NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC TO AVOID AN OCCASION OF TROUBLE AND A WORLD OF EMBARRASSMENT.

I take this method of warning those who have in their possession on person, or premises, any property belonging to the Naval Militia of this division or any other division, will be doing the right to get it out and turn same in at once. We have been reliably informed that there are blankets belonging to this division being used by people in this town for private use. Now there is just this much to it, if you have any property belong to the state (it can be identified; and it will be after a while) and if such is the case you would do well to notify Lieut. E. R. Jackson, Plymouth, N. C., who has the matter in charge, and he will promptly respond to the call and take same up, and that will let you out. If this isn't done at once as we have requested the department will put up a diligent search for same, and if any property is found the parties owning the premises on which the property is found will be INDICTED and the burden of proof rests on the parties indicted. All the expense and embarrassment from such proceedings can be avoided by giving this matter your prompt attention.

Bro-Mal-Gine

"No, madam, I never recommend headache medicines that affect the heart action. It's easier to suffer temporarily with a bursting head than it is to die with a bursting heart."
 "But I can safely recommend this. Been selling it for 15 years and never had a case where it did the least harm."
 "Oh, yes, it's pleasant to take, we serve it at our fountain and it is the most popular remedy we have for Headache, Neuralgia, Backache and other aches that are superinduced by colds and stomach disorders."
 "Which size bottle will you have?"
 "Thank you, Call again."
