Alba Club Meets

The Alba Home Demonstration Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Stuart Darden at her home last Friday with twelve members and one visitor present.

The meeting was presided over by the new president, Mrs. Estelle Allen. After the roll call and minutes, the president appointed some special committees to serve in special capacities during the coming year.

Each member answered the roll call with a new year's resolution in regard to her home, community, club or church. There were some splendid ones made.

The leaders' reports were given, and some announcements pertaining to the work for 1935, this being the first meeting held by the new officers.

The meeting was then turned over to the home agent who gave a demonstration on "finishes", including seams, hems, edges, etc.

An exhibit from the spool cotton company was displayed. Many beautiful finishes in different fabrics and materials were shown, also some lovely patterns in crochet work.

The club adopted the general goal, "to develop a higher standard of workmanship in clothing for 1935."

After this the social committee chairman, Mrs. Darden, the hostess, took charge of the meeting and several peppy and interesting games were played and enjoyed by all.

The hostess served a delicious sweet course. The meeting adjourned to meet at the regular time, Friday after third Sunday in February—Mrs. Cottie Bowen, Secretary.

Piney Grove Club

Piney Grove.—The Piney Grove home demonstration club held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Collins.

The meeting was called to order by the president. There were 14 members present and one new member was added to the club.

Each member answered the roll with a new year resolution. The canning leader reported 180 quarts had been canned since the first of the year.

Miss Patterson took charge of the meeting and demonstrated different finishes for different materials. She also showed some pretty crocheting.

Due to Mrs. Collins being away, her daughters, Mrs. Lillie Ange and Miss Gladys Collins, were hostesses and served chocolate fudge and pop-corn balls.

The February meeting will be held with Mrs. R. W. Collins. After the meeting the members gave Mrs. W. B. Barber a kitchen shower, owing to the misfortune of her home having been burned during November.

Entertains Club

Mrs. William Roy Hampton proved a most gracious hostess on Wednesday evening when she royally entertained her contract bridge club at her Main Street residence.

Attractive tallies marked places for the guests and after each had found her respective table, a delightful grape fruit cocktail was served, followed by chicken hash, hot waffles, rice and hot coffee.

Miss Mavis Thigpen, of Scotland Neck, was a special guest of the club. At the close of the sixth progression scores were added and Mrs. E. L. Owens was awarded a double deck of cards for high score, while Mrs. E. G. Arps was given a hand-painted cigarette tray for low score.

Mrs. Bray Entertains

Roper.—Mrs. L. S. Bray entertained Saturday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Roy Hopkins, of Creswell.

Three tables were arranged for bridge. Mrs. W. T. Gibson, winner of high score, was presented an attractive luncheon cloth. The guest of honor received a filet lace buffet set, and Miss Carolyn Brock was given a deck of cards as consolation.

After several progressions, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. R. Phelps, served a delicious chicken salad course with coffee.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Bray were: Misses Carrie Jane Herman, Josephine Covington, Carolyn Brock, Mary Royster, Mildred Swain, Ruth McKellar, Messrs. Roy Hopkins, W. T. Gibson, W. I. Marrow, Joe Oliver, A. R. Phelps, and Isa Johnston.

Roper Club Meeting

Roper.—The home demonstration club held its January meeting in the home of Mrs. C. E. Mizelle. Two new members were enrolled.

This year the club members are continuing a study of clothing with the expressed aim to develop a higher standard of workmanship. In this connection Miss Patterson displayed different types of seams and finishes, also samples of crochet and knitted work.

During the social hour a contest was enjoyed by the members, after which the hostess served hot chocolate, sandwiches and cake.

Bridge Club Meeting

Roper.—On Thursday evening the bridge club met with Mrs. W. I. Marrow. Several invited guests were present, among whom was Mrs. Reynolds Spruill, of Bridgeport, Conn.

After several progressions a delightful shrimp salad course with coffee was served and prizes were awarded. High score prize was won by Miss Mildred Swain, the floating prize by Mrs. Reynolds Spruill and consolation by Miss Carolyn Brock.
