

Roosevelt Wins by Record Majority

CANNING MEET IS TO BE HELD HERE ON NOVEMBER 12

Miss Gladys Kimbrough To Give Lecture-Demonstration at Gathering

Women from all over Washington County are expected to attend a canning meeting in the Plymouth courthouse Thursday, November 12, at 10 a. m., at which time Miss Gladys Kimbrough, home economist and culinary authority, will give a lecture-demonstration.

She will be here under the auspices of the home demonstration work in this county with Miss Mary Frances Misenheimer, home agent, in charge of the event. And Miss Misenheimer expressed the opinion that a large crowd of ladies, including those not members of the demonstration clubs, were expected to attend.

This class in food preservation will include the latest tested practices, labor-saving methods, and timely recipes. Questions regarding the problems of housewives in canning will be answered. Food values, proper servings of canned foods, storage, dietary value of products will be explained.

"Modern methods and equipment save labor and material. But my work is to teach the best methods and practices now known which can be used in any home no matter how meager the equipment available may be. Both the beginner and the experienced are intended to be helped," said Miss Kimbrough.

Her activities will conform with the teaching of the extension service in this state.

About Town

Mesdames R. W. Johnston, Edward S. Blount, C. W. Cahoon, and James E. Blount spent Sunday in Scotland Neck with Mrs. Haywood Hyman and attended services at the Episcopal church, at which time a tablet was unveiled in memory of the late Rev. Theodore Partrick, who was at one time rector of Grace church in Plymouth. The minister served the parish here as one of his first assignments.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Roberts, jr., left yesterday for Toledo, Ohio, where they will attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Virginia Roberts, to Robert Potter. After a wedding tour the couple will make their home in Plymouth, where they will become connected with the proposed pickle plant. It is not known yet whether they will reside here, but they may stay for a time with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts.

Washington County has three students in the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, at which place the total enrollment for the first semester this year. Included among these three are Misses Virginia Spruill and Edith Edmundson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Campbell and daughter, Mary Lillian, were in Wilson Sunday visiting relatives, and while there they attended services in the Methodist church. "When I saw you, I thought that I had a minister in my congregation and came near asking you to lead the prayer," said the pastor, who was introduced to Mr. Campbell afterwards.

An article appearing in the Roanoke Beacon several weeks ago acted as a boomerang to local Democrats Tuesday, when a circular by Republicans was distributed all over the State as well as in Plymouth, carrying the article by the Rev. C. T. Thrift, pastor of the Grace Episcopal church, who asked that Clyde R. Hoey repudiate the nomination for governor by the Democratic party on the grounds of corruption used in nominating him.

"What a life," sighed Charlie Mizell, of Roper, who has returned from a two-weeks encampment with the 252nd Coast Artillery Band of the National Guard at Fort Bragg. "Imagine marching with your instruments in temperatures ranging around 100 degrees for two successive weeks and drilling for all you are worth," said Charlie, who was joined by the writer in sympathy. Tom Norman went with Charlie.

J. R. Manning guaranteed the prizes for the merchants in their campaign for better business when they agreed to give away $25 weekly and a Ford V-8 as first prize. Over $300 worth of tickets have been sold so far. But practically all of this has gone to expense of advertising, tickets, and other such incidentals. It appears now that the campaign will go over in a big way. "Just ask for your tickets," Mr. Manning says.

Mrs. P. W. Brinkley and Miss Emily Brinkley have opened a novelty gift store on Washington Street next to the post office. Her line will consist of novelties that can be used for bridge prizes, Christmas, birthday, or gifts for other occasions.

Mrs. Blanche Swain is in New York and other northern cities this week purchasing her winter merchandise and also buying fill-ins for her present stock. She is expected to return by the week-end. Her stock will be increased and a wider variety of merchandise offered when she receives her new stock.

Close to $500 was pledged for the improving of the educational plant at the Plymouth Christian church Sunday. The church is divided into two groups; one wants to start on the annex at once and the conservatives do not wish to start until they have the money in hand. That has caused delay. They will expend about $3,000.

The American Legion is sponsoring a group of rides brought here by the Kaus family which were here during the fair last year. The rides will be here until Sunday. Part of the revenue they take in will be turned over to the James E. Jethro post of the American Legion. Commander P. W. Brown wishes that people remember this when patronizing the rides.

Democratic Victory Even More Complete Than in 1932; Record Vote Is Polled All Over Nation

SWEEPS COUNTRY WITH RECORD VOTE

President Franklin D. Roosevelt was endorsed in no uncertain terms by the American electorate Tuesday, when they accorded him one of the largest votes in the history of the nation. Incomplete returns today give him 46 of the 48 States, and an electoral vote of 523 out of the total of 531 in the nation.

Is Leader in Every Precinct of County; All Democrats Win

Total of 2,317 Votes Cast In County; Darden Leads Ticket in County

Democracy once again was victorious in Washington County last Tuesday, when they swept the opposition off their feet, racking up almost 3 to 1 in every office from that of the Presidency down to county surveyor.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt led in every precinct in the county, counting 1,836 to 533 for Alfred M. Landon, the Republican standard bearer. Roosevelt carried every State in the nation except Maine Vermont and possibly New Hampshire, to poll about 519 to 523 of the total of 531 electoral votes. His popular plurality is expected to reach around 11,000,000 votes.

Clyde R. Hoey, with 1,758 votes against 598 for Gilliam Grissom, avenged about the same in the county that he did all over the state to move into the office of Governor on January 2. His lead reflects the average lead of the Democratic state candidates over the Republicans in this county. He carried the state about 3 to 1.

There were a total of 2,317 votes cast in the county this election. About 1,787 were Democrats and 530 Republicans. In Plymouth Township there were 616 straight Democratic and 77 straight Republicans with 314 mixed with most of them apparently split by Republicans.

John W. Darden for recorder judge led the county ticket with 1,832 with William B. Rodman coming second with 1,830. J. R. Carr led the Republican ticket with 731, but then he was topped by Harry Stell for representative with 1,616 votes.

Railroad Agents Change Places

J. J. Hassell, of Roper, has been transferred to Mackeys as station agent by the Norfolk and Southern Railroad, which operates a line thru the village. Mr. Hassell was in turn succeeded by C. L. Walker as agent in Roper.

It was reported that Ernest Rose, agent at Wenona, was offered the agent's job at Roper, but declined it to remain where he is. Mr. Russell maintains his residence at Roper, where he is serving as mayor. The jobs in stations the size of Roper pays about $65 monthly.

Roper Man Wins First $25 Prize

Here is the result of the drawing in front of the market here in the merchants' campaign for more business held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with a good crowd attending.

Number 55513. C. B. Chesson, Roper, showed the number and got the money. Another drawing will be held Wednesday afternoon. T. C. Burgess, treasurer of the campaign fund, urges everybody when they trade to ask for their tickets. You may win the Ford V-8 or a weekly cash prize of $25.

Only One Way To Explain Landslide

This gem from the mail of the local paper's editor: "There can be but one way to account for the landslide, and that is that the Republicans put the cross in the wrong circle."

This is the interpretation placed on the Roosevelt vote by W. M. Bateman, of Raleigh and Plymouth, deputy clerk of the Federal court in the state's capital for about 15 years.

LIBRARY NEWS

By Mary Cotten Davenport

If someone told you to look on a certain shelf between the covers of a specified book to find a great treasure, you would hasten there and search diligently; yet, all the wealth of mankind is at your disposal on the library shelves. History, Religion, science, poetry, fiction of romance, mystery and adventure, wealth untold; material wealth you may lose but knowledge once gained is yours forever.

If it is history you prefer then read Wells' "Outline of History," or VanLoon's "Story of Mankind" written in words for children but with meaning for all men.

If you prefer books on religion, read the "Greatest Thing in the World," by Dummond, one of the finest spiritual expressions in the English language, and "The Man Nobody Knows," by Brue Burton, a discovery of the real Jesus.

Especially for the men this week, I recommend in the fiction line, "The Country Beyond," "The Flaming Forest," and "River's End," by Jas. Oliver Curwood, rushing, straight forward adventure of fighting men written with a tremendous zest and a thorough knowledge of the Great Lakes and Northwest region.

The contest is still on, persuade people to visit the library, get books and give your name to the librarian. We have great, good news for you this week. The library is open daily except Sunday from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. with Miss Charlotte McNair as regular librarian.

Nash Farmers Report An Inferior Tobacco Crop

Nash County farmers report a short crop of high quality tobacco but say the weed has cured much better than was expected. The same condition exists virtually all over the belt.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVANCE IS PLANNED HERE

Store To Be Closed Until 1 P. M.; Announce Program

Final arrangements have been made for the Armistice Day celebration, which will be held here on November 11 under the auspices of the James E. Jethro post of the American Legion.

Commander P. W. Brown is very anxious that every white legionnaire, whether or not they are a member of any post, attend this celebration. "Armistice day in any county is exactly what you or your post make it. Any post that forgets to observe Armistice Day the public will likewise forget," said Mr. Brown.

The merchants of the town have agreed to keep their stores closed until 1 o'clock Wednesday, when they will reopen for the remainder of the day. This was necessary, as this is a day on which the weekly cash prize in the campaign for business by the merchants will be drawn for.

The following program will be observed:

All veterans will assemble at the high school at 10 a. m.

Parade begins promptly at 10:30. The legionnaires, the band and school children, each carrying an American flag, will march down Washington Street to East Main, then to Adams, up Adams to Water Street, and up Water to the legion hall, where the memorial exercises will be held.

March up Washington to East Main Street, then to Adams, up Adams to courthouse, where the parade will disband.

District Commander Claudius McGowan will introduce the speaker of the event, who will be R. L. McMillan, of Raleigh, prominent lawyer and legionnaire.

After Mr. McMillan's address all veterans and invited guests will participate in a barbecue dinner with brunswick stew, cole slaw, corn bread and hot coffee in the Legion Hall.

Mrs. W. C. Brewer Is Let Out of WPA

Mrs. W. C. Brewer, who has been connected with welfare work in this county for the last seven years, received notice Saturday that her services were discontinued as sewing-room supervisor under the WPA.

There was no hint of the causes, and it is understood that Mrs. Hodges, Washington, immediate superior to Mrs. Brewer, would not confer further about the matter with Mrs. Brewer.

Friends here may take up with officials of the WPA in the state a plan to transfer Mrs. Brewer to another district or to reinstate her. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer have been vitally interested in this kind of work in the county since they came here.

So far as has been determined no successor to Mrs. Brewer has been named.
