The Farmers' Meeting.

It was the intention of this paper, with greater help from others, to arrange a big picnic in the county on the day of the Farmers' Meeting this year, and we expected the meeting to be held at Roper. The notices, however, came in upon us unexpectedly yesterday. Of course we are glad to have this meeting in Plymouth, and trust that every farmer in the county will attend for they are just beginning to realize the importance of them, but we are sorry to have had such short notice.
A Big Barbecue Dinner will be served Free. Let All Come!

WASHINGTON, N. C., July 27, 1910.
EDITOR ROANOKE BEACON:
I am gratified to announce that a Farmers' Educational Meeting will be held in Plymouth on Thursday, August 4th. There will be a morning and afternoon session.
Some of the leading experts in Agriculture will address the meeting, and will discuss topics of vital interest to every man in Washington County interested in the soil. Those engaged in other vocations will also find the meeting extremely interesting.
Mr. E. Lester Boykin, of the Office of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture, will discuss the subject of good roads. The discussion of this topic alone will more than repay the time and trouble in attending.
There will be no politics about the meeting, directly or indirectly. The only purpose is to bring benefit to the people.
Respectfully,
JNO H SMALL.
