

THE LEAMAN-COSTON MEETING A REAL UNION CAMPAIGN

People of all Denominations Taking an Enthusiastic Interest in the Meeting. Great Changes For Good Evident on all Sides

REV. MEL C. LEAMAN

The Leaman-Coston campaign which began here on the night of the 8th is a real union campaign. All the churches of the town are putting their shoulders to the wheel and have struggled hard to make it the success it has been. And the results that have been attained are to the mind of the writer fundamental, far reaching and lasting.

Many church members have rededicated their lives and have been spiritually strengthened and vivened. Many dead wires have been recharged and promised to be live wires in the future. Many who have never affiliated themselves with the church have taken the important step and have given themselves to Christ. The record up to Sunday night shows there have been 447 who have rededicated their lives and are taking their step to live for Him.

The results of the meeting are not only in the town of Plymouth, but all this section as well. You can now go into certain business houses in Plymouth where, before the meeting you could hear cursing on every side, but now you seldom hear an oath fall from any man's lips.

A certain business man in town made the statement in the prayer meeting Monday night that there was a young man to enter his place of business and used an oath and that the clerk spoke immediately and said: "we don't allow cursing in here now."

That is what our town is going to be for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and the men of Plymouth are going to see that such rot is put down in the town that Plymouth may be known as a God fearing and God serving town.

No definite time for the close of the meeting has been announced, but it is practically certain that it will continue for several days, yet.

DO YOUR DUTY; VOTE!

On next Tuesday from sunrise to sunset the eyes of the entire nation will be turned from regular pursuits and habits to the business of selecting the men and women who will control and direct the governmental life of The United States.

Huge sums of money and great corps of workers are used in an effort to influence the votes of the people. There are some, of course, who may be influenced in one manner or another, and there is still a larger number who have deep and set political convictions.

It is an important patriotic duty of every qualified voter to go to the polls on election day and cast a vote for his preference of the aspirants. If all the people would realize and execute this duty there would be more satisfaction in the officers elected, and so-called "rings" would not exist to such a large extent as is claimed. There would be less dissatisfaction among the people as a whole also, for in that manner and that manner only can the absolute wishes of the majority be realized.

We hope that the people of Washington county will go to their respective polling places and cast a vote governed by their honest opinions.

Remember—next Tuesday—lay aside everything else until you have placed your ballot in the box.

Mr. Holmes Makes Statement

I have been careful during the past few weeks to avoid answering several uncomplimentary references that have been made against me because of my candidacy for the office of treasurer of Washington County. Many of these references have been made by men who call themselves Democrats in an effort to cause my downfall. I can attribute this only to the fact that I was the successful of three candidates for nomination in the primaries. I wish to state that had I been defeated I would have thrown my vigor into the campaign in an effort to elect the successful Democratic candidate.

Rev. J. S. Williams, of the Roper section, made remarks to my friends, Messrs. E. F. and J. W. Spruill, yesterday stating that I had made the statement that the politics of Washington county were carried by me in a bottle, and that I only had to extract the cork to attain the results I desired. I do not know just what kind of a bottle he had reference to, nor do I know of any sort of a bottle that would safely preserve the votes of the people for one individual. Maybe the reverend Williams can explain.

It is my opinion that any person so violently interested in politics would certainly go to the source of things to obtain the facts before condemning a person. And right here I wish to

For Sheriff of Washington County

I have announced my candidacy for the office of sheriff to the voters of Washington County in an earlier edition of this paper, and I now wish to urge my friends to support me in the election which will be held next Tuesday, November 4th.

I have been in office only a short time and I conscientiously believe that I have faithfully and efficiently executed the duties of that office. The records of my conduct are on file in their proper places in the court house, and I will be pleased to have any person or persons search through them carefully, and if there are any discrepancies existing it would be much better for the public to get them from an authentic source than from the lips of others who may oppose my election. These records will speak for themselves and stand out clearly upon the books of the county, and people have the right to know them and it is my wish that every person in the county know the exact and accurate status of affairs.

The quickest and easiest manner in which to get them is to go to the county records.

I will sincerely appreciate the vote and support of my friends, and this appreciation will not only exist on election day but will continue indefinitely.

Appreciatively,

J. K. REID

state that the reports that have been circulated concerning my conduct in office are infamous lies and I believe they originated in vile mouths.

I am the Democratic candidate for treasurer of Washington county, and I will appreciate the votes and support of the people, and my confidence in the people has not been destroyed by such false reports that have been circulated by people who I believe have a venomous desire to destroy me to satisfy a personal ambition. I believe the people of conservative thought will condemn such acts. My records are public records - I invite you to search them and convince yourselves.

THE FAIR

By Douglas Malloch.

We wrest no subterranean store from out of caverns deep and dark,
Nor with the blood-red hand of war make harvest of a nation's tears.

Ours is the wealth of God's good soil, and on his earth we leave no mark

But furrows of the farmer's toil, the business of a thousand years.

Here we assemble what we grew, here we have gathered of the yield,
The products of the work we do, our answer to the ones who ask.
These are the children of the seed, arisen in the fertile field,
A world of weary ones to feed—a noble duty, honest task.

Even in joy of labor done we have our hour for deeper thought,
To see the glory of the sun in smiling fruit and golden grain;
E'en in the frolic of the fair we realize how God has wrought
Till herds increase and blossoms bear, fed by his sunshine and his rain.

All mindful of our work again another season yet to be,
Let us come forth rejoicing then to pass a merry week away—
Proud of the treasures that are ours, with merriment and industry
Taking of earth both fruit and flowers, taking of life both work and play.

It was planned to hold this bazaar tonight, but has been postponed on account of the revival meeting now in progress. It is hoped that the people will patronize this affair. It is very worthy.

Gus Holmes of Creswell, was here Monday.

Mr. O. O. Jackson made a business trip to Creswell last Friday.
