MARRIED

The contracting parties being Mr. Jesse Gatlin and Miss Alice Moore. Mr. Gatlin was a native of Pamlico Co. but for the past few months has been residing at this place where he holds a position with the N. S. R. R. Co. The bride is a popular young lady of this town. Their many friends offers best wishes, and happy congratulations.

ATTEMPT ROBBERY

Between the hours of one and two o'clock Tuesday morning, night policeman J. H. Brinkley, heard some noise in the rear of Mr. W. C. Ayers, grocery store and upon investigation, found the back cellar door open and a large pile of meat lying just inside. He went at once and called Mr. Ayers and one of his salesmen Mr. Henry Gaylord, and they then returned to the store finding it as Mr Brinkley had left it and two colored men, Green Pettiford and Frank James, on the river shore near by. Mr. Brinkley considered the evidence sufficient and arrested the two men. A hearing was had before Mayor Spruill on Tuesday morning, and he bound them over to the Superior Court, Pettiford being unable to give the required bond was placed in Jail.

PEOPLE who talk most about their religion usually have the least religion to talk about.

CUPID'S CAPERS.

The 3 o'clock A. C. L. train on Monday afternoon brought to this town Mr. Benjamin Harris and Miss Susie Bridgers of Tarboro who were in quest of a marriage license, having run the gauntlet of the irate pater of the bride to be at home.

The parties had formed the acquaintance of Rev. E. C. Andrews of this town during the trip and engaged him to perform the marriage ceremony as soon as license could be procured. For convenience sake Mr. Andrews takes them home with him, and the groom's best man Mr. Riggan sought the Register of Deeds and made application for the necessary papers, but Mr Johnston while not being from Missouri, was careful, and demanded a look at the young lady, and when she put in an appearance he refused to grant their request. But love that laughs at lock-smiths, etc was not to be daunted, Mr Riggan hurried to the 4 o'clock west bound train and made a run of it to Williamston, returning on the 7:45 with the proper license. So far, so good, but a Martin County license was no good in Washington County and there was no train out before 7:30 the next morning and time was pressing as the "old folks" might then be on the war path so a few friends secured conveyances and all drove to Wards' bridge which spans the creek dividing the two counties, and then at 10 o'clock p. m. in the middle of the public highway, with the star-bedecked canopy of heaven as their roof and the gentle murmers of Welch's creek rendering their wedding march. Miss Bridgers became Mrs. Harris. Through his invitation the bride and groom returned to the home of Mr. Andrews, where they remained until Tuesday afternoon when they left for home, there to meet with - we trust a happy reconciliation from those who should not forget that they were once young themselves

The BEACON extends best wishes to the happy couple for a more smooth path through their wedded life than the few hours preceding it proved to be.
