

Plymouth Steam Laundry To Open Monday

Modern Equipment Affords Customers Best of Service

Efficient Raleigh Man to Manage Local Enterprise

J. B. Willoughby, Local Man, Is Owner; Local People to do Work

Another step in the forward march of Plymouth will take place Monday, when the Plymouth Steam Laundry, owned by J. B. Willoughby, will be opened in the rear of the municipal building on Water street with about 20 persons scheduled to be employed in the town's newest enterprise.

This plant is modern and up-to-date in every particular, with the latest and newest equipment made by the American Laundry Machinery Company installed to afford the new enterprise an opportunity to provide the finest laundry work possible, comparing very favorably with the laundries in the large cities.

Mr. Willoughby has made a very heavy investment in his new plant and every one is invited to visit the new enterprise and see for themselves that no expense has been spared in equipping the place to turn out the best work of any laundry in this section, to do it promptly and at prices that are no higher than people are now paying.

It was pointed out by Mr. Willoughby that this is a new undertaking for Plymouth and Washington County, and that the firm will appeal to the customers in this area on the basis of better service at reasonable prices; that the laundry will employ about 20 local persons; that the organization will pay their share of town and county taxes; improve the trade here by employing more persons and contribute in general toward making Plymouth a better place in which to live.

Upon its opening, the laundry will inaugurate a delivery service throughout the county, covering every town and all the highways. It was said that no extra charge will be made for calling for and delivering laundry, but that a special discount for cash and carry service would be available to customers who would cooperate in helping the laundry save tires and gasoline by bringing and carrying their laundry.

The personnel of the laundry will include J. B. Willoughby, the owner; and C. J. Jordan of Raleigh, who has had 15 years experience in the laundry business, who will have general supervision of the plant, which gives to the public the assurance that they will get the best type of service available to any one in this section. John Brown, a local young man, will drive the truck and solicit for business. There will be many other persons employed for operating the washers, dryers, pressers and other equipment in the plant.

Four classes of laundry service will be featured including family finish, thrift-T, damp wash and bachelor bundles. However, special services will be rendered to those who have special kinds of laundry that they want done, and in this way, the laundry will provide a full and complete service for every one in its service area.

Last Week's Winners in Women's Golf Tourney

Mrs. Bert Williams, of Williamston, was winner of two war stamps last week in the blind bogey tournament staged by the women's golf division of the Country Club of Plymouth. Mrs. Nancy Piephoff and Mrs. Eloise Owens tied for second place, prize for which was 1 war stamp, and it is not known how the prize will be divided.

The following members participated, with the number of "hits" on the blind card following each name: Mrs. Bert Williams, 4; Mrs. Nancy Piephoff, 3; Mrs. Eloise Owens, 3; Mrs. Carolyn Earle, 2; Mrs. Eva Ruth Still, 0; Mrs. Agnes Meunier, 1; and Mrs. Wilda Curry, 2.

Customers may place their laundry business with the Plymouth Steam Laundry with the full knowledge that they will get the best of service and have their laundry done in the most scientific and sanitary manner of handling clothes that has been devised, according to Mr. Willoughby, who said that every person's bundle of clothes would be accepted and delivered with satisfaction guaranteed.

The business ability and integrity of Mr. Willoughby is well known here where he has resided for many years and where he has worked in a number of places of business, and the public is expected to turn their business to him where they will get first class service and satisfaction with every laundry job that they give him.

Citizens in both public and private life, are welcoming Mr. Willoughby's new undertaking with favorable comment as it adds to the town a vital need and gives this flourishing community another stepping stone to a larger and better town.

Gingers Rogers Tops In "Roxie Hart" at Local Movie 2 Days

Academy Award Winner Spices Picture Here Thursday, Friday

Academy Award Winner Ginger Rogers is coming in an entirely new kind of role. Starred as "Roxie Hart," the gal who became a national pastime, she presents a distinct departure from her portrayals in "Kitty Foyle" and "Tom, Dick and Harry." From a sweet young thing, she has gone into a part in which she is definitely on the rowdy side.

The story of "Roxie Hart" is one that has been written with an eye to laughs. It tells of the roaring days of Chicago when a pretty woman could do no wrong. A murdered man is found in an apartment and the murderer confesses. But a reporter finds that there has been a woman —Roxie—on the scene. When he tells her that she can get much publicity and a good vaudeville contract by going on trial, Roxie agrees to confess to the murder—for her career's sake. So her backers sign her to a contract and hire the most famous lawyer in the city. The newspapers circulate her story, they do features about her, special sob sisters are assigned to her, she fights with her fellow prisoners. The climax is reached at the most amazing trial in all court history.

As the shyster lawyer who stages the trial that made Roxie a national pastime, Adolphe Menjou is tops. And George Montgomery as the young reporter is given a real acting opportunity.

In the talented featured cast are

Lynne Overman, Nigel Bruce, Phil Silvers and Sara Allgood. Also included are William Frawley, Spring Byington, Ted North and Helene Reynolds.

The U. S. Navy in November had 113 submarines and 73 under construction.

SOAP

The average American uses 22 pounds soap annually, as compared with 17 to 18 by the Briton, 10 by the Italian, 15 by the German, and 18 to 21 by the Belgian, Frenchman, and Hollander.
