

WISE, ALL RIGHT.

Mr. Wise—Where's the man that struck my wife—where is he?
 Rysander—What'll you do if you find him?
 Mr. Wise—Introduce him to my mother-in-law.
 Why? Just Because.
 "Papa," said the little boy, "why do they say a woman is 'setting her cap for a man' when she wants to marry him?"
 "Because, my son," explains the father, softly, "if she sets her bonnet for him she knows he's worth the price of it will scare him to death."

OLDEST MAJOR LEAGUE INFELDERS

Fred Tenney, Manager of Boston Nationals.

Not many of the infielders in the fast set today have seen ten years or more of service with the majors.

Of the ancients on the inner works the oldest is Fred Tenney, recently appointed manager of the Boston Nationals, and who will try to play first base in addition.

Tenney entered the majors in 1894 or 17 years ago, and played almost all that time with Boston. In 1908 he was traded to New York along with Al Bridwell and lasted two seasons with McGraw's men. He had to quit early in the season of 1910 because of bad legs, and the remainder of that year was spent in the minors.

Another baseball venerable who stamps on the base lines is Harry Davis, field leader of the world's champions and the good man Friday of Connie Mack. Captain Davis begins his eleventh consecutive season with Mr. Mack this year, yet he was considered a veteran when he first joined the Athletics in 1901.

Before his career as a Mackman Davis won a reputation with the New York and Pittsburgh clubs. Davis carries his years well and played an exceedingly swift game last season. Mack expects him to be as much of a help to the team this year as he was in 1910.

Rhody Wallace has seen many seasons come and go in his long and honorable career in the majors. Wallace is a Pat Tebeau find. He began his career with Cleveland when that club was in the National League.

Larry Lajoie of Cleveland has been with the big show for many years. He joined the Phillies in 1896 and has divided 15 years of playing between Philadelphia and Cleveland.

SPORTING GOSSIP

If one report is to be believed, Adde Joss is all in; if another is believed to, his arm was never as strong.

Elliott, the new infielder of the Highlanders, has been left $30,000 by a relative. He says he will keep right on playing ball just the same.

Comiskey says Jimmy Callahan is the "wonder of the decade," that Cal has come back with a vengeance, good as ever.

George Stone's legs are in bad condition, and he fears that his playing days are about over. Stone didn't last very long, but he had his share of the calcium.

New Haven, it is stated, has purchased Pitcher Mabery from Cleveland. He was told to take his choice of Fanwell, Doane or Mayberry and he took the latter.

Connie Mack has announced his regular lineup for the start of the season. Hogan, an outfielder, and Callamore, a pitcher, are the youngsters he picks to stay with the team.

Topeka has sold Outfielder McLaurin, secured from Chattanooga, to Waco and has bought Crompton, a youngster secured by Cincinnati from Johnston, Pa., last fall.

Clark Griffith, like Bobby Wallace, it is said, wants no more of Hot Springs as a training camp and the Reds may go into Texas next spring, probably to San Antonio.

Harry Davis stood up like a little man the other day and remarked: "None of that St. Louis Brown stuff for mine. I'm going to stick to the Athletics as long as they'll let me, and there isn't a manager's job in the world that can induce me to leave."

Gus Dudson, former Comiskeyite, has signed with Lincoln in the Western league. He will be used as utility infielder.

Ball games Sunday before noon at Oakland, Cal., have proved successful from a patronage point of view.

One fan's idea of nothing to be excited about is a telegraph bowling match.

M'Curdy in Protest.

J. A. D. M'Curdy, the aviator, has entered a formal protest with the Aero Club of America against awarding the $5,000 City of Havana prize to Rene Barriat, the French aviator. It is alleged that M'Curdy completed the flight from Camp Columbia, Havana, to and around Morro Castle and return on February 5 in 16 minutes 51.25 seconds, and as the conditions of the prize called for the fastest time between January 25 and March 1 the prize should go to M'Curdy.

BUSH PLAYS WITH CHILDREN

Little Detroit Shortstop is Great Admirer of Girls and Boys—Also Fond of Animals.

Owen Bush, one of the most aggressive ball players in the world, and a man who fights for everything when he is on the field, sparing neither umpire nor opponents if he thinks some one is trying to hand him the worst of it, is as mild as a kitten when he has a chance to play with children. The little shortstop has a mania for amusing himself with the youngsters, and will spend hours talking to little boys and girls whenever the chance offers itself.

Bush's idea of a real happy day is to be permitted to mind a brood of youngsters for several hours. He likes nothing better than to visit the married men of the Detroit ball club and spend his time talking to the kids. If there are children in the house, the grown-ups need expect nothing of Mr. Bush. Beyond the usual salutations, he contributes nothing to the gaiety of the adult circles, resenting it if anyone other than a child makes demands on his time.

It is a matter of record that Bush once spent four hours of a visit to a fellow ball player amusing a child, without so much as speaking to anyone else present. Fans who might have gathered the idea from watching Donie on the field that his favorite recreations are murder and assault and battery therefore will have to form a new opinion of the energetic and scrappy player.

Next to children, Owen likes animals. Anyone who abuses a dog or horse when he is present is likely to encounter a variety of trouble, for the Indianapolis boy has the courage of his convictions and will stand up for the beasts every time.

HOLDS BREATH NINE MINUTES

Extraordinary Results Obtained by English Physician in Experimenting With Oxygen.

Attention was drawn some time ago to English experiments with oxygen as a means of developing additional energy in athletes just before taking part in races or games, says the Popular Mechanics. In a recent experiment, conducted at the medical school of the London hospital, one of the doctors, after breathing oxygen out of a bag for five minutes, was able to hold his breath nine minutes and three seconds.

From the above test, and others of almost as long duration without breathing, Dr. Leonard Hill concludes that by taking oxygen before a quarter-mile race an athlete ought to be able to hold his breath during the whole race, and devote the energy thus saved to faster running.

Queensbury Rules Prevail.

Word was received in New York the other day that in the future all fighters who are signed up to meet in battles in Paris will have to agree to box straight Marquis of Queensbury rules. In the recent fight between Harry Lewis and Blink McCloskey, which went 25 rounds, McCloskey did considerable clinching and landed few blows. This was caused by the men agreeing not to hit in the clinches and in the breakaway. Since then the club owners have decided on straight rules.

Baseball's "bad boys" are gradually dropping out of the game. Managers will not waste their time on the loose livers.

THE ALARMING PREVALENCE OF ECZEMA

Finds Victims Among Every Race, Age and Condition.

Of all the diseases of the skin and scalp which torture and disfigure mankind, three-fourths are eczematous. Millions are born with eczema, and it is the only thing other millions have left when they die. Neglect in infancy and childhood, irritating conditions affecting the skin, ignorance of its real nature, improper remedies and many other causes that might be mentioned have created an eczema which, with varying severity, has afflicted countless numbers during their entire lives. Eczema is a skin disease. It is not regarded as hereditary, nor contagious, and is impartially distributed among the rich and poor, the high and low. The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, causing loss of sleep, is usually the most distressing symptom and is caused by the bursting of little vesicles filled with an acid fluid, which burns as with fire the denuded skin. New vesicles form, fill and burst, scales form upon scales, and crusts upon crusts until disfigurement is added to torture.

One of the most successful treatments for eczema, whether applied to the youngest infant or the oldest person, is hot baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointments of Cuticura ointment. For more than a generation, these pure, sweet and gentle emollients have proved the most efficient agents in the speedy and permanent relief of all forms of eczemas, rashes, itchings and irritations of the skin and scalp. Although Cuticura soap and ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, in order that those who have suffered long and hopelessly and who have lost faith in everything may make trial of them without charge, a liberal sample of each will be mailed free to any address, together with a 32-page pamphlet, giving a description and treatment of the various forms of eczema, as well as other affections of the skin, scalp, hair and hands—send to "Cuticura," Dept. W, Boston.
