

Graduate Nurse Finds "The Perfect Remedy"

"From my long experience as a professional nurse, I do not hesitate to say Tanlac is nature's most perfect remedy," is the far-reaching statement given out for publication, recently, by Mrs. I. A. Borden, 425 Pontius Ave., Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the National Temperance Hospital, Chicago.

"I have used Tanlac exclusively for seven years in the treatment of my charity patients," said Mrs. Borden, "and my experience has been that for keeping the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning properly, and for toning up the system in general, it has no equal.

"About a year ago I had a lady patient who could not keep a thing on her stomach, not even water. I prevailed on her to try Tanlac and after the sixth bottle she could eat absolutely anything she wanted without the slightest bad after-effects.

"I had another patient who simply could not eat. I got him started on Tanlac and by the time he finished three bottles he was eating ravenously and able to work.

"These two instances are typical of the wonderful merits of the medicine. My confidence in Tanlac is unlimited." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists.

Street Dresses for Fall;

Style in Handmade Sweater

THE variations of the mode in dresses and suits for the current season are like variations of a musical theme that carries a single phrase through an entire composition. Regardless of the manner in which sleeves, collars and skirts are made, the costume, as a whole, conforms to simple lines and to the longer skirt length, things that are established in the fall fashions. Where there are departures from the straight silhouette it is generally in the form of a slight in fancy-work departments are enough to stir deft fingers into action. To resist the temptation of such glorious colors and varied yarns is not in the power of womankind.

Then, too, what a thrill of satisfaction goes with the proudly spoken words, "I made it myself." Extreme individuality is difficult to achieve these days and one values the style distinction of the hand-made sweater. Surely it is well worth while to devote time and effort to the creating of a fullness at the front or sides of the skirt and this is merely a modification of the mode.

In the two dresses pictured, that at the left shows a favored method of trimming sleeves and collar. The sleeves are made rather wide and rows of applique embroidery in an intricate design, are applied from the elbow to the wrist. The same design is repeated in the collar. The dress at the right reflects the vogue of tiered skirts. Three deep circular ruffles are placed at each side giving something of a pannier effect. The straight lines of the front of the dress are emphasized by rows of small tucks extending from

It is a marvel that stands unique in the history of sweaters in that it is not knit but is darned with many colored yarns on a foundation of scrim. Thus is grandma's sample stitchery glorified in modern adaptation.

This sweater is simple to make. Cut scrim in whatever style blouse desired. Sew up. Then darn with multicolored yarns forming a design of one's own origination, or it may facilitate the work to stamp the pattern. This sweater offers unusual opportunity to express individual taste.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

the neckline to the hem. A belt of bright, metallic ribbon held at the hips by straps of the material, adds a touch of color to the costume.

The circular effect favored in many new coats and dresses is emphasized by border treatments of fur, braid and embroidery. Bodices are either severely plain or very slightly molded to the figure. For sports wear there is a decided flare for mannish styles in rough weaves and bright colored materials.

The feminine world is taking to sweater-knitting most enthusiastically this season. Small wonder is it, for the marvelously beautiful yarns and zephyrs which everywhere abound sweaters, the scope of styles embraces a bewildering variety, including charming innovations of blouse and jacquette, also many slip-on models.

There is a new paiseley yarn which knits up into garments of impressive style. Stripes knit horizontally in gay colors are in marked favor. Very interesting revers and novelty fastenings which invite the use of buttons are characteristic features in the latest hand-made sweater modes.

Coal prices from Survey of Current Business, February 1923. Cement prices from U. S. Geological Survey. Wages, from November (1912) Monthly Labor Review, Bureau of Labor Statistics.

More for Your Money

Swapping things—as when our grandmothers traded eggs for calico at the cross-roads store—gives a better understanding of values. By measuring one thing against another we too can often judge values more clearly.

Coal and wages make up more than half the manufacturing cost of cement.

The chart above shows price fluctuations for portland cement, coal and wages during the past ten years. In each case 100 is used to represent 1913 figures, by the Government departments which compiled these statistics.

Translated into "eggs and calico" language, this chart shows that a ton of coal would buy nearly twice as much cement in 1922 as in 1913. A day's wages also would buy more cement in 1922 than in 1913.

This means that even though coal and wages make up more than half its manufacturing cost, cement is now relatively lower in price than either coal or wages.

So, considering these increased costs, it is plain that in buying cement you get more for your money than before.
