Surprise Bridge Party

In a most pleasant setting of old-fashioned flowers of pastel shades, a charming courtesy was extended Mrs. B. G. Campbell Friday in celebration of her birthday, when a group of friends surprised her with a bridge party at the home of Mrs. H. S. Midgett. Mrs. Campbell was invited over to the Midgett-home for the evening, but hardly had she arrived when the party burst into the living room unannounced and shouted birthday greetings to the honoree, presenting her with a beautiful birthday gift.

Table were arranged for bridge and after a number of progressions Mrs. H. S. Midgett was presented with an attractive sport handkerchief for high score.

At the conclusion of the game the game table hostesses served frozen salt with saltines, mints, and iced tea to the following: Mesdames C. L. Groves, W. L. Whitley, J. R. and B. G. Campbell, W. H. Clark, J. W. Read, Colon Stokes, and H. S. Midgett.

Pleasant Grove Club

Pleasant Grove.—Mrs. A. E. Davenport was hostess to the Pleasant Grove Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 at her home. Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. W. A. Swain, the vice president presided.

Following the devotional, a report of the treasurer was made by Mrs. D. W. Chesson. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Eugenia Patterson, the home agent, who gave a demonstration on home laundering.

The entertainment committee sponsored a very enjoyable program, featuring games and contests. Miss Christine Hodges won the prize in the "Flower Romance" was a silhouette of George Washington. A delightful social hour was enjoyed. Sandwiches, cakes, and iced tea was served.

Mrs. J. E. Davenport and Mrs. W. S. Davenport will be joint-hostesses at the next meeting.

Literary Club Meets

The Thursday Afternoon Literary Club held its regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. S. Midgett on Washington Street. The living room and den were thrown en suite and were lovely in decorations of old-fashioned flowers used profusely throughout the rooms.

The meeting was called to order by its president, Mrs. J. B. Edmundson. A brief business session followed, during which it was decided that the literary club would donate $5 per month to the Salvation Army, to be used for the undernourished children in Washington County, at the discretion of Mr. William Brewer, the welfare worker.

During the literary program the general topic was "Shakespeare's Farewell," "The Tempest," and Mrs. Louis Hassell read a paper taken from the "Dramatic Romance," while Mrs. Joe Blount gave a review of "The Possible Allegory."

At the conclusion of the program the guests were invited into the dining room, where delightful frozen fruit salad with olive sandwiches, saltines, mints, and hot coffee were served.

Swains Club Meets

Westover.—Last Wednesday Swains Club met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Swain, with every member present except one, and five new members were enrolled.

Miss Patterson gave a lesson on laundering and how to take out stains. Swains Club is branching out and plans to make this the best year's work the club has ever had.

Restless, could not sleep

"THERE were days when I felt like I could not get my work done. I would get so nervous and 'trembly' I would have to lie down. I was very restless, and could not sleep at night.

My mother advised me to take Cardui, and I certainly am glad she did. It is the first thing that seemed to give me any strength. I felt better after the first bottle. I kept it up and am now feeling fine."
