MR. EDITOR: I desire space in your valuable paper to say a few words relative to the candidate to be nominated and elected to fill the various offices of our coanty by the democratic party. I noticed in the last issue of the BEACON some one suggesting names to the public as they believed to be suitable. And in didate for nomination as Repsentati glancing over the list I failed to ive from Washington County in the find the name of our respected biv, subject to the action of the Dem and worthy citizen one who has occatio Primaries and Convention. been tested and tried in every particular whose location places him in the best position to fill the office if elected to the best advanthe guest of Miss Minche Jackson bunday tage of Register of Deeds of any man I know of if it marriage license you want day or night or desiers. an important paper you want recorded at once, if he is not in his office, just step across the street from the court house and you will I take this method of an announcing find Mr. F R.
