Colored Churches To Honor Pastor

The Boards of Deacons of the New Chapel and Weeping Mary Baptist Church have submitted the following article for publication in the Beacon:
"There will be a joint program sponsored by the New Chapel Church and the Weeping Mary Church, of Jamesville, Friday night, December 19, at New Chapel Church.
"This affair is being given for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. A. R. Winborne. The members will also give the pastor a Christmas shower at this entertainment. Friends of the pastor, both white and colored, are invited to be present with their gifts.
"Music will be furnished by the choirs of New Chapel and Weeping Mary churches.

"The Rev. A. R. Winborne came to New Chapel five years ago. He has done a great work and has labored in both church and community, and conducted himself in such a typical manner as a Christian gentleman and ideal pastor and preacher, that he is held in high esteem by both races.
"He has only served the Jamesville charge for seven months. During his short pastorate he has made quite an improvement to the property and has been instrumental in having the interior of the church beautified.
"Because of his great services rendered and interest manifested in the work, we, the members of the New Chapel and Weeping Mary churches feel that we owe it to him to show our love and appreciation to him in this manner. We invite his white friends to be present.
