Young Men Ae Offered A Fine Summer Vaca ion.

Young men in this county, between the ages of 17 and 24 years, are invited to enroll in the Citizens Military Training Camps as a means of getting splendid training and a fine summer va cation. The Rev. Theodore Partrick Jr., of Plymouth, chairman for the county, is anxious to get in touch with a number of young men.

The boys from this county will go to Fort Bragg, Fayettevile, N. C. All of their expenses will be paid, including railroa fare. The training period is for 30 days It will not be an enlistment, but a voluntary training. There will be plenty of recreation, as well as physical and military training

Please see or write Mr. Partrick for further information.

American Legion

An effort will be made soon to establish a post of the American Legion in this county, such an effort was made some time ago, but not being able to get a sulficient number of ex-service men interested in the project it was abandoned. There were af w, however, who made application for membership who will be at cepted now without us her cosif the post is established.

It is expected that a speaker of national reputation will be here soon to speak to ex-service men concerning the American Legion, and it is hoped that all who can do so will attend.
