

Works Wonders for Sick Women

STELLA-VITAE cured this woman, who had suffered for 25 years. Give it a chance to cure YOU!

WHAT STELLA-VITAE HAS DONE for one woman is well told by Mr. S. J. Hendrix, of Posen, Texas, who gratefully writes us:

"For twenty-five years I had from one to three Doctors treating my wife for female troubles, and tried various patent medicines and she only received temporary relief. We tried STELLA-VITAE and to our surprise it restored her to better health than she ever had. It did a wonderful work in her case."

STELLA-VITAE acts directly upon the female organs and functions. It tones and strengthens the muscles and tissues, builds up and restores the whole system when run down and wasted by disease, soothes and adjusts the delicate nervous organization to that harmonious balance so necessary to perfect womanly health.

STELLA-VITAE regulates the functions peculiar to women, stops wasting and relieves dangerous suppression, banishes the terrors of those periods so dreaded by weak, nervous, run-down women.

STELLA-VITAE does not force nature, and is of remarkable benefit at all times and under all conditions. Its use during pregnancy benefits both mother and child.

We guarantee the first bottle of STELLA-VITAE to benefit you. If it don't you get your money back. If it does, your dealer is authorized to sell you six bottles for $5.

Try STELLA-VITAE on this "all to gain and nothing to lose" basis. Try it TODAY.

If you are sick there is no time like NOW for trying STELLA-VITAE.

High Hats. The enormous height of the millinery of 1914 led Jane Cowl to remark: "I know a man whose wife said to him the other day: 'Oh, dear, there's that old Christmas tree lying in the back yard over a month now, I don't know what on earth to do with it.' 'Can't you put it on your new hat?' her husband asked."

ECZEMA ON HEAD AND FACE

Reedy, W. Va.—"My baby boy when three weeks old took the eczema on the head and face. It broke out in pimples and first they looked like blisters and a yellow water would run from them. His head was perfectly raw and his hair was all gone. Everybody said he would never have any more hair. As the sores spread his hair came out. The breaking out itched so badly that we had to keep gloves on his hands to keep him from scratching his head and face. It caused disfigurement. He couldn't rest at night it burned and itched so badly.

"He was treated for eight months and he got worse all the time. So I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In two months he was completely cured after using the Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) G. A. Dye, Jan. 7, 1912.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 15

LAWFUL USE OF THE SABBATH.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 13:10-17; 14:1-6. GOLDEN TEXT—"The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."—Mark 2:27.

These two sections of scripture have been chosen that we might emphasize the truth of the golden text which can correctly be translated, "The Sabbath was brought into being on account of man, and not man on account of the Sabbath."

There are two extremes of thought and action as regards the Christian Sabbath. One is to make it a holiday, the other to make it a holy-day, to worship the day as though it possessed some secret sacredness thereby forgetting the author of the day. A study of what Jesus taught will check laxity on the one hand and correct fanatical error on the other.

Contrast Shown. I. Jesus loosing the woman, 13:10-17. This incident is a strong contrast between God's mercy and man's lack of mercy. Satan was to blame for the woman's illness (v. 16) and at the same time for the hardness of the hearts of these men. The incident occurred in a synagogue and displeased the leaders. As if to rebuke them Jesus not only spoke the word of relief but also touched her, causing an instantaneous and a complete cure. Her response was to glorify God. The sight of this satanic captive acted in contrast upon Jesus and the ruler of the synagogue. Compassion and an utter lack of sympathy. More care for legalism than for the relief of one created in God's image. Jesus seems to have acted speedily and is today calling the unfortunate to him to be healed and comforted, Matt. 11:28-30. Jesus could have healed by a word only, John 5:40-43, but there is power also in the loving touch, which in this case quickened her faith (v. 13). The record does not suggest that her cure was in response to her faith as was the case in other cures, Matt. 8:10; 15:28. If the ruler had had a heart of compassion he too would have rejoiced at the cure, but he cared more for ceremonial ecclesiasticism than for the good of the worshippers and his emotion was that of indignation rather than that of joy. A religion that is more concerned with bondage to the beggarly elements, the observance of days (Gal. 4:9-11) is here denounced as hypocrisy (vv. 15, 16). It is to have more interest in property than in human souls. Ofttimes hatred for those who do not agree with us is covered up by a false fanatical pretended jealousy for the law of God.

Love's Attribute. II. Jesus healing the man, 4:1-6. In this incident the question of the Sabbath is raised by Jesus himself, evidently in answer to their mental attitude, for "they watched him" (v. 1). Receiving no reply, Jesus first healed the man and then again reminded them of the care they gave their cattle. Jesus plainly implies that if they give care to an ox or an ass on the Sabbath, how can it possibly be wrong to relieve humanity on the Sabbath? Mercy and love are superior to ceremonies though these be of divine appointment. The reasoning is clear. Love is an attribute of God's character, I John 4:8, and therefore his own ceremonies must give way before the activities and energies of his being. Thus to act upon the principles that concern the value of an "ox or an ass" is to allow the lower to control the higher, for a man is of more value than the ox. These Pharisees were exceedingly religious, great for the "letter of the law," but they were dried up at heart, and consequently far worse off than the man with the dropsy. It is small wonder then that the master's reply should silence them so "they could not answer him."

The Teaching.—It is true that fundamentally the Sabbath idea is one of worship and rest, but the reason for its existence is because of man's need of that rest. That true rest can be found only in a true and intelligent spiritual fellowship with God. Anything, therefore, that interferes with or hinders rest breaks the Sabbath and should be removed in order that the Sabbath intention may be observed. These men were justified in leading an ox or an ass to water on the Sabbath or to rescue one in peril. On the same principle any work which enables men to enter into a Sabbath rest is not only justifiable but necessary in the interest of the Sabbath itself. They cared for cattle only as cattle, their property; we must care for men for their own sakes and in his interest and behalf.

The Sabbath must never be desecrated by being made an instrument of harm to man. It is always desecrated when, in the presence of human need, we decline to render service on the plea of the sanctity of the day. A false ceremonial sanctity of any particular day must never be permitted to destroy the underlying, the truly essential, sanction and authority for a Sabbath rest. Physically we do not each night fully regain our lost energy and need the seventh day to balance the account. Spiritually we need the strength that comes from the Sabbath day's rest, Isa. 30:15.

Grundy on Shaw. Sydney Grundy has written a little pamphlet in which he has gone for Mr. Bernard Shaw with a hatchet. He says: "Mr. Shaw is a spent force—a closed chapter—a tale that is told—a back number—a lost chord—a fired rocket—an exploded mine—an extinct volcano, vomiting only ashes and dust. Mr. Shaw is done. His star is on the wane; his candle only gutters in its socket; his beauty is passe, his wheezes are chestnuts, his sleights of hand transparent, his humors rheum. He is running a race with time, and gave himself twenty years' start, and time is beating him to a frazzle."

Griffio Gets Religion. "Dowling's" burned out on Times square the other night, and those who for years had occupied rooms above the famous old billiard hall were forced to run for their lives in what raiment they happened to be wearing at that nocturnal moment. Among them was Kid Griffio, who was at one time a fighter and is today the best piano player between midnight and one o'clock in an uptown music hall. "I did a nut trick," Griffio is quoted as saying. "I took two flights of stairs in two jumps, w' the fire bitin' at me. If I'd been left at the post you coulda buried me in a fryin' pan." "And what did you get?" asked his friend. "On them stairs," said Mr. Griffio, "I gets a pair of singed hands and religion."

He Had Experience. Once upon a time a small boy about three years old was taken to the church to be baptized. As soon as he caught sight of the bowl of water in the minister's hand he remembered his antipathy for the bathtub and straightened himself up for the attack. When the minister approached him, reverently dipping his hand in the water, the little fellow said: "If you put soap in my eyes I'll bus' you open."—National Monthly.
