Woman's Club Meeting

The senior woman's club met on Friday afternoon, February 8th, at the club rooms on Water Street, with Mesdames Sam and Richard Lucas as joint hostesses.

During the business meeting, the election of new officers for the year took place and the following were elected: Mrs. R. E. Dunning, president; Mrs. H. A. Liverman, vice president; Miss Ethel Perry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. C. Jones, recording secretary; and Mrs. W. R. White, treasurer. A finance committee was appointed to make plans for raising money for the coming year.

A very favorable report was made relative to the club's donation to the Sally Southall Cotton Loan Fund. All club members were again asked to renew their pledge made in the early fall, to plant at least two dogwood and crepe myrtle trees somewhere on their premises or on that of their neighbor or land owner.

A musical program was prepared, the topic of which was "The Influence of Public School Music in the School," and along this line Miss Ethel Perry made a brief talk. During the musical program, Mrs. William Harry Peele rendered a beautiful piano selection, while Mrs. Harvey Jacobs sang two very pretty vocal solos.

A special guest of the club was Miss Mildred Whitley, of Washington, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whitley on Main Street.

For the benefit of those who are not club members and are not familiar with the Sally Southall Cotton Loan Fund it is advised that this fund was created by the Woman's Club throughout the country, for the purpose of promoting the college education of girls who are otherwise unable to attend college. They may borrow from the said fund for their tuition and if they return this money within two years there is no interest charged them.

Ladies' Aid Society

Creswell.—The Ladies' Aid Society of Mount Tabor Free Will Baptist church held its meeting at the home of Mrs. T. F. Davenport, with Miss Callie Davenport as joint hostess. Mrs. Sarah Holmes, the president, presided over the meeting.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. M. Gibbs. The president read some Scripture. The sick committee made a good report. There were 15 members present, with two new members added. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. D. H. Furlough in March.

Present were Mesdames Sarah Holmes, J. E. Hair, Ella Ambrose, C. J. Hair, F. H. Furlough, Loomis Furlough, Alton Furlough, Z. H. Phelps, A. W. Furlough, C. J. Phelps, Will Hassell, J. M. Gibbs, Chester Craddock, T. F. Davenport and Miss Callie Davenport and two new members, Misses Virginia Davenport and Helen Hassell.

Cherry Club Meeting

The Cherry home demonstration club was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. H. O. Bowen at her home.

The meeting was opened and presided over by the president, Mrs. Bessie White. Due to the fact that the club secretary, Miss Mary S. Davenport, is going to Baltimore to enter training for nurse, the club elected Mrs. H. O. Bowen to this post. There were 22 members and one visitor present. Mrs. M. H. Phelps was elected garden leader for 1935.

Reports were heard from the several leaders. Mrs. E. G. Wodley, canning leader, reported 171 quarts of meats and 10 quarts of pickles canned by club members in the past month. The secretary reported for the clothing leader, who was absent; 39 dresses, 1 slip, 10 aprons, and 3 shirts were made by the members last month, a total of 53 garments.

The yard leader, Mrs. H. L. Phelps, reported three club members had already started improvements on their yards.

The meeting was then turned over to the home agent, who reviewed ways and means for getting the most use out of patterns, their alteration, preparation of material for cutting, laying the pattern on material, cutting and basting the garments for fitting. This is the forerunner of a fitting lesson which will be held in March at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ambrose. After the demonstration the agent exhibited a kit of garments and household linens trimmed in ric-rac and bias tape.

Each club member was asked to bring a shrub or flower cutting to the March meeting to exchange with the members. This will be in charge of the yard leader.

Each club member was also asked to make a simple garment by next meeting and bring to the club for exhibition.

After this, the meeting was turned over to the hostess, Mrs. Bowen, who served a delicious sweet course. She was assisted by Mrs. U. G. Davenport in serving.

Entertains Friends

Creswell.—Miss Winifred Phelps entertained a number of friends at the home of Miss Helen Hassell last Wednesday night. Games and dancing were enjoyed. Candy was served.

Miss Merle Spruill has returned home after spending some time in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Joe Willie Patrick was the guest of Miss Algie Ambrose Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Cortez Swain, of Skinnerville, were the guests of Mrs. Swain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Collins.

Round Dozen Club Meets

The Thursday Afternoon Literary Club enjoyed a most delightful meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stuart Wendt.

During the business meeting, the election of new officers was held as follows: President, Mrs. Louis E. Hassell; Vice President, Mrs. Henry S. Midgett; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Stuart Wendt; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Clark; Treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Owens and Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Johnson.

During a most interesting literary program, Mrs. Jim Blount read two papers, "The Woods Colt," for Mrs. Joe Blount in her absence; and "Ida Elizabeth," prepared and read as Mrs. Jim Blount's book. Mrs. B. G. Campbell also gave a delightful review of "Gypsy Wagon."

During the social hour the hostess was assisted in serving chicken king in patties, with a congealed vegetable salad, roussettes topped with whipped cream and salted nuts with hot coffee. As favors red Valentines with tiny cassages of hyacinths and baby breath were used for the guests.

Special guests included Miss Bessie Rash, of Bridgeville, Delaware, house guests of Mrs. H. A. Blount; Mesdames Joe Deaver, E. A. Carter and T. F. Connors.

Skinnerville

Miss Margaret Everett, of Anclander, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Everett.

Mrs. W. P. McCraw and Miss Seattie Swain, of Norfolk, attended the funeral of Mr. Monroe Woodley on last Thursday morning and were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swain on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Henrietta Swain, who has been spending some time in Suffolk with Mr. and Mrs. George Swain, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Swain home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingham Alexander, Mrs. Undine Graft, Miss Inos Alexander, Mrs. M. J. Alexander, and Edson Alexander, of Pleasant Grove community, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter White Sunday.

Those who have measles in the community at present are Carlton and Don Spruill, Jack Spruill Blount, Marvin Snell, William Phelps Thomas Spruill, Misses Pauline and Edna Davenport, of Holly Neck; and Miss Margie, who has been quite ill; also several negro families in the community have measles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison, of

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedcke, of Dayton, wrote: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, safely and quickly take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—a quarter pound jar lasts 4 weeks—Get it at P. M. Arps Pharmacy or any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—money back.

Roper Club Meeting

Roper.—The February meeting of the Roper Home Demonstration Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Nowarah. Due to severe cold, and cases of measles in some homes, our attendance was small.

During the business meeting it was decided to have our shrub exchange and lesson on fitting at the March meeting.

Miss Patterson demonstrated samples of neck and buttonhole finishes. Each member is requested to bring a garment with two kinds of finishes to the March meeting. A lesson was given in the proper use of a pattern. Two attractive hooked rugs were displayed.

At the social hour each one present was furnished the necessary material and asked to make a valentine. The hostess served cake and gelatine topped with whipped cream.

Sanderson - Ange

In a ceremony marked by beauty and simplicity, Miss Eleanor Ange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ange, and Thomas Pew Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Sanderson, were married at the home of a friend in Washington on Thursday afternoon, February 7th, with the Rev. J. R. Everett, of the First Baptist church, reading the nuptial vows, the impressive ring ceremony being used.

The bride's blonde beauty was accentuated by the spring grey swagger suit which she wore with black accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson left by motor to spend their honeymoon in Virginia. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Swain, the groom's sister in Newport News, while away. They expect to make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Sanderson, near town.

Scuppernong Club

Scuppernong.—The home demonstration club of Scuppernong met at the home of Mrs. L. M. Davenport Monday afternoon, February 11th, with 13 members and two visitors present. The meeting was called to order and devotionals conducted by the president. After the business session the meeting was turned over to Miss Patterson, who gave a very interesting talk on finishing edges, hems, seams, cutting and basting material and a review on patterns. She displayed several different examples of finishes, etc. During the social period the hostess served ice cream and cake. Mrs. J. B. Hathaway will entertain the club in March.

Mission Society Meeting

Creswell.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Tuesday afternoon at the teacherage with Misses Hilda Credle and Siella Johnson as hostesses. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Roper, North Carolina.
February 10, 1935.

We, the members of the Men's Adult Class of Roper M. E. Sunday School wish to pay tribute to one of our beloved members, William Aubrey Dixon, who answered the call of God and entered into that larger and better life on Saturday, January 26, 1935. Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That we feel deeply our loss of a cheerful and faithful member. We bow in humble submission to the will of our Father, who doeth all things well.

Second, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and pray that God may comfort them in their grief.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, to the Roanoke Beacon, and they be recorded in the minutes of the Sunday School.
