

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

I am a candidate for nomination to the State Senate from the Second Senatorial District, subject to the Primary to be held June 7. If nominated and elected I shall strive to serve Eastern North Carolina, and especially the Counties of our District, to the end that we may receive benefits of legislation equal to those received by other sections of the State, especially in reference to highways.

I respectfully solicit your support and as Hyde County has not been represented in the State Senate for a number of years I feel that the voters will recognize that it is entitled to be represented in the next General Assembly.

CARROLL B. SPENCER.

THE ROWLES-ROBERTSON COMPANY

Renders Unique Musical Program

On the second day's program of the coming Chautauqua, the Rowles-Robertson Company will present a musical program of distinctive quality. Miss Etta Robertson and Mr. William Lloyd Rowles have both had successful concert experience and have been together on the Swathmore circuits for a number of seasons.

Mr. Rowles is the possessor of a rich resonant baritone voice, and he sings with much style and breadth of feeling. He has had extensive concert and church experience and has also sung in oratorio. His repertoire embraces the best in song literature, and he displays much intelligence and discrimination in his interpretations.

Miss Robertson has lived among the Indians, becoming familiar with their traits and customs. Her programs include many of the original melodies which she gives in costume and in the Indian tongue.

The following are typical press comments on Miss Robertson and Mr. Rowles:

"Her interpretations gave the audience an entirely new conception of Indian melody, very different from the popular idea."—The Statesman.

"Her explanatory remarks and the illustrations in songs by Miss Robertson, attired as an Indian maiden, were instructive and musically enjoyable. Miss Robertson also delighted her hearers by her splendid singing of songs by Henschel, Woodman, Rogers, Weatherly, Clough-Leighter, d'Hardelet and Cadman."—Newark "Sunday Call."

"Mr. Lloyd Rowles combined the two roles of baritone soloist and accompanist. His voice is of an agreeable quality and his singing of the one number to his own accompaniment—'God is Our Refuge' by Carey—called forth such vigorous approval that it was followed by an encore. As an accompanist, Mr. Rowles displayed great natural talent and served ably in that capacity to all the solos of his two comrades."—Elgin, Illinois.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Washington County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary on June 7, 1924.

I have filled the unexpired term of my father, the late Joseph E. Reid, for the past several months to the very best of my ability. Prior to his death I served him in the capacity of deputy sheriff for several years, and during that time I became familiar with the work of the office, which I believe has equipped me to serve the people better than ever.

I have given careful study to the duties of the office, and while I do not know it all, I sincerely believe that the knowledge I have gained by actual service and careful study is a valuable asset to me and the people who are to be served.

If nominated and elected I promise to serve the people of the entire county to the very best of my ability, and no especial concessions or favors will be shown none that are not consistent with the duties of the office.

I will appreciate your support in the primaries if you feel that my service warrants it.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH K. REID.

Grown Great Together

North Carolina and the Jefferson Standard Life

Jefferson Standard Building, Jefferson Square, Greensboro, N. C.

North Carolina is going ahead like time itself. So is the Jefferson Standard Life. This team has worked together since the forgotten days of 6c cotton. Each had faith and each backed the other.

Tar Heels took tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, and, finally, millions of Jefferson Standard life insurance.

Jefferson Standard invested its resources in the same proportion, in North Carolina home and farm mortgages.

This faith, rewarded on both sides, has grown stronger and stronger, until now—The Jefferson Standard Life stands right at the top with the best Life Insurance Companies in America.

The Jefferson Standard wrote in 1923 in North Carolina over $17,000,000—more than was written in the state by any other Life Insurance Company in the world.

Jefferson Standard has in force in North Carolina over $81,000,000 of insurance—more than is held in the state by any other Life Insurance Company in the world.

And the Jefferson Standard is just as strongly "with you" as you are "with us."

When Considering Life Insurance, talk it over with the Jefferson Standard man
