Atty. Z. V. Norman and Lue Read made a business trip to Williamston Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. E. Bailey and daughter of Newsoms Va., are visiting Mrs. Bailey's sister, Mrs. J. R. Campbell on Washington St.

Rev. C. B. Mashburn and daughter, Miss Marjorie, of Charlotte have been here visiting Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bowen.

Glad to see Mr. L. C. Willoughby on our streets again after having successfully undergone an operation in a Rocky Mount hospital.

Gilbert Davis, of Davis and Liverman, returned from New York Tuesday He purchased fall and winter merchandise for his firm while away.

Atty. Z. V. Norman returned Saturday from Washington with his little daughter, Barbara whose tonsils and adenoids were removed by Dr. Nicholson.

Mrs. P. M. Arps and little daughter, Evelyn, were called from a vacation at Nag's Head Monday because of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. H. H. Arps.

Much improvement has been made in the appearance of the building occupied by Hassell Brothers bakery. A new front has been installed, the interior painted and new shelves erected.

Harry Arps of Columbia, has been here this week being called on account of the sudden death of his brother, Hilliary Arps, which occurred in Thomasville Monday.

The fire company is sponsoring the musical comedy, "Cupid Up-to-Date", which will be presented next Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

NOTICE OF SALE

The Trustees of Plymouth Graded School, will offer, at public sale, to the highest bidder, in Plymouth, North Carolina, on the 22d day of September 1926, at twelve o'clock noon, in front of the market house, in the Town of Plymouth, the following described property:

Lying and being in the Town of Plymouth and bounded on the North, by Main street, on the East by J. W. Norman, on the South, by Mrs. C. V. Norman and others, and on the West by D. O. Brinkley, said lot or parcel of land being 100 feet, front, and extending back 200 feet, and occupied by a two-story, brick building, formerly used as a public school building, in the Town of Plymouth.

Said property is located near the business section of the Town of Plymouth and the building thereon, could easily be converted into a hotel or apartment house.

Information will be furnished, upon request to G. W. Hardison, Plymouth, North Carolina.
