MRS. J. K. REID ENTERTAINS U. D. C.

Mrs. J. K. Reid entertained the members of the local chapter of the U. D. C. on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. L. Bray. "Mississippi Herves" was the topic for study. Interesting papers on this subject were read by Mrs. Lawrence Jones and Mrs. Frank Nurney. Mrs. J. W. Darden read a sketch of Lanier's life. A chicken salad course was served.

MISS MCGOWAN HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Lillian Reid McGowan celebrated her birthday anniversary on Friday evening when she entertained a few of her friends at a four-course dinner, the menu consisting of grapefruit juice, chicken, ham, mashed potatoes, peas, yams, asparagus, hot biscuits, cranberry sauce, coffee, pineapple salad, ice cream and cake. The table was centered with a birthday cake. Valentines were used as place cards.

The honoree received pretty gifts which she displayed prior to her taking her guests to the Plymouth Theatre to the "Chad Hanna". Those present were Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Misses Claudia, Camille and Mary Hazel Burgess, Miss Helen Coburn, Miss Jeanette Roberson, Mrs. Robert Winsett and Miss Martha D. McGowan.

VALENTINE PARTY JOINT HOSTESSES AT

Mrs. A. J. Riddle and Mrs. Lyman Mayo were hostesses at a lovely Valentine bridge party at the home of the former on Friday evening.

Jonquils, Narcissi and potted plants were used in appointments throughout the rooms where ten tables of bridge and one of chinese checkers were in play. Following five progressions a pink hobnail glass basket was awarded the high scorer, Mrs. E. A. Harper, and a Valentine Box of Candy was presented to Mrs. M. W. Spruill as second high score prize. A cheese and cracker plate was awarded Mrs. E. L. Owens in bingo and Mrs. T. L. Bray won the traveling clam prize, a bottle of toilet water. Tallies were distributed by Betty Riddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Riddle.

Delicious red fruit punch was served during the game and later ice cream molded heart shaped and decorated with red cupid and decorated cakes was enjoyed. Peanuts in red baskets were used as favors.

MISSSES HARPER AND UPTON HOSTESS

Misses Hilda Eaker, Ella Harper and Linda Upton were hostesses to Circle No. 2 of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Jones.

Miss Margaret Cook presided and Miss James led the Bible questionnaire. Five dollars was donated toward the renovation of the Log Cabin. Committees were appointed to visit sick people and new residents of the town. Miss Elizabeth Campbell was asked to serve as treasurer. A salad course was served during the social hour.

MRS. GOLD GUEST OF LITERARY CLUB

Mrs. Daisy Hendley Gold of Wilson, reviewed her novel, "It Was Forever" at the Thursday Afternoon Literary Club luncheon meeting held with Mrs. T. L. Bray on February 13 in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Gold said that she was writing another novel but would not hurry through it as she did "It Was Forever", her first book. The Bray home was decorated in a motif suggestive of Valentine. The dining table was covered with red cellophane over red crepe paper with two narrow stripes of white crepe paper with fluted edges down the center of the table. Red carnations were arranged at intervals on this white paper.

Favors at each place were nosegays made with lace mats and gum drops. The luncheon served in three courses, accentuated the red and white color scheme in detail.

Mrs. Little, of Wilson accompanied Mrs. Gold to Plymouth. Mrs. S. D. Jones was also a guest of the club.

SEA SCOUTS AND THEIR LADIES

This picture was taken at the first social meeting of the Sea Scouts at the community hall last Thursday night. Ladies sitting are (left to right): Misses Katherine Bratten, Naomi Swain, Thelma Mizell, Jane Read, Sara Ritche and Shirley Nobles. Sea Scouts in back row: Charles Robbins, Jack Pierce, Roy Manning, Skipper A. Papineau, Duncan Getzinger, First Mate W. S. Moore, Charlie Bratten and Johnny Hays. Sea Scouts not shown in the picture are Asa Rogers and John Carr.

MRS. S. A. WARD, JR. ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. S. A. Ward, Jr., entertained her bridge club Friday evening. Mrs. Lloyd Horton scored high and Mrs. P. M. Arps was second high scorer.

MISS EVELYN ARPS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Miss Evelyn Arps was hostess to her bridge club on Friday evening, serving a dessert course, accentuating the Valentine motif, upon the arrival of the guests. Miss Molly Edgerton was awarded the club high score prize and Miss Ethel Arps won the visitor's high score prize. The bingo prize went to Miss Mary Duvall.

Guests of the club were Miss Ethel Arps, Mrs. Miriam Kimbrough, Mrs. Blount Rodman, Mrs. R. S. Martin and Mrs. Eddie Getsinger.

MRS. W. L. WHITLEY HOSTESS TUESDAY

Mrs. W. L. Whitley was hostess to the Round Dozen Bridge Club at a lovely George Washington party on Tuesday evening at her home on Washington Street.

The entire lower floor of the home was decorated with red japonica in blue containers, red, white and blue candles and flags.

Upon the arrival of the guests a dessert course, consisting of ice cream molded in shapes of hatchets, individual cakes iced in white and decorated with flags, salted nuts in red, white and blue baskets, cherry candy and coffee, was served. The table was centered with a white birthday cake in the shape of a drum, decorated with red cherries and flags, which was placed on a large reflector around which were cherries holding tiny flags. Tall red, white and blue tapers burning in silver holders were at each end of the table. The buffet was centered with a miniature cherry tree and burning red, white and blue candles were at each end.

Mesdames M. W. Spruill, T. L. Bray, W. C. Moeller, B. G. Campbell and S. D. Jones, of Mountain Lakes, N. J., were additional guests. High score prize for the club was awarded to Mrs. John Williams and high-score prize for guests to Mrs. B. G. Campbell. Mrs. Rasser Edwards won the bingo award and Mrs. M. W. Spruill the traveling prize.

BIRHDAY DINNER AT MACKEYS SUNDAY

Mackeys.—Mr. and Mrs. Edison Knowles entertained at a birthday dinner Sunday honoring Mr. Knowles' father, Mr. Walter Knowles. Beside the guest of honor, and his wife, the following guests were present: The Rev. M. T. Gardner and his mother, Miss Mary Elizabeth Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knowles of Greenville.

BINGO PARTY HERE DECIDED SUCCESS

The Plymouth Junior Woman's Club realized about $30 from a bingo party sponsored by them Tuesday evening.

W. A. Davidson and Miss Leslie Darden won many of the prizes which were donated by the merchants and business men of Plymouth. Phyllis Davidson won the book of theatre tickets.

Much credit should be given to Mrs. Joe Smith, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Leroy Bateman, Mrs. Murrel Bowen and Miss Emily Brinkley, and to members of the refreshments committee, Mrs. Linwood Brown, Mrs. Harold Darden, and Mrs. Carlisle Doughtie, for the success of the party.
