Surprise Marriage.

Our community was somewhat surprised Saturday morning to learn that Prof. John W. Darden and Mrs. Blanche Newberry were married in Wilson.

The wedding took place in the home of Rev. J. A. Taylor and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Pat Flannagan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at that place. Immediately after the wedding the bride and groom motored to Morehead City, where they remained until Monday, when they returned to Plymouth. They are occupying rooms in the home of Mr. G. H. Hale on Main street.

Prof. Darden is superintendent of public instruction of Washington county, is well known throughout North Car in educational and fraternal circles, he being an active member of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Oddfellows, Charitable Brotherhood and other fraternal organizations. He is also a consistent member of the Christian church.

Mrs. Darden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Latham, thrifty farmers near here, and is a very capable, efficient and charming young lady. We congratulate them.

Married in Washington

A wedding of interest to our people was solemnized Monday morning in Washington when Miss Syble Pearl Martin of South Creek became the bride of Mr. Sidney B. Billiard of this place. Rev. J. H. McCracken performing the ceremony, which took place in the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. Hilliard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David N. Martin of South Creek, and will be remembered as a student in the high school here two years ago, when she made a great number of close and admiring friends.

The groom is the son of the late lamented Jesse P., and Mrs. Maude Hilliard. He is manager of the Plymouth Market and Grocery Company, is a rising young business man and highly respected in this community.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for a trip to Philadelphia, New York, Atlantic City and other places of interest.

They will return August first, and will make their home in the residence of Mrs. Clyde Cahoon.

To Meet in Windsor August Third.

Advice recently received from Mr. N.G. Bartlett, secretary and manager of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, is that a joint meeting of the county commissioners and other business men of the counties of Hertford, Bertie, Martin, Washington and Beaufort will meet in Windsor on Friday, August 3rd, at eleven o'clock, for the purpose of discussing plans for advertising Eastern North Carolina.

Mr. Bartlett is one of the best informed men in this section of the state, and the development of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce is one of the very best means of making this section go forward industriously in leaps and bounds.

It is hoped that Washington County will furnish a good delegation to this meeting.

Concert by Orphans Pleases Plymouth Audience

A fair sized audience witnessed the concert given by the Methodist Orphanage Wednesday night in the school auditorium.

This is the first time Plymouth has been honored by a visit from this institution, and all who attended pronounce it one of the best concerts ever heard here. The program was somewhat a departure from the usual concerts given by organizations of this kind, in that it was purely sacred in all its elements, but was so arranged that it held an equal appeal to all kinds of people with all kinds of sentiments.

The class numbered about fifteen ranging from seven to nineteen years of age, and all displayed wonderful talent in the execution of the parts assigned to them.

No admission was charged, although a voluntary offering was taken, and we are informed that the class manager was well pleased with the generosity of the people who were present.

We hope to welcome these children to Plymouth again in the near future, and trust when they do return they will be greeted by a larger audience.

Severe Electrical Storm Visited This Section Sunday.

Probably the heaviest rain and electrical storm that has visited this section for years passed over Sunday afternoon and evening doing considerable damage.

Lightning struck the Washington Street Baptist Church and the Main Street Colored Baptist Church. Windows in both buildings were shattered, and the steeple of the colored church suffered slightly. Otherwise no damage was done.

At Roper, about seven miles from here, the colored Methodist Church was struck by lightning and totally destroyed by fire.

Severe hail storm damaged the corn, tobacco and cotton in the Creswell section.

Telephone and electric wires were damaged.

The home of Mr. J. W. Snell, about two miles from here, was struck by lightning and windows shattered.

Plymouth to Again be Visited by Ollie Hamilton.

The Ollie Hamilton Show will again visit Plymouth for an entire week beginning Monday, July 30th, which has been extensively advertised in this community.

Many of our people will remember Mr. Hamilton as "Jake" the blackface comedian, who, up until the beginning of the war made Plymouth one of his regular towns. His daughter, Miss Cleo, will also be remembered as a delightful child singer.

There is a much larger company of players with the show this season, so we are informed, and wherever they have played they have been greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences.

The tent will be erected on the Hampton lot Monday and one performance will be given each night during the week.
