Physicians Recommend Castoria CASTORTA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaresults most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionatly tho ressilt of three facts: Firet-The indispatable ovidence that it is harmiess: Socons-That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third-It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is alsolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other nareotio and does rot stupefy. It is uulike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Goifrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Jourrual to say, Our dury, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. Tho day or poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought regulating the system-not by stupeffing it-and our readers are entitled to the information--How
