When Are We Well Off?

America is the result of pioneers not knowing when they were well off. Risking their lives on the salty deep, starving and racked by fever, shooting and being shot by Indians, snatching garden patches out of the wilderness, moving West and doing the same thing over and over and over again. Why didn't they stop somewhere? Didn't they know when they were well off?

When are we well off? Who can say? Europeans say the American is crazy, running and getting nowhere. The American answers that business in America is a game, not a job; it excites the sporting instincts as much as the acquisitive instincts.

If we knew when we were well off would there be any electric current, radios, automobiles, or anything that seems worth having? We climb and climb; a few of us fall and get up again; a few of us retire only to find we want to get back into the game again; it is climbing upward that has put America at the top.

Ingratitude!

The Beacon and News has observed with much pride the booths donated to the women of Washington county by the merchants of Plymouth. These booths are used for the purpose of making the curb market more accessible to the people of Plymouth also for the benefit of the ladies who bring the produce from the farm and offer it for sale every Saturday morning.

The merchants are due a rising vote of thanks by both the town and country people, but the country people, or rather some of them, are to be censured for the ingratitude that they have shown the home merchants. These booths were built and paid for by the home merchants, yet, last Saturday, a young lady who had been offering produce for sale on the curb market, was seen coming out of a certain chain store with groceries that her farm did not produce.

Some will say that the booths are not being used yet and the people are not obligated to trade with the home merchants who donated them. No one is obligated to trade with anyone else, regardless of the circumstances. That is, they are not legally obligated, but they are morally obligated to trade with those who trade with them.

Now Miss Farmers wife, lets don't send our money out of Washington county to never see it again. Trade with your home merchants who are doing their bit towards keeping your taxes down and your children in school. Lets patronize those who patronize us!

Thursday, March 13th, we start a special 9-day demonstration of the new Frigidaire HYDRATOR

Desserts and salads will be served. New recipe books will be given away. Be sure to attend

HERE'S your opportunity to find out all about the marvelous new Frigidaire Hydrator.

On Thursday, March 13th, we start a special 9-day demonstration—one of the most interesting ever held in our showroom.

We will show the Hydrator in actual use—just as you would use it in your home. You will see how lettuce is made tender and brittle by the Hydrator's moist reviving cold. You will see how celery and radishes take on added crispness—how tomatoes are improved in texture and flavor.

And that is not all you will see. The latest household cabinets in Porcelain-on-steel will be on display. The famous "Frigidaire Cold Control" will also be demonstrated. You will be shown how this device freezes ice cubes faster—how it permits you to make scores of unusual desserts that require extreme cold.

Will you be our guest?

SPECIAL OFFER
Until Saturday, March 22nd
We are prepared to make a liberal special offer to all who buy Frigidaire during our 9-day demonstration. Let us tell you about this offer. Let us tell you about our easy payment plan. Come in at your first opportunity. We will be open evenings until ten o'clock every day of the demonstration.
