

There'll Be a Hot Time

New York is marshaling its forces for one gala reception when Gertrude "Trudy" Ederle comes home from her record breaking swim of the English channel. She sails for home Aug. 21—leaving a record, (the first woman) of 14 1/2 hours across the channel—a mark which bids to stand for many years.

Mrs. C. F. Robbins and children are visiting friends in Washington.

G. K. Harris and Cecil Swain went to Parmele Tuesday.

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust executed by J. W. Chesson and wife to the undersigned Trustee, dated January 15th, 1926, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Washington County in book 85, page 389, to which reference is hereby made, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured upon demand of the holder of the same, the undersigned trustee will, at 12 o'clock Noon, on Tuesday the 14th day of September, 1926, at the court house door in Washington County, offer for sale, to the highest bidder for cash, that certain real and personal property described in the said instrument as follows:

All of that certain property conveyed to the said J. W. Chesson by deed from N. B. Mizelle, which said deed is dated February 20th, 1906, and is duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Washington County in book 49, page 298; all of that certain property conveyed to said J. W. Chesson by deed from Mary A. Roper and others, dated the 11th day of December, 1916, and recorded in said register's office in book 68, page 236, all of that certain property conveyed to J. W. Chesson by deed from W. D. Cooper and wife, Alice Cooper, dated August 6th, 1903, and recorded in said register's office in book 42, page 472; all of that certain property conveyed to J. W. Chesson by deed from H. G. Chesson and wife, Sophie J. Chesson, dated August 15th, 1919, and recorded in said register's office in book 76, page 172; all of that certain property conveyed to said J. W. Chesson by deed from N. B. Mizelle and wife, Jennita Mizelle, dated February 25th, 1913, and recorded in said register's office in book 61, page 250; all of that certain property conveyed to said J. W. Chesson by deed from Z. V. Norman, Commissioner, dated June 20th, 1920, and recorded in said register's office in book 78, page 486. All of the foregoing deeds and conveyances are expressly referred to and made a part hereof for a full and complete description of the property. All other real property owned by said J. W. Chesson in North Carolina whether included in the foregoing deeds or not.

Also all of the following personal property: All of the stock of goods, wares and merchandise of every kind and description now in the store conducted by the said John W. Chesson in the town of Roper, North Carolina, together with all show cases, shelves, counters scales and all other furniture and fixtures and appliances now in said store and used by the said Chesson in the conduct of said mercantile business; also all of the household and kitchen furniture now in the home of the said John W. Chesson in Roper, North Carolina, of every kind and description, together with all such as may be placed therein; also all additions made to the said stock of goods, wares, merchandise, store fixtures, etc., heretofore referred to; all other personal property of the said J. W. Chesson in North Carolina wherever situated.

The bidder at such sale will be required to deposit as much as 25 per cent of the amount bid as a guaranty of good faith pending confirmation of the sale by the Court and the right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

This August 12th, 1926.
R. C. PEACOCK,
