Honors House Guests

Three tables of bridge were greatly enjoyed Tuesday evening when Mrs. R. E. Dunning charmingly entertained complimentary to her house guest Miss Metta McGowan, of Swan Quarter. At the conclusion of the game Mrs.

H. S. Midgett was awarded high score prize, which was an attractive handkerchief, while the honoree received a dainty piece of lingerie as guest prize. Following the presentation of prizes the hostess served refreshing pineapple sherbert with chocolate wafers to the following guests: Mesdames W. C. Jones, B. G. Campbell, T. L. Bray, C. Stokes, H. S. Midgett, J. A. Sawyer, W. L. Whitley, A. L. Alexander, Jack Windley, J. W. Read, A. J. Riddle, and Miss Metta McGowan.

Chapel Hill Club Meets

Chapel Hill.—The Chapel Hill and Zion Club met with Mrs. A. R. Latham Thursday. The meeting was in charge of Miss Eugenia Patterson, the president of the club being absent. Minutes were read and roll called by the secretary, Mrs. Hilda Robertson. Miss Patterson gave several demonstrations in canning and drying vegetables and fruits. Following this, the hostess took charge and during the social hour banana and fruit cake ice cream were served.

Those present were Mesdames Dock Latham, J. W. Ange, E. D. Smith, J. W. Hassell, Benton Ange, Della Latham, E. D. Ambrose, Charlie Robertson, L. F. Bowen, W. C. Moore, and Misses Blanche Ange, Elizabeth Gurganus, Laura Bowen, and Miss Patterson.

Mrs. Jones Entertains

The Washington Street residence of Mrs. W. C. Jones was the scene of a pretty party Friday evening when she delightfully entertained, honoring the house guest of Mrs. R. E. Dunning, Miss Metta McGowan, of Swan Quarter.

Progressions ended with Mrs. Leon Rose holding high score, and she was awarded a refrigerator water bottle as prize, while the honor guest received an attractive box of dusting powder.

At the conclusion of the game the hostess served ice cream with chocolate syrup topped with cherries, and cake to the following: Mesdames M. W. Spruill, Leon Rose, C. Stokes, A. J. Riddle, J. R. and B. G. Campbell, H. S. Midgett, W. L. Whitley, H. A. Blount, and Miss McGowan.

Mrs. Owens Hostess

A lovely courtesy was shown Mrs. Edward L. Owens, a recent bride, on Thursday, when Mrs. A. L. Owens delightfully entertained at 12 tables of bridge in her honor.

The lovely Owens residence was attractively arranged with myriads of cut flowers, a color motif of pastel shades being emphasized throughout the affair in decorations, refreshments, and bridge accessories.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. R. W. Johnston. Receiving with the hostess were the bride, Mrs. E. L. Owens, Mrs. J. H. Smith, another recent bride, and Mesdames W. H. Harrell, J. W. Starr, W. E. Bachman and Harry Walker, all of Creswell; and Miss Mary Ellen Stephens, of Blytheville, Ark.

In the dining room, fruit punch was served from a crystal bowl by Mesdames H. A. Williford and S. A. Ward. Immediately beyond the punch table stood little Miss Beccy Ward, who presented the tallies to the guests.

When the game had ended, Mrs. W. H. Clark, holder of high score, received a pair of chiffon hose; as second prize, Mrs. W. F. Winslow received a dainty piece of lingerie, while Mrs. Colon Stokes received low score prize. Table Maderia was presented to the two brides, and Miss Mary Ellen Stephens received a set of toilet articles as guest prize.

Following the presentation of prizes the hostess was assisted in serving ice cream and cake with salted pecans with pink and white mints emphasizing the pastel color note.

Those present included Misses Eliza Hampton, Jacquelyn Williford, Leah Davidson, Carolyn Brinkley, Louise Duvall, Mary Ellen Stephens, Elizabeth Norman, and Mesdames H. V. Austin, S. A. Ward, R. W. Johnston, E. D. Carstarphen, Z. V. M. W., and C. J. Norman, B. G. and J. R. Campbell, E. G. and P. M. Arps, W. F. Winslow, R. L. Whitehurst, C. E. Ayers, C. McGowan, A. L. Alexander, J. B. Edmundson, J. H. Smith, D. R. Hampton, T. L. Bray, Zeno Lyon, H. S. Midgett, B. A. Sumner, H. E. Beam, H. A. Williford, W. C. Jones, W. H. Clark, F. M. Hodgers, E. Still, P. W. Brown, Colon Stokes, E. H. Hicks. Out-of-town guests were Mesdames Leon Rose, Harry Walker, J. H. Harrell, J. W. Starr, H. E. Bachman, all of Creswell; Mrs. W. W. Whitson, of Washington City; Mrs. Owen Dupree, of New Bern; and Miss Mary Ellen Stephens, of Blytheville, Ark.

Mrs. Spruill Hostess

Mrs. M. M. Spruill was a most gracious hostess Monday evening when she pleasantly entertained at bridge in her home on Adams Street. Hydrangias, crepe myrtle, and other choice flowers enhanced the home and formed a colorful background for the four tables arranged for the game.

Mrs. Jack Windley won high score prize, which was a dainty lace handkerchief, while Mrs. H. A. Blount held second high and received an attractive vase, while the consolation, a tiny vase of verberna, went to Mrs. J. W. Read.

Following the game Mrs. Spruill served a frozen salad with ice tea and saltines to the following: Mesdames W. C. Jones, J. W. Read, J. R. and B. G. Campbell, T. L. Bray, E. D. Carstarphen, W. L. Whitley, D. V. Clayton, Jack Windley, H. A. Blount, H. S. Midgett, J. A. Sawyer, A. L. and H. H. Alexander, W. H. Clark, and Mrs. Wilbur Spruill, of Winston-Salem.

Demonstration Meeting

The County Bridge home demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. S. L. Lilley Monday. Miss Patterson made an interesting talk on how to remodel curtains and gave a demonstration on canning beans.

Mrs. W. C. Brewer made an interesting talk about the conversion of convicts at the prison camps.

One new member was added to the club. After the business meeting the hostess served a delicious course of ice cream and cake.

Celebrates Birthday

One of the most attractive children's parties of the season took place Friday afternoon, when Miss Mary Lillian Campbell delightfully entertained 50 of her little friends at a George Washington party, celebrating her seventh birthday.

As the guests arrived, they showered many attractive gifts on the honoree, who received them at the door of the living room.

With Mrs. W. R. Johnson presiding at the piano, playing music appropriate for musical games, the little folks danced and played for an hour dressed in Colonial costumes.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the dining room, where a central table was decorated in red, white, and blue, centered with a big birthday cake frosted in white topped with red cherries and bearing seven tiny blue candles. At each place were favors for the guests, miniature flags for the boys and nosegays for the girls.

After being served, the party retired to the lawn, where ring games, trapeze performances, and other outdoor sports were enjoyed.

The following out-of-town guests were present: Misses Ethel Jones and Sarah Elizabeth Stephens and Master Joseph Stephens, of Fayetteville; Tom Hamlin, of Washington City, and Mary Anna Booth, of Rocky Mount.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Roper.—Mrs. Ralph Harrell, recent Roper bride, was pleasantly surprised with a miscellaneous shower last Thursday night at her home on Main Street. A large number of friends gathered at the home of Mesdames W. E. Marrow and A. R. Phelps and marched in file to the bride's home.

Little Miss Minnie Gay Marrow pulled an express wagon containing many attractive and useful gifts, which were opened by Mrs. Harrell, while her many friends surrounded her and admired each gift as it was opened.
