The ladies of the Episcopal Church, Creswell, N. C., had their Annual Bazaar Friday, Dec., 7th, with much success; realizing from the fancy and supper $45.00.

Last January the president of the Auxiliary offered a prize to the one who would try to raise the most money over $5.00 during the year. The ladies working for this prize were; Miss Myra Hardison Mrs. R. H. Frehn, Mrs. J. L. Hassell, Mrs. Ida Swain, Mrs. J. L. Phelps. Mrs. Phelps having raised $50.00 won the prize of $5.00 in gold. The President wishes to express her sincere thanks for the work and corporation of the whole Auxilliary during the year 1917.

Christmas Party at Pleasant Grove.

We are requested to announce that there will be given a Christmas Party on Friday evening next, Dec. 21st, at Pleasant Grove School house. Refreshments, contests, etc., will be enjoyed and the proceeds used for benefit of the school.

Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Basket Supper.

There will be a patriotic exercise and basket supper at Cherry Graded School on Thursday night Dec. 20th. The following program will begin promptly at 7 o'clock.

School Song By all grades,
Baby Bye 1st. Grade,
Rec. How I'd like to spend Xmas, Gertrude Alexander.
Flag Drill, Five Boys,
Rec. A Way to win in Life, Malinda Ambrose.
Getting Ready for Vacation, 1st. Grade.

Motion Song, Grand-fateer's Clock, 2nd. Grade.

Rec. When Circus comes to Town, Wilber Overton.

Play: True Charity, Six Girls Cantata, The Flag.

The baskets will be prepared by our Domestic Science Class. The school is fortunate in securing a teacher, Miss Lena Westcott, who has had special training in this course. We haven't a regular room for this work, but the class follows instruction and prepare the work at home bringing it to the school for analysis and gaading. A prize is offered for the best basket. Proceeds for benefit of piano fund.
