

The world's greatest men grew upward from the lower classes, while the world's meanest men grew downward from the upper class.

While Craig and Kitchen are debating and slinging personalities at each other in various parts of the State, Mr. Ashley Horne is keeping out of all controversy and is thus gaining ground as a candidate for Governor.

While we are for Craig, yet we have nothing to say against the other gentlemen and if either of them are the choice of the convention this paper will support that man as strongly as if it had been Craig.

Both Mr. Kitchen and Mr. Horne have strong backers in this county. Mr. Horne is being enthusiastically boosted by our genial townsman, Mr. J. W. Read.

COUNTRY life has its drawbacks, but it has its great advantages which overcome them. True, those who live in the country are "Babes" and "Farmers" and "Flayseds" to the cigarette smokers in town, but the boast of the business men in the world today is that they were born on a farm. Take away the surrounding evils that beset the young men or women on the threshold of life's journey in the city, and substitute the helpful influence of nature, and you fortify them for the sterner walks in life. The few things which they do not know about table etiquette and when it is proper to leave two visiting cards and when but one, they will catch onto much quicker than city boys and girls will learn to properly stoke the furnace or make good bread. No boy or girl need be ashamed of living on the farm, for if they have taken advantage of what it has offered they are well fortified for after life.
