The quotation party given last night in honor of Miss Sadie Meekins, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hornthal, was a grand success.

Prof. Ira L. Guilford gave one of his entertaining, amusing and instructive lectures here last night. The Prof. is highly endorsed by the press everywhere he has been and we think he deserves it.

Sleighting and skating has been in order for several days and our people have enjoyed themselves hugely. Soap-box sleighs and elegant turnouts have chased each other through our streets to the merry jingle of sleigh bells.

The new lamps in the Methodist church are quite an improvement.
