Entertains at Bridge

Friends of Mrs. Raymond Duval enjoyed a most pleasant evening on last Monday evening when she entertained at contract bridge at her home on East Main Street.

Amid a profusion of colorful summer flowers tables were arranged for the game and after a number of spirited progressions a refreshing beverage was served.

When scores were added after the game it was determined that Mrs. Stuart Windt had won high score and as a prize she received an attractive vase, while Mrs. Carl L. Bailey made low score and received a nest of smoking trays while to both the guests were presented pretty handkerchiefs.

After the presentation of prizes the hostess was assisted in serving a delicious "beneath the sea" salad with sandwiches and salted nuts and iced tea.

Mrs. Bailey Honored

A charming courtesy was extended Mrs. Henry Bailey, of Newsoms, house guest of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Campbell on Wednesday evening, June 18, when Mrs. B. G. Campbell entertained at contract bridge at her home on North Jefferson Street in her honor.

The reception hall and living room were beautifully decorated with masses of colorful flowers and here tables were arranged for the game.

During the play refreshing punch was served followed by a salad plate and iced tea.

Prizes were awarded as follows immediately after the game: high score prize was received by Mrs. William Roy Hampton, a novel cosmetic kit; second high score prize, a hanging basket, was received by Mrs. A. L. Owens; Mrs. R. L. Edwards won honor prize, a unique desk set, and the guest of honor was presented an attractive guest prize.

Entertain Sunday School

Creswell.—The Free Will Baptist Sunday School of Sound Side entertained the Bethlehem Junior Sunday School of near Creswell last Sunday afternoon with special music and speeches by Mr. A. W. Brickhouse and Mr. Starkey Wood.

Afternoon Tea

Outstanding in social significance was the afternoon tea given on Tuesday, June 25th from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Stuart Windt on East Main Street at the Carter Apartments at which time she honored her house guest, Mrs. C. H. Windt, of Ohio.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by Mrs. William Roy Hampton who presented them next to the receiving line in which stood Mrs. Stuart Windt, Mrs. A. H. Stier and Mrs. C. H. Windt, the honoree. At the dining room entrance Mesdames Edison Swain and Bruce Bateman directed the guests in for tea. Seated at opposite ends of a beautifully appointed dining table cover with imported lace and centered with a centerpiece of choice snapdragon were Mrs. A. L. Owens pouring fruit punch and Mrs. T. F. Connors serving dainty cakes. Mrs. J. Lloyd Horton and Mrs. D. Julian Brinkley served mints, sandwiches and salted nuts to the guests from crystal bon-bons around the table.

The drawing room in which the receiving line stood was filled with masses of choice summer flowers while elsewhere throughout the apartment a rare profusion of vividly colored flowers formed an exquisite setting for the guests.

After tea, guests were invited into the garden for a rendezvous among the flowers.

During the afternoon eighty guests or more called and enjoyed the hospitality of the Windt home.

Mrs. Clark Hostess

Mrs. W. H. Clark was a most gracious hostess on Friday morning when she delightedly entertained at contract bridge honoring Mrs. Henry Bailey, of Newsoms, house guest of Mrs. J. R. Campbell.

Tables were arranged in the living room which was pretty with its decorations of variegated summer flowers artistically arranged.

During the play appetizing iced beverage was served followed by a delectable salad plate with iced tea, wafers and pickles.

High score was received by Mrs. B. G. Campbell, a dainty linen sport handkerchief, while the honoree also received a novelty handkerchief as guest prize. To Mrs. William Roy Hampton, as low scorer, was presented a picture.

Auxiliary Meeting

Creswell.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist church met Tuesday night at the parsonage with Mrs. L. E. Mabry. The meeting was opened with the president, Mrs. C. M. Davenport, conducting a program arranged in the study book. During the business period, the treasurer, Mrs. O. D. Hatfield, reported that $30 had been raised to make some repairs to the parsonage. The next meeting will be held Tuesday night after the third Sunday with Mrs. C. B. Holmes. The hostess served delicious ice cream and cake and lemonade.

Mrs. Clark Entertains

An affair of social delight was the contract bridge party given on Tuesday morning, June 25th, when Mrs. W. H. Clark entertained a number of her friends at the second of a series of parties at her home on East Main Street. Snapdragon and gladioli were predominate in the floral decorations. At the beginning of the game a delightful iced drink was served followed by a delectable frozen salad with
