Roper Basketball Teams Honored at Dinner Last Week

Cigarette Case and Lighter Presented To Coach by Team Members

Roper.—Local women gave the Roper high school basketball teams a banquet Wednesday night of last week in the school auditorium.

The room was beautifully decorated with pine and the school colors of black and gold. The table was decorated with spring flowers and yellow candles.

The first course served was tomato cocktail, followed by a plate consisting of chicken salad, lettuce, crackers, cheese straws, red apple, potato chips and a cake.

The teams have made a splendid record during the season just ending, and the occasion was a tribute to members of the squads by the people of the community.

Local Pro Tied for Fourth Place After First Round of North - South Turney

Ellis Maples, pro at the Plymouth Country Club, got off to an excellent start in the North and South open championship tournament at Pinehurst Tuesday, shooting a two-under-par 72 for the first 18-hole round, which was good enough for a tie for fourth place. Lester Kennedy, of Lynn, Mass., was leader at the end of the first round, his 66 equalling the course record and being one stroke better than the tournament favorite, Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, who wound up in a tie at 67 for second place. Six other pros had 69's, and then came Maples and five others at 70. The second round of 18 holes was to be played yesterday, with the 36-hole final coming today for the lowest 60 qualifiers. A total of 95 players posted scores at the end of the first day's play. Many of them are big-name golfers, and some of the mightiest were way down the list. Clayton Heafner, Jimmy Thomson, Denny Shute, Gene Sarazen, Ralph Guldahl and Joe Turnesa were among the field whose scores ranged from 73 to 78. Palmer Maples, of Rocky Mount, who is well known to local golfers, was well down the list with an 80. However, they don't pay off until the 72nd hole is played, and considerable shifting of the standings is a probability.

program was the presentation of a cigarette case and lighter to Charlie Mizelle, for his splendid work as coach. The gifts came from members of the boys' team.

Robert Young Plays Role of Joe Smith In Film Here Sunday

Ace Actor Portrays Typical American With His Family at Work and Play

Unfolding a story permeated with suspense and excitement, "Joe Smith, American," opened at the Plymouth Theatre, Sunday, with Robert Young and Marsha Hunt scoring as a typical young American married couple.

The theme was conceived for a magazine story by Paul Gallico, well-known newspaper man, who wrote of events that are common in the headlines of the day. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer produced the film, with Young in the title role.

The quiet restraint of Young's technique, hailed in his recent title role characterization in "H. M. Pulham, sq.," is again effective here. He appears as a typical defense worker in a seething aircraft factory. Miss Hunt gives a warm and sympathetic portrayal as his wife, and Darryl Hickman is splendid at the small son who emulates his father's integrity and courage.

Young and his family live steady, uneventful lives until he is assigned to work on a secret bomb sight. He is waylaid by four thugs on his way home, blindfolded and taken to their hideaway, where they proceed to torment him in an effort to learn the secret of the new device. Their failure, and his dramatic escape, provide thrilling moments.

In "No Hands on the Clock," Miss Parker marries Chester Morris, a private detective. They set out on their honeymoon at the beginning of the picture. They don't get very far, or did you guess that? It isn't until the end of the film that they get an-

STARS OF "CONFIRM OR DENY," HERE TODAY

Exciting romance between Don Ameche and Joan Bennett highlights the thrilling action in the new 20th Century-Fox drama, "Confirm or Deny," which shows at the Plymouth Theatre Thursday night and Friday afternoon.

Timely and Stirring Film Here Tuesday

"Dangerously They Live," starring John Garfield, Nancy Coleman and Raymond Massey, has been scheduled by the Plymouth Theatre as its next feature attraction on Tuesday. The new Warner Bros. picture is a timely and exciting tale of a hero and his girl who go "all out" for Uncle Sam.

The girl and boy who get involved in the machinations of an enemy spy ring, are played by Nancy Coleman, Warner Bros. newest dramatic "find," and John Garfield, one of the screen's most talented young stars. Pitted against them are Raymond Massey, as a brilliant and famous psychiatrist, and Moroni Olsen, as a wealthy business man, both of whom are working for the Fifth Column.

Mr. Dunning said each county FSA office wanted as large a selection as possible in aiding tenants to purchase farms, and asked that local farm real estate men file their lists of suitable farms for sale with the FSA office. The prospective purchasers, who expect to borrow from FSA, will be referred to the owners and agents of suitable farm lands.

"No Hands on the Clock" Presents Chester Morris And Joe Parker

Do detectives make good husbands? Well, not screen detectives. Do they make exciting husbands? Now, that's something else again!

There have been a good many detective husbands on the screen, or almost husbands, like Bulldog Drummond. If what happens to their screen wives or sweethearts is any indication of true life occurrences, then, as the saying has it, it shouldn't happen to a dog! No peace-loving woman wants any part of that sort of thing. However, there are women like Jean Parker, whose new Paramount picture, "No Hands on the Clock," is due Wednesday at the Plymouth Theatre, who prefer excite-

What Should You Save To Help?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The following table issued by the Treasury Department is intended as a savings yardstick for the average income-earner. It suggests how everyone of the 48,000,000 employed persons in the United States may participate in the war effort through the systematic purchase of Defense Savings Bonds.

"The job ahead of us is far bigger than most of us realize," Secretary Morgenthau declared in making the table public. "I know that the American people are ready to do their part to win the war. One of the ways we can do much more is by intensifying our effort in the purchase of Defense Bonds."

While persons without dependents may be able to set aside more than the suggested figures, persons with several dependents, or with other heavy family obligations, may be unable to save at the suggested rate, the Treasury Department pointed out.

Tuneful "Cadet Girl" Due Here

When Cadets get furloughs, they head for New York for fun and relaxation. And when they get to the big city, things happen! 20th Century-Fox has concocted "Cadet Girl," a gay film centered around just such a situation, and entrusted it to two of its rising young stars—Carole Landis and George Montgomery.

Called a "lilting, laughing triangle film," the new picture which is due Monday at the Plymouth Theatre, poses the tuneful situation of a West Pointer feuding with his tune baron brother over the latter's lovely vocalist, Carole Landis.

other crack at the honeymoon and a good many things happen to them before that. They're exciting things, however, and while Miss Parker tends to complain, she really enjoys herself immensely.

Farm Land for Sale Can Be Listed With FSA Officials Here

Tenants Helped by Government Agency To Buy Own Farms

Any farm land for sale in Washington County can be listed with the Farm Security Administration for consideration under the FSA tenant purchase program, R. E. Dunning, County Supervisor, announced this week.

This means any real estate agent or farm owner in Washington County can register farms for sale at the FSA Office in the Leggett Building, Plymouth. Funds for the sale of farm lands to tenants seeking to become owners under the FSA program have been appropriated by Congress under the Bankhead-Jones Act, and purchase of these farms is under supervision of the Farm Security Adminis-
