Armstrong - Robertson
Nuptials Here Sunday

Miss Lillian Jeannette Robertson, of Plymouth; and J. W. Armstrong, sergeant in the United States Army, were married Sunday evening, February 8, at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride. The Rev. R. H. Lucas performed the ceremony in the presence of members of the two families and a few friends.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride wore a green tailored suit with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations.

Miss Camille Burgess, of Plymouth, the maid of honor, wore a rose tailored suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Sergeant Armstrong had as his best man his brother, Ralph Armstrong, of Plymouth.

Mrs. Armstrong is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robertson, of Plymouth.

Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Armstrong, also of Plymouth.

Immediately after the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a buffet supper. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom, fern and silver wedding bells.

White flowers and burning white candles were used in the living room and the dining room.

Following dinner the young couple left on a wedding trip for unannounced points. Upon their return, they will be at home in Fayetteville. Mr. Armstrong is stationed at Fort Bragg.
