ROPER LAMBASTS PLYMOUTH BY DECISIVE MARGINS IN DOUBLE BILL IN ROPER GYM LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Victories Give Roper Three of Four Contests; Do Not Play Again This Year

Playing in their own backyard, the Roper High School boys and girls took both ends of a basketball double header from the Plymouth teams by very decisive margins last Friday night in the second meeting of the county teams this season.

The Roper lassies won the first game 18 to 6 while the Roper boys took the second fray, 23 to 9. In the first double-header, played at the Plymouth gymnasium earlier in the season, the Roper girls won 24 to 0 while the Plymouth lads defeated Roper 19 to 15.

Last Friday night's defeat was the second in five games for the local boys but Miss Irene Dixon's girls have lost the entire five contests. Though the Roper young ladies shut out the Plymouth lassies in their first meeting of the season, the Plymouth girls managed to get six points last Friday night even though they lost by a three-to-one score.

Alton Mayo scored five of the total points for Plymouth with Elmo Mayo and Roy Manning counting a field goal each. Peacock was the high scorer for the Roper boys, counting 15 points. The Roper boys' guards, Johnson and Davenport, with the aid of Dixon at center, swamped Magee, who heretofore has been Plymouth's leading scorer, and held him to a minimum.

In the fracas of the girls, Leary for Roper set the pace with seven points with Walker annexing six and Davidson garnering four to tabulate the total for Roper. L. Nobles scored six points for the entire Plymouth total. Nobles, Alexander and Woolard played excellent guard for Plymouth despite the opposite trend indicated by the score. Bray, Lewis and Chesson did some good guarding for Roper.

The schedule indicates that the two teams do not meet again this season. As it stands now, the Roper teams have won three out of the four contests.

Tarzan's Family in Jungle Adventures Now Playing Here

"Tarzan's Secret Treasure" Offers Weissmuller and O'Sullivan

Coming on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the filming of the first "Tarzan" picture, "Tarzan's Secret Treasure" plays at the Plymouth Theatre Thursday and Friday as one of the most entertaining of the popular series of pictures.

Johnny Weissmuller, as "Tarzan," again presents his breath-taking feats of swimming underwater, diving off cliffs and swinging through the trees, while Maureen O'Sullivan offers a fascinating picture of a wife who can do wonders into transforming a tree-house into a comfortable home despite the absence of such modern conveniences as electric refrigerators, plumbing and electricity.

Laid in the world of the jungle, peopled by wild animals and the perilous traps and devices of nature, the new "Tarzan" tale revolves about Tarzan's association with the members of a scientific expedition who come his jungle paradise and finding gold, seek to permeate the ugliness of civilization upon this untouched haven. After one of them attempts to murder Tarzan, they abduct Jane (Miss O'Sullivan) and "Boy" (John Sheffield), their adopted son, then fall into the hands of savage tribesmen. But Cheeta, the faithful ape, finds Tarzan, and the jungle monarch, together with his army of elephants, saves the day.

The brilliant photography of Clyde De Vinna enlivens such sequences as that in which Weissmuller, Miss O'Sullivan and young Sheffield stage an underwater swimming exhibition, as well as such expertly-contrived "thrill moments" as Weissmuller's battle with a crocodile, Sheffield's escape from a rhinoceros and the savage native rites.

Giving straightforward portrayals in roles which could easily have been overplayed are Reginald Owen, as the head of the expedition, Barry Fitzgerald as a genial Irishman, Tom Conway and Philip Dorn, the latter playing the villains of the plot. You'll also remember the work of a newcomer to the Tarzan pictures, little Cordell Hickman, who is introduced as "Boys" native pal.

Youth Has Fling in 'Babes on B'dway,' Delightful Musical

Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland Star in Film Sunday, Monday, Tuesday

"Babes on Broadway," at the Plymouth Theatre Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, proves one thing — youth still maintains its supremacy in the motion picture world.

A splendidly contrived combination of music, dancing, comedy and pathos, this new picture serves as the perfect show window for the talents of its co-stars, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland.

Literally full of music, the picture also offers Virginia Weidler in a departure from her usual dramatic role to singing and dancing. Two other notable additions are Ray McDonald and Richard Quine, newcomers from the New York stage, with Fay Bainter, Donald Meek and Alexander Woolcott represented in adult roles.

The impersonations by Mickey and Judy bring down the house, as does Judy's singing of "Chin Up, Cheerio, Carry On," "Bombshell from Brazil," which serves to introduce Mickey in a Carmen Miranda impersonation, "Rings on My Fingers, Bells on My Toes," a la Blanche Ring, and "Mary Is a Grand Old Name," as made famous by Fay Templeton.

AT THEATRE SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY

Those two talented youngsters, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, are romping through another musical romance in "Babes on Broadway," new picture playing at the Plymouth Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Story of stage-struck kids who come to New York to struggle for their "break" on Broadway, the picture also features Fay Bainter, Virginia Weidler and Ray McDonald.

Duel of Sabers Fought in Film

A feat in horsemanship and swordsmanship rarely seen in the United States has been turned into one of the most thrilling scenes ever filmed as the climax for "Outlaws of the Desert," at the Plymouth Theatre Saturday. It's Bill "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd's first Arabian adventure with a friendly Bedouin Sheik and a cut-throat native chieftain. "Hoppy" sets the trap to bring the bandit leader out in the open and the Sheik claims the right to meet him single-handed for the honor of the desert, in a sensational saber duel.
