Honors House Guest
Mrs. Walter Franklin, of Portsmouth, the house guest of Mrs. Claudius McGowan, was honored Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. B. A. Sumner complimented here with a contract bridge party.
For the occasion the interior of the home was appropriately decorated, furnishing a gayly colored setting for the tables appointed for the game.
Many spirited progressions ended with Mrs. J. W. Read holding high score and she received an attractive vase filled with Christmas berries. To the honoree was presented a flowering plant.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Whitehurst, served a delicious biscuit-tortoni with white fruit cake.

Auxiliary Meeting
Roper.—Mrs. A. R. Hooker was hostess to the Roper Circuit Missionary Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon of last week. A large number attended.

Mrs. Jack McAllister led the devotional, her theme being "The Light of the World." Others taking part in the program were Mesdames C. L. Walker, C. E. Mizelle, and J. E. Singleton. Mrs. A. R. Hooker presented the pamphlet on "World Missions and World Peace."

The regular business session followed, during which officers were elected for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. Jack McAllister; vice president, Mrs. R. E. Atkinson; recording secretary, Mrs. H. D. Peele; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. B. Davenport; treasurer, Mrs. B. B. Spener; director of publicity, Mrs. R. C. Cheson; superintendent of mission study, Mrs. Joe Blount; superintendent of children's department, Mrs. C. L. Walker; superintendent of social service, Mrs. J. E. Singleton.
After the benediction delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The society adjourned to meet with Mrs. Jack McAllister in January.

Mrs. Owens Hostess
Mrs. A. L. Owens was a most gracious hostess Monday afternoon when she entertained the members of her contract bridge club. The lovely Owens residence was made more beautiful with an abundance of evergreen, Christmas berries and mistletoe used as decorations.
Bridge tallies and other appointments also emphasized the Christmas color note of red and green, for the three tables arranged for the game.
After enjoying many interesting progressions, scores were added, and Mrs. D. J. Brinkley held high and was awarded a very attractive prize.
At the conclusion of the game, the hostess was assisted in serving delicious fruit salad with syllabus sauce and cocoanut cake.

Scuppernong Club Meet
Scuppernong.—The woman's club of Scuppernong met at the home of Mrs. H. W. Norman Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to order and the devotional service was led by the president.
Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. H. W. Norman was elected president to succeed herself; Mrs. M. F. Davenport, vice president; Mrs. John W. Spruill, secretary; Mrs. Mary Swain, assistant secretary; Mrs. A. J. Allgood, canning leader; Mrs. L. T. Snell, yard leader; Mrs. C. C. Cahon, garden leader; Mrs. M. F. Davenport, home management leader; and Mrs. H. W. Norman, welfare worker.

After a short talk by Miss Eugenia Patterson, a box was brought in filled with gifts, to which was attached a string on each gift. Every one drew something. Games were enjoyed by the 15 members and one visitor present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. F. Davenport.

Roper Club Meeting
Roper.—The woman's home demonstration club held its December meeting with Mrs. L. L. Mizelle.
Miss Patterson gave some suggestions on making gifts for Christmas also home-made decorations for the Christmas tree.
The social committee had very prettily decorated tree, and each member present was presented with a gift. Many games were enjoyed, including an old-fashioned spelling match. The club gave Mrs. J. Bascom Hurley a piece of silver as a token of esteem and appreciation. The club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Jack McAllister in January.

Aid Society in Meeting
Roper.—The Ladies' Aid Society held its December meeting with Mrs. C. E. Mizelle. After the devotional, conducted by the president, it was decided to buy some furnishings that were needed for the parsonage. The organ used in the church previous to purchasing the new one was sold. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Williams in January. The hostess served hot chocolate and wafers.

Aid Society Meeting
Pleasant Grove.—Mrs. W. A. Swain was hostess to the Pleasant Grove Aid Society Wednesday afternoon at her home.
Mrs. J. C. Tarenton presided, and Mrs. H. G. Spruill led the devotional. After Mrs. C. W. Snell read the different reports, plans were made and committees named to take baskets to sick members for Christmas and a poultice for the new preacher was decided on for Tuesday night.
Mrs. N. T. Everett read a timely poem and Miss Margaret Vail rendered a number of selections on the piano, after which a sweet course was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. C. Tarenton.
