

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE"

APPEAL TO DEMOCRATS FOR BRYAN AND KERN CAMPAIGN FUND, FROM THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

To C. V. W. AUSBON, EDITOR OF THE ROANOKE BEACON.
 DEAR SIR:—There are no secrets in this Campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted which requires any promise, either express or implied, other than for HONEST, IMPARTIAL GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "SWOLLEN FORTUNES" by purchasing favors in the past with MILLIONS CONTRIBUTED TO CONTROL ELECTIONS, stand ready to give MILLIONS MORE FOR CONTINUED FAVORS. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th, 1909, "LET THE PEOPLE RULE."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

"BEWARE OF THE TRUSTS BEARING GIFTS." That policy of the favored few buying a mortgage on the Government meant that the candidate for President knew a few people only in an entire State.

Bryan says, "We will take the cause of PEOPLE'S RULE home to the people in every county."

You can serve the grand cause of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's GOOD; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves his country only for his country's GOODS.

Please carry this letter in Bold Type at the mast-head of your paper, asking every one who favors Government by the people to pay you, at once, as many dollars as he can spare to aid the Campaign for BRYAN, KERN and PEOPLE'S RULE. You forward these gifts of honest hearts and homes every week to the Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, with the name of each contributor and amounts given. The Treasurer will forward you a certificate like the copy enclosed for each one, asking you to deliver these certificates.

Once more, you should be a part of the Great Organization bearing the Lamp of Light to every nook and corner of Free America.

Our Country is for the People; its Government must be by the People.

Sincerely,
 NORMAN E. MACK, Chairman
 Democratic National Committee.
 M. C. WETMORE, Chairman
 National Finance Committee.
 C. N. HASKELL, Treasurer
 Democratic National Committee.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c. at Spruill & Bro.

AYCOCK AND MURPHY.

These Democratic Champions tell the people something at Mackey's Ferry Wednesday.

A Multitude listen to the undeniable truth of Democracy.—A big crowd, A Big Dinner.

From early morning until afternoon the people from all parts of the county were gathering at Mackey's Ferry on Wednesday for the purpose of hearing that grand Democrat Chas. E. Aycock, talk Democracy.

The forenoon was spent in ball-playing and social enjoyments. Old friends met old friends and made new ones. Old folks talked of the weather, the crops, etc., while the young folks talked of styles, and—and, whispered words of love 'neath the sighing pines.

At 12:30 the train bearing the speaker arrived, he was met at the depot by a committee and escorted to the grove, the procession being led by the Edenton Band which furnished sweet music during the entire day. Gov. Aycock was accompanied by Hon. Walter Murphy whom he claimed to have kidnapped on the way.

The speaker was escorted to the stand by County Chairman Blount, and Mr. W. M. Bond, Jr. On the stand, serving as a reception committee, and representing the purity of Democracy were the following young ladies: Misses Belle Starr, Sadie Eborn, Ida Swain, Myrtle Peacock, Stella Blount, Eva Chesson, Willie Pugh, Allie Peacock, Mamie Herrington and Neva Chesson. In a few words Mr. Bond introduced Gov. Aycock to the people, and for over an hour he entertained his audience in his able discussion of the political issues. His language was strong yet not abusive. He reviewed the history of both parties and in a bold way contrasted the pure, good government of the Democratic party with the corrupt and unclean administration of the Republicans.

When the speaker closed Mr. W. M. Bond arose and in a few well chosen words presented him with a large bougie of choice flowers as a testimony of appreciation of the fair daughters of Washington county's Democracy.

Dinner being announced the vast multitude repaired to the nearby tables upon which was spread a bountiful supply of good things to satisfy the inner man, to which all did ample justice.

After dinner the people again assembled around the speaker's stand where Senator-to-be, van B. Martin, introduced the Hon. Walter Murphy, Democratic Elector. Mr. Murphy is one of the ablest speakers in the State, but as he is to speak at Mackey's Ferry on the 7th, he cut his speech short, but what he said was argument convincing.

HOW Ralston SHOES ARE MADE

Not only are the best of leathers used in the manufacture of RALSTON SHOES, but also only the choicest parts of the skin are used as you will see in the above diagram.

After being cut, the parts are "fitted" and finally lasted over the famous Ralston lasts—the only lasts which provide for sole fit as well as upper fit.

RALSTON SHOES besides being made of the finest materials, fit perfectly, and because there is no strain on any part, they hold their shape longer, and wear better than any other similar priced shoe we know.

Let us show you our fine variety of Fall styles.
