But a Lau-
To Be In-
as Well as nused.

Amusement enterprise met with such continu-and applause as has London Shows. An
this clean and beautiat every point in its four.

from the genesis of the show units present colossal perfection ere has not been a solitary season in which it has not led its fellows in the multiplicity and general excellence of its attractions and now it towers above and dwarfs all other tent exhibitions in comparative insignificance, and this season it presents such an opulence of sterling and meritorious attractions as to entitle it to be designated as a vast Amusement Golconda whose wondrous wealth of entertainment is unlimited and immeasurable.
Howe's Great London Shows are prolific in leading and sensational features, and fully equipped with the finest stable of horses and the most skillful and finished bareback riders, gymnasts and acrobats in the profession. The show has a large, well-ordered and well selected menagerie, containing living, vigorous specimens of all that is strange, rare and curious within the range of natural history, and this Royal Roman Hippodrome is a realistic reproduction of that of the days of the Imperial Caesar.

It may be said, however, that to these always prominent and desirable attractions have been added, for the current season, many features so stupendous in magnitude, so overpowering in unprecedented grandeur and impressiveness, and so enormous in the expense necessary to this production, that the features mentioed, grand and wonderful as they are can at best play but a secondary part.

Don't forget the date, Saturday, October 9th.

Money Comes In Bunches

so A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y.
now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then I used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. See
