Miss Geraldine Robbins and Robert B. Campbell Married In New Bern Friday

The first Baptist Church in New Bern was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday afternoon, April 24, at 5:30 o'clock, when Miss Geraldine Robbins of New Bern became the bride of Robert Burbage Campbell of Plymouth and New Bern in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

The Rev. Chas. E. Williams, Episcopal Rector of New Bern officiated. The vows were spoken before a background of wood wardia fern palms, southern smilax, baskets of white gladioli and carnations and feverfew and floor standards holding cathedral tapers.

The nuptial music was rendered by Miss Elaine Child, who played before the ceremony "Andante Cantabile" by Tschalkowsky "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg, "The Old Refrain" by Kreisler and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told"

For the professional Miss Child played "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin by Wagner and during the ceremony "O Perfect Love". The wedding march" by Mendelssohn was used for the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a costume dress of brown and tan with matching accessories. Her hat of brown had a brown veil. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and feverfew.

Miss Grace Robbins attended her sister as maid-of-honor. She wore dress of pastel blue with navy accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The bride groom had as his best man Dr. Judson Dowling of Birmingham, Ala., and New Bern.

Mrs. Robbins, mother of the bride wore a dress of blue with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bridegroom, wore a two piece rose suit with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was also of gardenias.

Mrs. Campbell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Robbins of Wilmington. She is a graduate of the Wilmington High School, Meredith College and the Episcopal School of Nursing in Philadelphia.

Mr. Campbell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Campbell of Plymouth. He attended the Plymouth High School and was graduated from Wake Forest College with the class of 1937 and from the Law School of the College in 1939. He was a member of the Gamma Eta Gamma fraternity. He passed the N. C. Bar examination in 1940. Mr. Campbell was vice-president of the student body at Wake Forest College in 1937 and was included in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" that same year.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in New Bern where Mr. Campbell is legal adjuster for the insurance company.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held after which the couple left for Pinehurst to spend a few days.
