AT THE HIP BONE.
$1,000.44 FOR DINNER.
BIG SPENDING DIFFICULT.
ROOSEVELT'S LAST WORDS.

Paris announces that the waist-line of fashionable ladies now definitely starts just above the hip-bone. From that point up the back is to be entirely uncovered in the evening. Also brilliant colors will be worn.

A woman thus dressed will look as silly as a bird of paradise with all the feathers plucked off the back, but she won't know it.

Theatrical people each pay $1,000.44 for a dinner—forty-four cents for the food, one thousand dollars for the Actors' Fund. Forty-four cents for one dinner seems cheap to a prosperous actor. It seems a good deal to the mother of five children whose husband earns $4 a day.

At forty-four cents a meal, that family would need each day $9.24 for food alone, leaving a deficit of $5.24 a day, to say nothing of rent and clothing. Those that call $5 a day high wages should try living and keeping a family on that sum.

Engineers suggest filling in nine square miles of upper New York Bay, half to belong to New Jersey, half to New York. The work would cost $400,000,000, and the land would be worth five thousand million dollars.

The idea would be to plan a new modern city, sidewalks on the sides of buildings, playgrounds and roads above buildings, landing places for airplanes, etc.

There are thousands of chances to spend public money for improvements that would pay for themselves ten times over, but it is hard for us to appropriate large sums, unless other nations start cutting each other's throats. Then we become generous, "easy marks," pour out our billions and buy foreign hatred with them.

Gland grafting may not help foolish old men to become as young and silly as they used to be, but such grafting may be useful to farmers. Dr. Voronoff, scientist, experimenting on a flock of 3,000 sheep in Algiers, proved to French scientists that grafting an additional gland on each young ram increased the average weight of the animal by 19 pounds, and added half a pound to the weight of the fleece.

"No man a hero to his valet," did not apply to Theodore Roosevelt. His valet writes for Collier's Weekly about the last days of his master as a convinced hero worshiper. Alone with Roosevelt at the moment of his death, the valet says Roosevelt's last words were, "Please put out the light."

Theodore Roosevelt was tired, his heart was broken by the death of his son, Quentin. Goethe's last words were, "More light." They were appropriate, for few men have contributed more light to the human race than Goethe contributed.

The question for us all is this: Does death mean only "putting out the light," or does it mean for us all "MORE LIGHT"?

French births are diminishing, and French population is increasing, which is the right idea. Instead of having many new babies, half or two-thirds of them dying, the French, who understand health, keep alive those that are born.

Wages are up, taxes are down, Government receipts are up, the cost of living is down. President Coolidge doesn't claim the credit. He says: "No government can make prosperity."

One thing is certain. President Coolidge has not prevented rising prosperity from rising. And that is something in these days.

On Friday night Mr. R. H. Cobb, employed by Mr. A. C. Garrett as bar tender, committed suicide by shooting himself through the right temple. Feeble health was thought the cause of the tragedy, and the suicide happened in the room of the deceased just over the place of his employment.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

On the 19th day of July, 1926, the undersigned mortgagee sold the lands hereinafter described under power contained in the mortgage from A. J. Newberry and wife to the said Mortgagee, which mortgage is registered in book 79, page 300. Thereafter, and within the time prescribed by law, the bid was raised and the Clerk of the Superior Court has ordered a re-sale. Notice is therefore given that on Monday the 23rd day of August, 1926, at 12 M., I will sell at the court house door by public sale for cash the lands in the aforesaid mortgage, to wit:

That part of the Conaby tract of land which is bounded on the North by the public road leading from Plymouth to Mackeys; on the east by a marked line dividing this land from the land of Mrs. Allie G. Moore; on the South by the right of way of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad track; on the West by the land known as the Woodlawn tract.

The sale is of the remainder in fee after the expiration of the life estate of said mortgagee, the statutory life expectancy of whom is 6 and 7-10 years.

This 2nd day of August, 1926.
