A Nation's Tribute to Buick

There is no incentive tribute to an industry in the United States more generally appreciated than the National Automobile Show.

It is the twenty-third National Automobile Show, just opening in New York, and for in Chicago, the nation is provided with a display of its chief means of personal transportation. This display is so complete and so magnificently set forth that all who come may easily carry away a perfect picture of the latest accomplishments in motor car building.

Year after year the national shows receive the homage of the entire country. Year after year they mark by their own increased magnitude and splendor, the increased growth of the automobile industry.

In occupying first place at both national shows for the fifth consecutive year, Buick continues the position in the industry awarded it by universal public opinion.
