SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS IS ACTIVE

Class of Albemarle Christian Church Has Several Projects Under Way

The members of class No. 6 of Albemarle Christian Church were entertained in the church last Friday evening, November 28, with Miss Mildred Davenport acting as hostess. Two classrooms had been thrown together for the occasion, blue and orange paper were strung from each corner of the room to the light in the center. Other decorations included artificial and cut flowers with autumn leaves.

A number of interesting games and contests were enjoyed. Refreshments consisted of home-made candy, popcorn balls, doughnuts, and delicious potato pie with whipped cream and milk.

This class, organized less than two months ago, has made much progress since it was formed. The chief aim at first was to provide chairs for the classroom. Each member pledged himself to buy his own chair. The class now numbers 15, and at the present rate of growth it is expected that other chairs will have to be bought within a short while.

Mr. Armstrong made a book desk for use in the classroom, and some of the members painted it. Hand-painted curtains, wall pockets, and flowers were made to match the desk. The class and Sunday school extends a warm welcome to all who will visit them.

Officers of Class No. 6 are: M. K. Armstrong, teacher; Johnnie Walker, president; and Miss Mildred Davenport, secretary and treasurer.

ESSAY CONTEST IS ANNOUNCED

Students in Schools of Several Eastern Counties Eligible to Enter

County Game Warden Harry Stell announced yesterday that a school essay contest would be held among students in a number of Eastern Carolina counties on the subject of "The Aims of Forest, Fish and Game Conservation. A prize of $5 in gold is being offered for each county winner and $10 in gold for best essay among the county winners. The prizes are being offered by George A. Nicoll, assistant State Game Warden, of New Bern, and school pupils in the following counties are eligible: Bertie, Currituck, Craven, Edgecombe, Greene, Halifax, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, Nash, Pamlico, Pitt, Tyrrell, Wilson, and Washington.

Rules of the contest were announced as follows: Essay must be original work of contestant. No limit is set on length, but preferably should not be more than 3,500 words. Typed copy is preferred, as neatness and legibility will be considered.

Pupils from any grade may compete. Winners of last year's prizes can not receive prizes this year. Essays must be submitted by March 15, 1931.

County superintendents of public instruction will be asked to judge the papers submitted in their county. Officials of the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development will judge the papers from the counties to determine the winners of the capital prize.

MISS COVINGTON GIVES SUMMARY OF YEAR'S WORK

Says Year Has Been Very Profitable, Despite Obstacles

Miss Pratt Covington, county home demonstration agent, in summing up her year's work in a report submitted to the outgoing board of county commissioners here Monday, concludes with the statement that "Even though this has been a hard year, we feel that it has been one of the most profitable." The home agent reported that she had spent 237 days in field work and 27 days in the office. She traveled 10,241 miles in connection with her work, conducting 282 demonstrations, which were attended by a total of 3,130 people.

The complete report is as follows: "During this year 237 days have been spent working with the clubs in foods, gardening, and yard improvement. Twenty-seven days were spent in the office. There were 255 calls at the office about demonstration work and 119 telephone calls. There were 123 articles in the papers about the work, and 650 farm bulletins were distributed. Fifty-seven new members were added to the enrollment of the clubs, and 798 individual letters written. There was mailed out to club members 1,290 circular letters, and 10,241 miles were traveled during the year in extension work. There were 282 demonstrations given with an attendance of 3,130, and 222 homes were visited during the year.

"One County Federation was held at Mackeys, in March, with an attendance of 250, and one was held in the fall at Creswell with an attendance of 200.

"Every school child in the county has been weighed twice during the year.

"There were 106 boys and girls in the poultry clubs.

"Four girls attended the State short course and five women attended the farmers convention in Raleigh.

"Three hundred and four quarts of corn were canned in the club meetings during August, and 301 pitows were painted in the handicraft project during November.

Income for the Clubs "Fifty-six dollars were made from the Christmas bazaar and nearly $800 worth of eggs were shipped from the curb market to Wilmington during March and April. The total amount of eggs shipped to Wilmington and Norfolk, and the amount sold on the curb market now amounts to $7,281.03. Fifteen dollars worth of fancy work was shipped away to be sold, and $21 worth of rugs were sold. The total amount that the home agent has been responsible in helping the people of the county make is now $7,383.03. The club members declare that much of this otherwise would have gone to waste had we not managed to sell their produce through the curb market and in other ways.

"There were two leaders' schools in foods held with an attendance of 106. There was one garden school held with an attendance of 50, and one house furnishing school with an attendance of 12.

Project Booths at Fair "Three project booths were put on at the district fair, and though $118.50 was realized last year, only $225 was realized this year above expenses. The booths were more attractive this year than last, but the fair officials had cut the premiums down enormously.

"The agent spent two days judging other county fairs, and one day assisting the agent in Currituck county with a live-at-home program.

"One tour was made to Washington City. Ten club members went on the tour from the county.

"Fifteen demonstration yards were put on and these projects will be completed during the next year.

"One hundred and six dollars worth of shrubbery was ordered for the people of the county, and $41 worth of bulbs were sold.

"Twenty-five demonstration gardens were put on in the county and a $10 steam pressure cooker was given the first winner, a roaster the second, an aluminum pot the third, and the fourth a boiler.

"One new club has been organized, making 16 women's clubs in the county, and we are hoping to be able to organize another in January.

"Ten state specialists have visited the county this year, and even though this has been a hard year, we feel that it has been one of the most profitable."

CRESWELL LOSES TO WINDSOR, 7 - 6

Was Final Game of Season; Played at Creswell Last Friday Afternoon

The Creswell High School football team ended its season last Friday afternoon by losing to the Windsor Highs, 7 to 6. The game was played in Creswell. One interesting feature of the contest was the fact the respective coaches played quarterbacks on their teams. Rivalry was very keen, as Coaches Gooch, of Windsor, and Ray, of Creswell, had been classmates at the University of North Carolina, and each played almost desperately for his team to win.

The passing of Gooch was enough to make him the individual star of the game, while Ray divided honors for the Creswellites with Davenport, the two presenting a running attack superior to any seen on the home field this season. Gooch had a hand in Windsor's scoring, completing a long pass to Jones for the counter early in the second quarter. In the third period Ray intercepted one of Gooch's passes and raced to the 25-yard line before he was brought down. Davenport carried it over for touchdown in four plays. The try for point failed. Early in the season Windsor had defeated Creswell 66 to 0.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

The following resolutions were passed during a recent service at the Grace Episcopal here:

We, the Members of Grace Church Plymouth North Carolina, deeply conscious of the Wisdom and Loving Fatherhood of God, Who in His Wise Providence took out of this world the soil of our Brother Doctor William Hardison Ward, who for many years was a most devoted Communicant of this Church and Senior Warden of the Vestry.

Resolve that the death of Doctor Ward will bring grief and sadness to the members of this Church and to the whole Community who have known and loved him during his long and useful lifetime, every one of whom was glad of the privilege which was given us to know and love him as a devoted and trusted friend.

We shall always remember him with pride and remember what he was to the Church and what he did for the Church, and the distinguished position which he so justly held both in the Church and in the community, and we shall always cherish the memory of this saintly life, his wisdom and zeal, his courage, and the sterling qualities of his spiritual and mental attainments, and will think of him for the charm of his manner, his kindness and consideration, and thank God that such a Christian Gentleman lived and loved and worked with and amongst us, and we

Resolve to dedicate ourselves anew to the Church which he loved and which during his entire lifetime was the object of his devotion and care, and we further resolve that these minutes and resolutions be printed in as

Ward will bring grief and sadness to the Parish Register and that a copy the members of this Church and to be sent to his brother Mr. Johnston the whole Community who have known and loved him during his long and useful lifetime, every one of whom was glad of the privilege which was given us to know and love him as a devoted and trusted friend.
