TAFT DISTRESSED.

Congress Criticises Traveling Expenses of President

OVERDREW $25,000 ALLOWANCE

Deeply Grieved by Suggested Reflection on Southern Hospitality Democratic Congressmen Object to New Appropriation For Expenses Becoming Immediately Available.

Washington, Special.—President Taft's traveling expenses and the fact that he had overdrawn his allowance of $25,000 a year voted by congress led to acrimonious debate in the house Thursday and a refusal to permit him to use the next year's allowance to meet the deficiency.

As reported from the house committee on appropriations the items of $25,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, next, would have become "immediately available" except for the protests of Democratic members. The words "immediately available" were finally stricken out by the action of Mr. Mann (Ill.), the occupant of the chair, in sustaining a point of order made by Mr. Mason (Ark.), a Democrat. It was the Western and Southern trip made last fall that exhausted the White House traveling fund. During the debate Chairman Tawney, in charge of the bill, criticised Southern Democrats for their attitude in objecting to an appropriation to defray the expense of a trip on which they had been the president's guests. Mr. Hardwick (Ga.), drew from Mr. Tawney the admission that Secretary Carpenter had furnished him a list of names of Democrats who had accepted the president's hospitality.

In connection with the use of such names, Mr. Burtlett (Ga.), charged that "the president has violated both the rules of hospitality and of decent conduct."

The president, Mr. Tawney said, had made his trip through the West and South at the invitation of senators, governors of States and civic organizations.

"This trip," Mr. Tawney said, "was not made for his own pleasure. Congress was in session when delegation after delegation from the house, from the senate and from the different States visited him urging him to make this trip."

At that time, Mr. Tawney said, there was no appropriation to meet the traveling expenses.

Washington, Special.—"In all my experience, and I have enjoyed the hospitality of many sections and countries of the world, I never had a more cordial, generous or open and lavish welcome than I had in the Southern States during my trip, and the slightest hint that puts me in the attitude of a critic of that hospitality gives me great pain."

This in part is the manner in which President Taft Friday in a letter to Chairman Tawney of the House committee on appropriations deeply resented criticisms passed by Democrats in the debate in the House Thursday upon the traveling expenses of the President.

The President says he is especially distressed by "suggested reflection on Southern hospitality."

Union Veteran "Sat Down On."

Freeport, Ill., Special.—At an executive session of the department of Illinois, G. A. R., here Thursday, a resolution of Col. Jasper P. Darling Columbia post, Chicago, calling upon the president to take such steps as may seem best to remove the statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee from the nation's hall of fame at Washington and to return it to the care and custody of the State of Virginia was laid on the table as ill-advised.

Prisoners Get in Style.

Columbus, Ohio, Special.—One hundred prisoners, from murderers to burglars, went on a strike at the Ohio penitentiary and refused to work because they thought that they were being fed condemned meat.

The strikers were placed in solitary confinement.

The officials deny that the prisoners are being given condemned meat.

Startling Testimony of Sugar Witness

New York, Special.—Oliver Spitzer former superintendent of docks of the American Sugar Refining Company in Williamsburg, (Brooklyn) who recently was pardoned from the penitentiary by President Taft, explained Thursday why he did not confess during the trial which ended last February with his being sentenced to two years at Atlanta. Such a confession, he declared, on the stand would "have carried him to a cemetery." In other words, he would have implicated a dead man—Henry O. Havemeyer, late head of the Sugar trust.

"BY THIS SIGN CONQUER."

Sunday School Children in Uniform Parade and Sing.

Washington, Special.—Children took the principal part in the closing session of the sixth convention of the World's Sunday-school Association.

Dressed in costumes of most of the nations of the world, and carrying the flags of those countries, preceded by the "conquest flag," which bears a cross and the words "by this sign conquer," a long line of them filled the front of the big platform and later marched through the aisles of the immense hall singing.

The next convention will meet in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1913. The month and date will be determined later by the executive committee.

The committee on resolutions presented a report, which was unanimously adopted by the Convention, declaring for a campaign of evangelization in the Roman Catholic countries; for civic purity; for universal peace and expressing the conviction that Sunday-school influences are responsible for the wave of prohibition which has swept some sections of the country.

Boys Lost to Church.

Washington, Special.—Seventy-five per cent. of all the boys over 13 years in the Protestant Sunday schools of the United States are lost to the church and never make professions of faith. Lorimer, Attorney W. S. Forest continued efforts here to have the bribery indictment against Browne quashed.

Compared Lee to Benedict Arnold.

Freeport, Ill., Special.—Invecting against the placing of the statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee in the hall of fame in Washington, Col. Jasper T. Darling, past commander of Columbia post, G. A. R., Chicago, addressed the initial campfire of the State encampment of the Illinois G. A. R. He compared Robert E. Lee to Benedict Arnold and prophesied that the acceptance of the statue of the Confederate leader would be a step towards pensioning Confederate soldiers and opening the way to the federal government assuming the burden of Confederate war bonds.

FRIENDS TO RESCUE

Augusta Business Men Come to Aid of Taft

OFFER TO PAY THE OVERDRAFT

Of $5,000 of the President's Traveling Expenses Made by Southerners—Taft Pleased at Evidence of Friendliness—Cannot Accept Offer.

Washington, Special.—A protest against the action of certain Democratic members of the Congress in opposing the appropriation of $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses, covering the President's last Southern trip and an offer to make up the deficiency, was telegraphed to Speaker Cannon Saturday by the Augusta (Ga.) Chamber of Commerce and Cotton Exchange and Georgia-Carolina Fair Association. The telegram announced that at a called meeting of the three organizations the following memorial was ordered sent to the Speaker, to be presented to the House and to President Taft:

"Augusta, the winter home of President Taft, stands indignant and mortified at the action of certain Democratic members of Congress in defeating by technical objection the proposition to make retroactive, so as to cover all the expenses of his last Southern trip, the appropriation of $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses.

"At a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade, and the Georgia-Carolina Fair Association held this day, it was unanimously agreed that we respectfully tender through you, to the government of the United States the $5,000 necessary to meet the deficiency of the President's recent trans-continental trip which did so much to cement the ties between the different sections and bring nation and the nation's Chief Executive in closer touch and sympathy with each other."

The President could not possibly accept the offer of the patriotic Georgians. He intends to pay out of his own pocket his traveling expenses for the remainder of the fiscal year. These will amount to about $7,000 or $8,000, as the President proposes to make all the visits planned by him between now and the end of the year.

Two Brave American Boys.

Washington, Special.—After riding on horseback most of the way across the continent to meet Colonel Roosevelt on his arrival in New York, Louis and Temple Abernathy, aged 9 and 6, respectively, sons of Jack Abernathy, the wolf catcher and friend of the former President, arrived here Saturday night. They rode from Frederick, Md., Saturday, a distance of 57 miles. Temple dropped off to sleep the minute his head touched the pillow. While the little fellow was curled up restfully under the white covers, Louis talked of their trip.

"Temple and I," he said, "wanted to see some of the animals sent from Africa and we will go over to the Smithsonian Institution to see if we can have a look at some of them."

When asked what he intended to say to Mr. Roosevelt when he met him in New York, Louis replied that "it would depend on what Mr. Roosevelt said to them" and that he "could not cross that fence until he came to it."

President Taft received the two little travelers.

THE NEWS MINUTELY TOLD

The Heart of Happenings Carved From the Whole Country.

The intense hatred of proselytes from the native religions is shown in the more than ordinary Chinese ingenuity employed in torturing them. In some instances victims' tongues have been torn out by the roots, and they have been mockingly told to preach the new creed. Bound till they could scarcely move a muscle, others have been tickled continually till their brains gave way. The water torture—the steady dropping of water on one spot of the body—has been frequently employed.

The oldest theological student ever graduated from the Union Theological seminary, New York, is the Rev. Hareatune Jinishian, who has just received his diploma. Mr. Jinishian will be 70 years old in a few months. His wife and children witnessed the graduation exercises. He is an Armenian and is older than any of the professors who taught him during his work in the seminary, where he has been a student for six years.

After a delay of 32 years, Charles Dana Burrage, a wealthy attorney of Boston, was graduated Wednesday from the University of California with the degree of bachelor of arts. "Charles" Burrage was denied a diploma because of a snake, an owl and a pair of lizards which appeared in Professor Palda's French class back in '78. But his classmates have labored incessantly in his behalf. And now the faculty has relented and Burrage was given his degree.

Just why the cat selected the church steeple and such a precarious place to start a family, and how she ever reached that pinnacle, are questions that are puzzling the people of the neighborhood very much.

LUTHERAN COLLEGES

Proposition Made to Consolidate Lenoir and Mt. Pleasant.

SENTIMENT STRONG FOR CHANGE

If Effected May Have a Far-Reaching Influence in Work of Lutheran Church—Tennessee Synod Meets October 1st—Extra Session N. C. Synod Probable.

Hickory, N. C., Special.—In answer to the broad proposition for consolidation of Lenoir College and Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute made Tuesday night by the commission of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod, the officers of the Tennessee Synod and the committee of the board of trustees of Lenoir College met Wednesday morning and drew up a proposition and submitted it to the commission of the North Carolina Synod. It was first submitted to the full board of trustees of Lenoir College which adopted it unanimously and then adjourned sine die.

This proposition, in whatever form it leaves the joint conference, is to be submitted to the respective synods for final consideration.

There is a small indebtedness of about $12,000 on Lenoir College and under the resolution the North Carolina Synod would assume half of this debt. It is understood that the indebtedness of the North Carolina Synod on its Mount Pleasant properties is small and therefore there is nothing burdensome in the terms of the resolution that the Tennessee Synod is to be free from any responsibility for indebtedness at Mount Pleasant.

Lenoir College has a magnificent property with a fine main building whose towering dome overlooks the town. In it are classrooms. There are two up-to-date dormitories, one for boys and one for girls, two stories and spacious. There are professors' houses around the beautiful wooded 20-acre campus. The property is easily worth $100,000. The old North Carolina College property is estimated by some to be worth $40,000, but probably $30,000 would be too liberal an estimate, and at auction it would not bring that.

There is a strong sentiment for consolidation, and both synods seem to be convinced that this is the propitious time for it. If it is effected it may have a far-reaching effect in the work of the Lutheran Church and it is hard to estimate all the possibilities that are wrapped up in it.

It is possible that there may be a called meeting of the North Carolina Synod to consider this proposition. The Tennessee Synod's regular meeting is October 1 at Lineolton, and strangely enough it is to be in the same church where the separation from the North Carolina Synod was effected in the year 1820, and the main thing at this next meeting will be the consolidation proposition—a plan for co-operation that has possibilities of extension in it.
