Arthur McNair, colored, was fined $25 and costs, on the charge of being a nuisance and resisting an officer, by Judge Zeb Vance Norman, in Recorder's Court, this week. Officer Brown was informed Saturday evening that the Negro was in a restaurant in the colored section of the city, making himself repulsive by his boisterous manner. The officer proceeded to the scene. After stepping inside of the building to make the arrest, he was grabbed by the robust, stalwart Negro. A scuffle ensued. A number of white people arrived just as Chief Brown was bringing his pistol into the fracas. A few hard knocks on the side of the head with the pistol made McNair easier to handle. Then it took several of the white citizens to carry the Negro safely to jail.
