Tea Thursday In a modernistic black and white setting relieved by an abundance of pink and white gladioli and verbena, a most enjoyable tea was served Thursday afternoon from 2 to 6 at the Woman's Shop, at which time Mrs. Edison charmingly entertained a number of her friends and patrons. Mrs. Bosie Horton received at the entrance and presented each guest with an attractive favor, miniature sachets tied with ribbons, while Mrs. Nona Newman and Miss Martha Hornthal, seated at opposite ends of a lace-covered banquet table, poured tea. Misses Lillian Harris, Edna Mizelle, and Mildred Spruill served guests with a variety of sandwiches, pickles, and mints. Mrs. T. L. Bray acted as assistant hostess. Mrs. Swain very gracefully displayed her fall selection of gowns and dresses to the guests.

Announce Marriages

Of interest to their many friends here and throughout the State of North Carolina, will be the dual announcements of the marriage of the Misses Lorraine Eunzabeth and Pauline E. Conklin, daughters of Mrs. Pearl T. Conklin, which took place on August 30 and 31st. The Conklin family resided for many years in Plymouth and both the young ladies spent their childhood here. For the last few years, however, they have resided in Hornell, N. Y. The marriage of Miss Lorraine Elizabeth Conklin to Harry W. Donlon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Donlon, of Hornell, was solemnized on Wednesday, August 30, in Rochester, N. Y., by the pastor of St. Boniface Church, Rev. John Boppel officiating. Miss Charlotte Tyson, of Greenville, and Roy Burr, of Hornell, were the only attendants. In a simple and impressive ceremony, Miss Pauline E. Conklin became the bride of William E. Tuttle on Thursday, August 31st, at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Wayne Shelby, on Travis Creek Road, near Canisto, with Rev. W. C. Glasier reading the nuptial vows. Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle expect to make their residence in Winston-Salem, where Mr. Tuttle holds a responsible position with R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Mrs. Beam Hostess

The home of Mrs. H. E. Beam was the scene of a most delightful contract bridge party Friday evening, when she charmingly entertained the members of the Round Dozen Contract Bridge Club. The home was tastefully arranged with myriads of late summer flowers. When the guests arrived and found their places by attractive tallies, a delicious iced fruit punch was served, followed later by a sumptuous ice cream course of ice cream and cake. Special guests of the club included Messdames H. H. and A. L. Alexander. After a number of progressions, scores were added and Miss Martha Hornthal, holding high score, was presented a panorama of the World's Fair done in bronze, while to the player holding second high, Mrs. J. B. Edmundson, an attractive deck of cards was given. At the guests' table Mrs. A. L. Alexander received a novelty ash tray from the Century of Progress Exposition. To each guest was presented a souvenir of the fair as favors.

Mozart Music Club

Mrs. Laura S. Johnston organized the older members of her piano class into a music club at her home Friday evening. The officers elected were: Misses Martha Ivachiew, president; Gertrude Landing, secretary; Camille Burgess, treasurer. Following the business meeting a delightful musical program was rendered; and after the program, a contest was engaged in. Miss Mable Liverman was winner at this game and received a prize. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Evelyn Arps on Friday evening, October 6, at which time the program will be devoted to Ludwig von Beethoven and his works.

Entertains Saturday

Mrs. Alfred Bratten delightfully entertained Saturday evening at her home on Jefferson Heights, honoring her nephew, Maurice Poteat, at a home-coming party and dance. For the occasion the interior of the Bratten home was made pretty with an abundance of choice late summer flowers. During the evening a delightful dance was enjoyed by radio music, in the spacious hall of the home. During the evening delicious home made cream and cake was served the following guests: Misses Charlotte McNair, Dorothy Goodman, Donnie Clifton, Cottie Mae Price, Martha Iva Chiew, Annie Mae Dixon, Naomi and Mary Weede, Della Bowen, Martha Bateman, Mesdames Maurice Poteat, J. E. Swain, and Helen Goetz, of Norfolk; Messrs. Bill Clifton, Thurlow Spruill, George Waters, John Darden, Bill Clagon, Benton and Aubrey Liverman, Edison Harris, Howard Poteat, and Selby Price.

Work-Worn Women

Find New Youth and Bloom In This Amazing Tonic Women often fade fast because they have to bear the cares of the whole family. They become rundown, tired and haggard looking. Strength is needed—strength from the inside. There is no finer source of strength and vitality than Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic. It contains both iron and tasteless quinine in highly concentrated form. Iron, as you know, builds blood, the source of all life and strength. Quinine tends to purify the blood. Thus, in Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic, you get two extremely valuable effects. Start taking this famous, time-proven tonic today and see how quickly you pick up strength and vitality. Mark the improvement in your appetite, in your pep and energy. Note the new youthfulness you feel and show. Three days will tell you wonders! Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and contains nothing harmful. 40 years of use attests to its merit and safety. Get a bottle today at any store.
