

"MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER."

At Creswell, N. C., on Friday evening last, Jan., 24th, from 8:00 till 11:00 o'clock, Misses Myra Hardison and Hattie Snell gave a "Miscellaneous Shower," complimentary to Miss Blanche Swain, whose approaching marriage to Mr. Henry Litchfield, Jr., is a topic of much social interest.

The guests were received by Miss Smith and Dr. Hardison, and ushered into the reception room, which had been made most attractive with masses of palms and ferns.

When all had assembled progressive hearts were enjoyed until 9:30. The first prize was won by Mr. S. C. Abernathy, for the highest score, who presented it to the guest of honor.

Other games of much interest were enjoyed. The bride-elect was presented with a hand-drawn cook-book, and each lady present favored her by writing her best recipe.

The dining-room doors were thrown open by little Miss Virginia Peal and Master Harry Starr, where luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Starr and Peal. The table was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white, the favorite colors of the bride-elect. The centre piece was a beautiful doll attired in a bridal costume and carried a flower bouquet. Each place was marked by a doll, as bride's-aids, dressed in pink. Silver candle-sticks shaded in pink lent brilliancy to the scene.

After the salad course, dainty treats were served. The guests before leaving the dining-room were presented with a small bag of rice, tied with pink ribbon. The gifts were arranged in an express wagon, drawn in by Miss Peal and Master Starr. Miss Swain was opening gifts, which were numerous and useful, she was showered with rice.

Those enjoying Misses Hardison and Snell's hospitality were, and Mrs. D. E. Woodley, and Mrs. T. C. Holmes, Mr. Mrs. J. W. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Peal, Mesdames D. J. L. Hassell, Ida Swain, T. Spruill; Misses Blanche

Swain, Carrie Smith, Callie Holmes, Elsie Swain, Matilda Alexander, Hattie Snell, Mattie Weeks, Myra Hardison, Messers Henry Litchfield, Henderson Norman, Harry Walker, H. C. Griffin, S. C. Abernathy, T. N. Gray and Dr. W. H. Hardison.
