VOLUME XLIII—NUMBER 23

Plymouth, Washington County, North Carolina, Friday, June 3, 1932

ESTABLISHED 1889

TO FORM LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLES DEMOCRAT CLUB

Purpose Is To Assist in Getting Democratic Voters Out

"This is not a one-man organization, and it is proposed that the young Democrats in Washington County organize themselves into a going concern with both sexes participating in the work of getting Democratic voters to the polls and assist the main organization as much as possible," said Walter H. Paramore, in accepting the job as chairman of Washington County.

"And I am acting in this capacity as chairman of this county at the insistence of J. Dewey Dorsett, of Raleigh, acting chairman of the Young People's Democratic Clubs in North Carolina, who appointed me this week. I hope that at least five from this county will attend the meeting of the young Democrats in the State June 15."

"A lady in this county will be named acting vice chairman to work among the women in an effort to instill and preserve in the young people of Washington County an interest in governmental affairs and to further the ideals and principles of the Democratic party. Township officers will be appointed to work in the general election."

"A 50-cent fee for each member is being charged. And the State officials are advocating a minimum fee of $1, with 50 cents going to national headquarters, 25 cents being retained by the local club and 25 cents turned over to the State organization. Membership cards will be mailed to any person in the county who wishes to aid in this work."

"The permanent state organization of Young People's Democratic Clubs will sponsor a Jackson Day dinner each year and at the convention to be called just prior to the Democratic State convention it will be suggested that a committee be selected to arrange a state-wide rally to be called a Jackson Day Dinner some time between the primary and general election. A prominent speaker will be secured."

FARM MEETINGS HERE JUNE 8TH

Peanut Marketing System To Be Explained in County

A. E. Gibson, of Washington, D. C., representative of the Federal Farm Board, and C. W. Sheffield, of Raleigh, chief marketing specialist of North Carolina State College, will hold two meetings in Washington County on Wednesday, June 8.

These men will explain the peanut marketing system which is being organized for the sale of peanuts. Merchants, business men, and others are welcome to attend as well as growers of peanuts.

The first meeting will be held at the Creswell school building at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with a second at Roper school building at 8 in the evening. Farm Agent Dunning urges every one who possibly can to attend.

Shower for Bride

Pleasant Grove.—Mrs. R. W. Bland, of Norfolk, who is here spending some time with her father, J. W. Chesson, and sister of the bride gave a surprise shower on Friday afternoon from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Will Riddick at which time she announced the marriage of Miss Rhoda Lee Chesson, daughter of J. W. Chesson, to Dencil Ainsley, formerly of Mackeys.

The entire home was decorated with old fashion flowers and ferns, with baskets of pink and white larkspur and ferns arranged attractively for the occasion.

Misses Elsie Ruth Chesson and Agnes Spruill served punch upon the arrival of the guests.

Mrs. J. E. Davenport sang very sweetly "Drink Unto Me Only with Thine Eyes," and "Annie Laurie," accompanied on the piano by Miss Jamie Riddick. A romance contest was then enjoyed, Miss Elsie Chesson being the winner of the prize, presented it to the bride-elect.

At the announcement of cupid's arrival, little Misses Dorothy Frances Beard and Alice Marie Davenport daintily dressed in pink and white organdy, entered, pushing a lovely decorated colonial carriage laden with many beautiful and useful gifts for the bride.

The guests were then invited into the attractively decorated dining room, the color scheme, pink and white being carried out very effectively, where the hostesses served a delicious course of strawberry short cake and ice cream.

Repeater

Otto Jaritz, 102, of Pittsfield, Ill., has voted in 19 presidential elections.

THREE-AND-ONE

Mullins, S. C.—Tobacco growers in this immediate section, having had many troubles locating plants due to the ravages of blue mold and hail, have according to H. B. Harrington, jr., a local planter, coined a term to describe the year's crop.

Riding to his farm today, Mr. Harrington gave a young white boy a lift. The young boy asked Harrington if he had ever seen a year produce more "Three-and-one" tobacco. Asked just what specie of tobacco this was, the young man solemnly replied, "three bad hills and one good one."

He stated his folks had a large crop of this three-and-one this season.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY SUNDAY

Brings To Close Campaign Conducted by Baptist Church

A Sunday school rally here in the Baptist Church Sunday morning at the regular Sunday school hour will bring to a close in Plymouth an enlargement campaign for this denomination that has been in progress for a week. They will open the rally at 9:50 o'clock in the morning.

Last Sunday a Sunday school census was taken in Plymouth and the rural sections adjoining it that contained possible material for the Sunday schools. Night sessions have been held each evening this week with discussions on how to build a standard school. Miss Ruth Preslar, of Wingate, is in charge here.

This campaign has been going on simultaneously in 18 Baptist churches in this section, including those in the section of Plymouth, Columbia, and Belhaven. H. Perry Morgan, secretary of the State Baptist Sunday School work, is directing the campaign. The campaign in this section will end at the Oak Grove church in this county Sunday afternoon, when delegates from nine churches assemble with the workers at 2:30.

WENONA PICNIC TO BE AUGUST 4

Exhibits To Be in Charge Of State College Specialists

Supplementing the State Farmers' convention, which will be held at State College during the week of August 29, the series of picnics and field days will be held at each of the branch experiment station farms as in the past.

Dates for these picnics have been announced by Fred E. Miller, director of branch station farms. For the tide-water country, the picnic will be held at the Blackland Station near Wenona, in Washington County on August 4.

At these field days, specialists and research investigators for the North Carolina State College will have exhibits of their results with crops and livestock, and experts will be on hand to explain the nature of the work being done on each farm.

Mr. Miller says an effort will be made to keep the program at the same high standard of past years and that good speakers will be secured for the formal features of the program.

Farewell Dinner

A farewell dinner and bridge given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Sumner, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stier, ended a series of courtesies that have been extended to Mr. and Mrs. Stier in the past few days on the eve of their departure to make their home in Chicago after residing in Plymouth for three years.

Immediately following the bountiful four-course dinner, the guests joined others in the living room who came in for bridge. Five tables were appointed, for the game in a setting resembling an old-fashioned flower garden, with many flowers of brilliant hues used profusely throughout the first floor of the residence.

High course prize for ladies, an attractive box of dusting powder, was presented Mrs. R. L. Whitehurst, while Zeno Lyon held high score for the men and received a carton of cigarettes. Both the guests of honor received lovely gifts also.

At the conclusion of the game, the hostess was assisted in serving fresh fruit ice cream with cake and mints moulded into old-fashioned flowers to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beam, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Lyon, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitehurst, Dr. and Mrs. Claudius McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stier, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Still, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sutton, Mesdames W. F. Winslow and J. B. Edmundson, Miss Martha Hornthal, and B. A. Sumner.

UNION MEETING AT OAK GROVE

Held Last Friday and Saturday; Large Crowd of Delegates Attend

Skinnerville.—The union meeting of the Baptist churches in the surrounding counties met at Oak Grove church Friday and Saturday. A large crowd of delegates were present with the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hollowell and Rev. Richard Lucas, of Plymouth.

Miss Mable Beaker arrived here Friday in the interest of the North Carolina Baptist Sunday School drive, which is now in session. Mr. Edwards who is a Sunday school worker and was with the Gum Neck people arrived here Monday afternoon.

Miss Beaker is giving instructions in the right method of teaching Sunday school classes and will continue through the week with services in the afternoon and night. She is a graduate of Meredith College, Raleigh and was a Bible student in Louisville, Ky. She has been in missionary fields in foreign countries.

A big rally will also be held at the Oak Grove church next Sunday. Large crowds are expected there.

Special Service Sunday at Pleasant Grove Church

Pleasant Grove.—A special Sunday school (children's day) service will be held at Pleasant Grove Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

A program of great interest and value will be presented by Pleasant Grove Sunday school, and a free-will offering will be taken for the benefit of the Sunday school work.

The entire community is cordially invited and even urged to attend.

J. H. Hopkins Leaves For Portsmouth, Va.

J. H. Hopkins, who has been here for some time as telegraph operator for Western Union at the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad station, left Tuesday for Portsmouth, where he will work for the same company. Mr. Hopkins came here from Rocky Mt. J. B. Edmundson will serve in his place as well as retain his status as Coast Line agent.

Chesson-Ainsley

Miss Rhoda Lee Chesson, formerly of Norfolk, and daughter of J. W. Chesson, and Dencil Ainsley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ainsley were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage in Roper last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

The bride and groom entered the living room while Miss Jamie Riddick played "Here Comes the Bride." Rev. J. Bascom Hurley officiated, the ring ceremony being used. Miss Riddick softly played "Melody of Love," on the piano during the ceremony.

The bride looked very attractive in a lovely grey crepe traveling suit with accessories to match, wearing a beautiful corsage of pink and white larkspur with fern.

Miss Chesson has won a host of admiring friends since she has been in Washington County. Mr. Ainsley is a very popular young man and has accepted a position with a boat company in New York where the couple will make their future home.

After the ceremony the bride and groom immediately left for Rocky Mount.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION IN SESSION SUNDAY

Plymouth Township Group Holds Session at Local Christian Church

Decision to meet quarterly with the next session to be held with the Plymouth Methodist church on the first Sunday in September in order to have another meeting before the county-wide meeting on September 13, was made by the Plymouth Township Sunday School Convention in session Sunday.

Election of officers was deferred until the September meeting, and Walter H. Paramore was asked to continue as president until that time, and the meeting voted a confirmation of the appointment of Mrs. William H. Harrison, of Pinetown, as secretary.

There were about 70 people present as delegates from the Christian, Methodist, Baptist, Grace Episcopal, and Long Acre Free Will Baptist churches in this township. Delegates will be invited from Christian Hope and the Mount Olive Free Will Baptist churches next time as efforts to communicate with these two were ineffective.

Zeb Vance Norman, teacher of the Men's Bible Class in the Methodist church, spoke very interestingly on "Duty of the Teacher Between Sundays," while John W. Darden, superintendent of the Christian Church, Sunday school spoke on the "Relationship Between the Sunday School and the Church."

Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brewer, welfare workers. Also about a dozen members of the Long Acre Free Will Baptist Church sang and recited from memory appropriate pieces. Short talks were made by James W. Norman, superintendent of the Methodist church, and W. F. Winslow, superintendent of Grace Episcopal church.

Scripture was read by Mrs. George Bowen and prayer by Dr. J. W. Harrell, pastor of the Methodist church. A rising vote of thanks was extended the Christian church for the use of their building and for their cooperation in the program.

Two other important speakers on the program that were much enjoyed were Mrs. Laura S. Johnston, pipe organist at the Grace Episcopal church, who spoke on "Music in the Sunday School" and Mrs. W. R. White, superintendent of the primary department in the Baptist Sunday school, who spoke on "Working With the Little Tots."

Pupils Of Mrs. Johnston In Recital Here Tuesday

Mrs. Laura S. Johnston presented her pupils in a rose time recital at her home Tuesday evening with a good crowd of patrons present. Piano solos, duets and other classes were enjoyed. About 20 numbers were rendered.

Participating in the program were Gertrude Landing, Catherine Terry, Frances Alexander, Tarlton Gardner, Evelyn Arps, Barbara Norman, Mary Elizabeth Bray, James Harold Ward, Mary Lillian Campbell, Martha Jordan, Mable and Elsie Liverman, Rebecca Ward, Martha Ivachiuw, Meredith Johnston, Frances Hopkins, and Martha Bateman.

Mrs. Stier Hostess

One of the most delightful events to take place in the social world of Plymouth recently was the dinner party given on Tuesday evening, when Mrs. A. H. Stier entertained a number of her friends at Williford's Tavern. After a most enjoyable three-course dinner the guests repaired to the residence of Mrs. Stier, and the rest of the evening was devoted to bridge and fun-making.

Those participating were Mesdames E. H. Hicks, Colon Stokes, J. W. Read, Eugene Still, H. V. Austin, P. M. Arps, Nona Newman, and Miss Martha Hornthal, and Mrs. Louis Horton, of Wilmington.

Hostess At Bridge

The home of Mrs. B. G. Campbell, on Jefferson Street, was the scene of a pretty party on Monday when she delightfully entertained a group of friends at bridge.

It was determined that Mrs. A. L. Alexander held high score and she received attractive handkerchiefs, while Mrs. J. A. Sawyer held second high and was presented a beautiful rose bowl filled with choice roses. The low score prize was a bridge pad and was awarded Mrs. H. A. Blount.

The hostess served a delightful salad course with iced tea to the following who made up the four tables: Mesdames H. S. Midgett, M. W. Spruill, J. A. Sawyer, A. L. Owens, J. R. Campbell, W. C. Jones, C. L. Groves, J. W. Read, A. L. Alexander, S. A. Ward, W. L. Whitley, O. H. Lyon, E. D. Carstarphen, R. E. Dunning, and H. A. Blount.

Primary Tomorrow Center of Interest in County This Week

LARGEST FAMILY HAS 16 CHILDREN

W. B. Barber, of Skinnerville Section, Claims Record

Skinnerville.—Unless a competitor come forth that is at the present unknown, W. B. Barber, a farmer of this section, is generally regarded as the man with the largest family in Washington County, as he has 16 children living.

There are nine girls and seven boys. A number of the children are married now. But when the family was together a few years back it took 100 or more biscuits for breakfast, with sausage, eggs, and cheese to help along. Mr. Barber usually kills from 4,000 to 7,000 pounds of meat annually.

Today Mr. Barber is living with his second wife, as his first died some few years ago. It is very seldom that Mr. Barber has to employ help on his farm as his boys do all the work with his help. The girls helped their mother at home.

Names of the children are as follows: Ethel Beulah, May Bell, O'Dell, Stella, Muriel, Gladys, Margie, Nellie, Archie, Asa, Raymond, Edgar, Leonard, Gilbert and Clarence. Two of them are twins, Archie and Asa.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET SUNDAY

Albemarle District Session To Be Held at Mount Zion Church

Roper.—The Sunday school convention of the Albemarle Union Meeting district was very largely attended when it met with the Mount Zion Free Will Baptist Church near here Sunday with A. W. Brickhouse, of Columbia, presiding. All schools in the district except two were represented. Delegates reported gain in attendance and offering since last meeting.

Banners were awarded to the Shiloh church near Pinetown for the highest average attendance and the Elizabeth City church for having the greatest gain in offering. Rev. J. R. Bennett, superintendent of the Free Will Baptist Orphanage at Middlesex preached at the morning session.

The convention expressed itself as feeling grateful to the Mill Pond section for the splendid lunch served at noon, especially to the Christian and Methodist churches, which assisted in entertaining the members of the convention. Rev. L. C. Bennett, of Grantsboro, preached during the afternoon session.

The next meeting will be held in Elizabeth City in July.

Bank To Make Service Charge On Accounts

Because of increased cost involved in handling active accounts with balances averaging less than $50, we have found it necessary to make a charge against such accounts to help defray the loss sustained therein, it was announced today by H. E. Beam, cashier of the Branch Banking and Trust Co.

"Beginning July 1, 1932, we shall make a minimum charge of 50 cents per month on such checking accounts upon which four or more checks are paid during the month, if during the month such account shows an average of less than $50 collected balance."

"An additional charge of 3 cents per check will be made for each check above 6."

County Ranks Thirtieth In Acreage of Farms

Washington County ranks 30th in the tabulation of counties in North Carolina, according to crop acreage per farm for all farm owners. Crop acreage per owner is 24.4, while the crop acreage per tenant is 24.6. This is only a smarginal difference in the two.

The small farms, owners' and tenants', and the uniform size of the farms of owners and tenants are the important facts in the table, according to Lena Mae Williams, of the department of rural social-economics in the University of North Carolina, who arranged the statistics.

Revival Meeting Begins At Mackeys Monday

Mackeys.—The meeting at Mackeys next Monday night marks the beginning of the annual religious meetings at the Methodist church.

Rev. W. J. Underwood, of Columbia is to do the preaching. Bro. Underwood is a splendid man and a very fine gospel preacher.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Salisbury, N. C. Several reputable citizens report that they recently saw a rabbit slap a dog in the face and then chase the canine, catch it by the tail and shake it much to the discomfiture of the dog. The rabbit belongs to G. L. Yingling and is a large Chichilla animal while the dog was a neighbor's small fox terrier.

35 STUDENTS DID NOT MISS A DAY

Large Number Had Perfect Record During Term Recently Closed

Perfect attendance for the last school term was maintained by 35 students in the Plymouth High Schools, with many of these coming from the country. This was a good year for school attendance on account of favorable weather. These children had not been absent nor tardy.

Names follow: Jesse Frances Bateman, Myrtle Hopkins, Alexina Bateman, James Harold Ward, Lula Horton, Martha Mayo, Osbourn Dunbar, Myra Ward Moore, Virginia Ainsley, Joseph S. Norman, Helen Robertson, Bill Satterthwaite, Josephine Daniels, Clyde Edwards, Catherine Robbins, Ernestine Kemp, Esther Askew, and Phillip Ayers.

Plymouth Team Defeats Dardens Sunday, 8 To 7

A Plymouth baseball nine nosed out a defeat over the Dardens boys Sunday afternoon, with the locals taking the contest 8 to 7. Three hundred people looked on at the game. A couple of good catches in left-field by Joe Gurganus for Plymouth featured the game.

The battery for Plymouth was Jake Sawyer pitching with Nathan Holton receiving, while Mack Ange hurled for Dardens with Cutrell catching. Both pitchers allowed about the same number of hits, which could not be ascertained.

Methodist Boys' Class Has Picnic Monday

The young boys' class in the Methodist Sunday school, taught by D. V. Clayton, were taken on a picnic Monday afternoon to Pamlico Beach, where they enjoyed fishing. Bill Clifton is credited with catching the largest croaker taken there in three years when he landed a 3-pound fish.

A sea-food dinner was enjoyed by the boys. Present were Bill Clifton, Thurlow Spruill, Luther Gurkin, George Waters, Tom Gardner, Harry Chopic, jr., Mike Atamanchuk, George Harrison, jr., Robert Campbell. The boys also enjoyed other water sports.
