miss Katie Ausbon returned Monday night from Creswell where she had been visiting relatives.

We welcome to our town the family of Mr. & G. Jackson. Mr. Jackson has recently engaged in the mercantile business here.

We inadvertently failed to note the fact last week that Miss Eva Simpson of Edenton, was the guest of Mrs. L. L. Hamilton on 3rd street.

Our young friend, Capt. E. T. Loff who has been holding a position as Electrician in Lakewood, N. J. for some months, has returned to his country home near this town.

We hope every family in town will make it a point to have a big dinner on Monday next and that they will make it a point to invite some farmer and his family home to dinner.

Great Scott's, what roads! Can we blame the farmers living three miles from Plymouth for driving five or six miles to Roper to do his trading, rather than come over such roads?

Mess. David Ambrose and Henry Bateman have moved from their farms to our town and are employed at the Wills Veneer Plant. We extend a hearty welcome to these good people.

Prof. C. J. Everett, Misses Virginia and Hilda Spruill, Miss Banks and Miss Beattie Norman, of the Plymouth Graded School, attended the Teachers' meeting at Creswell on Friday night last.

The Roanoke Hotel was sold on Monday last at public auction, Mr. T. J. Basnight, of Scuppernon, being the purchaser. Mr. Basnight will refurnish and otherwise improve this popular hotel before it is opened again to the public.

Mr. Gov. Midgett has bought out the oyster business, and stock of Mr. Elm R. Jackson and will continue the business at the same stand on Washington street. Mr. Midgett is a clever young man and we wish him much success.

Miss Oud Campbell entertained a party of young people at the home of her parents on Main street Wednesday night. We hear that home-made candy was to be served but owing to the presence of so many sweet girls the sugar refused to cook.

Many people would not be without a TURNER'S Almanac if they cost a dollar. Remember this is headquarters for this most valuable publication, and if you are a paid up subscriber for the BEACON you get one FREE. Tell your neighbor about it.

Mrs. T. J. Basnight was here yesterday and requested us to announce that Hotel Roanoke will be opened next week. The travelling public will welcome this news gladly, because Mr. and Mrs. Basnight are such clever people and the old Roanoke is so much like home. We will welcome to our town these good people and bespeak for them a share of the public patronage.

When the farmers and their families come to town Monday let each town man make himself a committee of one to see that the visitors have a good time. Let Plymouth for once throw her doors wide open and bid our farmer friends a hearty welcome. Let us show the country people that they have rights which we respect—Just give them such a glorious welcome that they will want to come often.

There is to be a Farmers Institute held in this town on Monday next, at which time farming in all its details will be discussed by prominent speakers. A woman's Institute will also be held at which time that side of farm life in which the ladies are interested will be discussed. Let all the farmers come to town on that day and bring their wives, sons and daughters, for this meeting is going to be interesting and instructive.

A Popular Couple Wed.

On Thursday afternoon Jan. 9th, a pretty home wedding was solemnized in the beautiful country home of Mrs. J. M. Reid, at Westover, in this county, when Mr. A. J. Newberry, of this town, led to his bride, the accomplished daughter of that home, and there in the presence of the families of the contracting parties these two happy people plighted their troth each to the other and were by the Rev. L. T. Singleton, pastor of the M. E. Church, pronounced man and wife.

The Beacon extends best wishes to this popular young couple.

The Beacon Man returns thanks to the good people of Creswell who assisted in making his recent visit to that town both pleasant and profitable. We over enjoyed the Teachers' meeting held in the Academy on Friday night, and the stay of a few days in the home of Mrs. M. Walker Phelps, also a short visit to the hospitable home of Rev. L. Eborn, to which we were accompanied on Sunday night by Misses Belle Starr and Mary Holmes and Katie Ausbon. The walk across the field and through the picturesque woods beneath the sighing pines, with now and then the silvery moon hiding its face behind a swaying branch, was most inspiring, but as we entered the door of old St. David's Rectory and were once again met by the pleasant smiles and cordial greetings of that sainted old Rector and his family, we forgot, for the time, the beautiful scenes of nature without, and for two hours enjoyed being with those good people and listening to the sweet songs and music rendered by those two charming daughters, Misses Nannie and Sadie.

Reception at Roper.

On Friday night last a most delightful Leap Year reception was given at the Town Hall by the young ladies.

All the gentlemen were invited to meet at the home of Mr. Leary, on Main street. It was there the ladies called for them promptly at 8 o'clock. From Mr. Leary's they were escorted to the hall, which was artistically decorated with ferns and other potted plants.

The most novel feature of the evening was a "New Woman" contest, in which gentlemen were requested to thread needles, work button-holes, trim hats and write recipes, while the ladies drove nails, sharpen pencils and give the best hints on farming.

The ladies' prize, a dainty work bag, was won by Mr. R. R. Roper, for writing the best recipe; while the gentleman's prize, a tie, was awarded Miss Eva C. Chesson, for writing the best paper on gluing cotton.

Music was rendered during the evening by Roper's accomplished pianist, Miss Mabel Whitehurst.

Refreshments, consisting of fudge, Norfolk cream and cake, were served.

Those present were, Miss Mabel Roper, with Mr. B. W. Davenport; Alice Cahoon, with E. L. Spruill; Mabel Whitehurst, with J. F. Leary; Lulu Cahoon, with H. E. Howell; Gladys Mitchell, with E. A. Leary; Carrie Spruill, with B. T. Davenport; Neva Cahoon, with B. R. Roper; Eva C. Chesson, with Milton Clagon; Isabel McAllister, with Edison Davenport; Ethel Kessinger, with Louis Hassell; Annie Cahoon, with J. A. Chesson.

Chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Blount, Mrs. J. W. Speight, Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Kesinger and Mr. W. T. Harvey, Norfolk, Va.
