Farm Notes

By W. V. HAYS, County Agent

The farmers in our county who grow sheep could spend a very profitable day at the State Farm at Wenona on the 27th of this month. At 9:30 a. m., all sheep growers in adjoining counties will meet at the test farm to see the world's champion sheep shearer and also to participate in a program on sheep husbandry. We have a program planned for the day which should be both interesting and profitable for those attending. The program and the shearing demonstration will be before noon, and the afternoon will be devoted to a shearing school, where young sheep growers will be taught to handle sheep and the various types of shearing machinery. Lunch will be prepared for those who do not wish to carry their own lunch with them.

Several lots of lambs have already moved to market. Mr. T. C. Holmes has been reported to have sold his early lambs at 9 cents per pound at the farm. There are one or two more lots of lambs in Wenona which have been reported to have brought a good price, also some lots down the county. We plan to hold the first lamb sales in about three weeks.

The necessary forms for making application for loans on the 1939 soil conservation payment have been received in the county office. Loans may be secured up to 60 per cent of the payment through our local Farm Security Administration office. It will be necessary to execute these papers in the county office and then for the committeemen to pass on them, after which will be sent to the Farm Security office for payment.

Applications for government lime as a grant of aid under the soil conservation program are now in the county office and those wishing to secure this lime can get detailed information on this at the office. Regulations in this will be the same as in securing money from the Farm Security Administration, in that a certain percentage of the payment only can be secured in lime. It is not possible to buy additional lime at this price or from this source, and in any case it is necessary that we have as much as 50 tons of lime in one community. It is suggested that your neighbors be contacted so as to make up a carload. This lime comes in an open gondola car of 50 tons each. The cost will be approximately $3 per ton and will necessarily need to be delivered within three days by the individual getting the lime from the car at his own expense or by his own arrangements. This lime is the same lime as Mascot or some of the other brands of lime other than it is in bulk and contains not to exceed 10 per cent moisture.

Blue mold damage in tobacco in Georgia has been estimated at from 30 to 50 per cent. It is also estimated that farmers sowed approximately 50 per cent more beds than they would require, so there is no doubt that they will have a sufficient number of plants; in fact, at this time most of the crops have been set out up to the North Carolina line. Blue mold conditions are reported bad in practically all sections and in Wash-kenton at St. Marys, Raleigh, last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Teel, of Greenville, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ainsley, Mr. and ington County the spread of blue mold infestation seems to be general. A spray made of red copper oxide and emulsified cottonseed oil is recommended as soon as blue mold appears or even before. These sprays may be continued twice a week and after each rain until the mold is checked, then an application of nitrate of soda at the rate of 2 to 3 pounds per 100 yards should be made each five days until the plants are large enough to set in the fields. Covers should be removed from the beds and left off unless there is a danger of frost. The poles and boards around the beds should be jacked up so as to create a draft across the bed. All of this helps. Technical bulletins on prevention and treatment of blue mold are available at the county office.

Buy Sheet Roofing That Cannot Leak

—DON'T BE FOOLED—

Look For The Name On Every Sheet

You have the privilege to get the best for your money when you make a purchase, therefore why fool around and have something offered to you that is said to be "just as good". That is what is being told roofing buyers every day . . . If it is just as good, why not demand the original Channeldrain roofing, either in O. H. steel or Cop-R-Loy. Remember the word Cop-R-Loy on Channeldrain is your absolute protection against rust—it gives many years longer service and cannot leak.

Yes, we know there are some brands of sheet roofing that sell a little cheaper than Channeldrain. However, when you consider lasting value, Channeldrain is the cheapest because it gives many more years of service than the average 5-V roofing.

FOR SUPER PROTECTION AND SUPER ECONOMY
WHEELING
 SUPER Channeldrain ROOFING

Yes, Channeldrain is absolutely leak proof — when it rains it drains. There is no other roofing made that has the same drain as Channeldrain.

Now, if you want sheet roofing, demand from your dealer Channeldrain. And if you want roll roofing, demand Wheeling Cop-R-Loy roll metal — something better for your money.
