

Person Dairymen Going In for Pure-Bred Stock

Dairy farmers of Person County are either shading all scrub and grade bulls for purebred animals or are selling them for beef and will buy registered bulls. County Agent Sanders reports that ten animals were placed last week.

Proper Management of Poultry Flock Pays

Proper management of the poultry flock returned Mrs. Wicker of Sanford in Lee County a net profit of 14 cents a bird last month. She has a flock of 85 white leghorns that laid an average of 25.23 eggs during the month.

At York, S. C., Wm. Sanders, colored, was arraigned for murder, tried, convicted and sentenced to death—all in 77 minutes.

A small needle which for 18 years had been traveling around in the body of Matthew Deeren, of Galesville, Wis. came out of his scalp recently.

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of the power contained in that certain deed of trust, executed by E. R. Jackson and wife, Ercel Jackson, and W. J. Jackson, sr., to H. D. Bateman, trustee, dated the 1st day of November, 1928, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Washington County, North Carolina, in book 91, page 354, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Bertie County, North Carolina, in book 258, page 467, to both of which reference is hereby made, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale to the highest bidder, for cash, at the courthouse door in Washington County, North Carolina, at 12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, the first day of August, 1933, that property described in the said instrument as follows:

1. All of those certain tracts or parcels of land situated in Bertie County, North Carolina, well known as "Goodman's Island," the "Sunken marsh tract of land," and the "Hopewell Fishery tract of land," it being the same lands conveyed to the said Elmer R. Jackson by deed from Francis D. Winston and wife, Rosa K. Winston, and Frank S. Spruill and wife, Alice C. W. Spruill, which said deed is dated the 1st day of November, 1928, and is recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Bertie County, North Carolina, in book 258, page 458, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description of the said lands.

2. All of the timber, rights, privileges, and easements conveyed to the said Elmer R. Jackson by deed from Francis D. Winston and wife, Rosa K. Winston, Frank S. Spruill and wife, Alice C. W. Spruill, and E. S. Askew and wife by deed dated the 1st day of November, 1928, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Bertie County, North Carolina, in book 258, page 463, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description of the said timber, rights, and privileges, and the land upon which same are situated.

3. That certain tract of land in Bertie County, North Carolina, described as follows: Bounded on the south by Roanoke River and Middle River; on the north by Cashie River; on the west by the lands of the Wilts Vener Company, it being the same tract or parcel of land conveyed to the said E. R. Jackson by deed from Milton J. Norman and wife, dated the 6th day of November, 1923, and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Bertie County, North Carolina, in book 218, page 413, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description.

4. That certain lot in the town of Plymouth, North Carolina, together with the improvements thereon, situated on Water Street in said town and lying between said street and the Roanoke River, adjoining the lands of the Norfolk Southern Railroad Company, it being the lot upon which the wooden store building of the said E. R. Jackson is now located, and being the same lot or parcel of land conveyed to Ercel Jackson by deed from Alfred Alexander and wife, dated June 5th, 1911, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Washington County, North Carolina, in book 53, page 461, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description of the said property.

5. That certain house and lot in the town of Plymouth, North Carolina, being a lot or parcel of land conveyed to Ercel Jackson by deed from Alfred Alexander and wife, dated June 5th, 1911, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Washington County, North Carolina, in book 53, page 561, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description of the said property.

6. That certain lot of land in the town of Plymouth, North Carolina, being a lot or parcel of land lying at the intersection of Washington and Second Street in said town and beginning at such intersection of the said streets; thence with Second Street fifty feet to the line of the Reed lot; thence at right angles with said Second Street one hundred and fifty feet to a stake; thence a line parallel with said Second Street fifty feet to Washington Street; thence with said Washington Street one hundred and fifty feet to the beginning, it being the same lot or tract of land conveyed to the said E. R. Jackson by deed from D. Mac Johnson, commissioner, dated the 13th day of December, 1920, and recorded in the register's office of Washington County in book 78, page 432, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of further description of the said property. Excepting and reserving from the operation of the above description that part of the said lot heretofore sold and conveyed by E. R. Jackson and wife to S. A. Ward by deed appearing of record in said Register's office and to which reference is also made for purpose of description of such exception.

7. That certain lot in the town of Plymouth and known as the Job Pierce lot, bounded on the east by Ed Pettiford; on the west by E. R. Jackson (formerly W. R. White), on the north by Roanoke River and on the south by Water Street, it being the same lot or parcel of land conveyed to the said E. R. Jackson by deed from R. H. Taylor and others, dated the 23rd day of February, 1915, and recorded in the register's office of Washington County in book 61, page 469, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description.

8. One house and lot in the town of Plymouth on the north side of Water Street bounded on the north by Roanoke River; on the east by Lucy Ross; on the south by Water Street, and on the west by E. R. Jackson, being a part of lot number 167 as shown on the plat of the town of Plymouth, and being the same lot or parcel of land conveyed to the said E. R. Jackson by deed from W. J. Jackson, sr., and wife, dated May 25th, 1925, and recorded in said register's office of Washington County in book 82, page 445, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description.

9. That certain lot in the town of Plymouth bounded on the south by Andrew Walker (formerly); on the east by the Mitchell lot; on the north by an alley way and on the west by Ed Norman, it being the same lot or parcel of land conveyed to the said E. R. Jackson by deed from J. E. Reid, sheriff, dated the 14th day of May, 1913, and recorded in said register's office in book 62, page 361, to which reference is hereby made and the same made a part hereof for purposes of a more full and complete description of the said property.

10. That certain town property fronting about one hundred and fifty feet on Third Street and extending back on Monroe Street four hundred feet to Fourth Street; thence along Fourth Street one hundred feet; then at right angles to Fourth Street two hundred feet; thence eastwardly fifty feet and thence northwardly two hundred feet to Third Street, it being all of the property owned by W. J. Jackson, sr., in the town of Plymouth. There are now four houses, including the home where the said W. J. Jackson resides on the property above described. It is the intention of the above description to convey all of the property conveyed to the said W. J. Jackson, sr., by the following conveyances, taking out the lot heretofore conveyed by him to W. J. Jackson, jr.; deed from M. J. Norman and wife, dated August 8th, 1891, recorded in book 30, page 481; deed from W. H. Hampton and wife, dated February 4th, 1907, and recorded in book 49, page 456, deed from W. T. Freeman and wife, dated November 19th, 1906, recorded in book 49, page 410, all of the said deeds being referred to and made a part hereof for purposes of description.

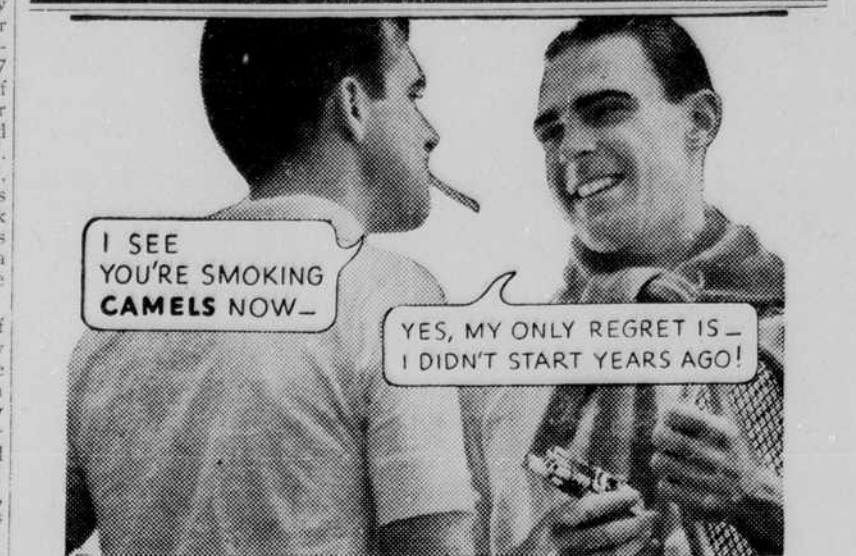

The property will be sold at the courthouse door of Washington County, as provided in the deed of trust.

Quick Relief for Chills and Fever and Other Effects of Malaria!

Don't put up with the suffering of Malaria—the teeth-chattering chills and the burning fever. Get rid of Malaria by getting the infection out of your system. That's what Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic does—destroys and drives out the infection. At the same time, it builds up your system against further attack. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic contains tasteless quinine which kills the infection in the blood. It also contains iron which builds up the blood and helps it overcome the effects of Malaria, as well as fortify against re-infection. These are the effects you want for COMPLETE relief. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and absolutely safe, even for children. No bitter taste of quinine. Get a bottle today and be freed from Malaria. For sale at all stores.
