CORN
Only about 9 per cent of the American corn crop, usually running from 2½ to 3 billion bushels, is used in the industrial field. One half enters the food market and one-fourth goes back to the farm in the form of feed.

UNCHANGED
Demand conditions under which tobacco growers will market their 1939 crop are expected to hold relatively stable as compared with demand factors during the current season, predicts the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

U. D. C. Chapter To Meet Friday Afternoon

The local U. D. C. chapter will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Claudius McGowan with Mrs. Don Davis as joint hostess.
