17 Balls Given To 7 Winners in Golf Tournament Here

Thirty Entrants in Blind Bogey Event at Local Country Club

Ellis Maples staged one of the most successful blind bogey golf tournaments at the Plymouth Country Club that has ever been held there, with 30 entrants. A total of 17 golf balls was awarded to the seven winners as prizes, and Mr. Maples said yesterday that he planned to stage another similar event next Sunday if the weather was good.

The rye grass winter greens are about gone, but most of the greens have been reseeded and top dressed, and the local pro expects to have splendid Bermuda grass putting surfaces in about two more weeks. At the present time the greens are somewhat bumpy, but at that they are better than on most courses at this time of year. Much of last year's Bermuda grass came through the winter, and the greens are not expected to be as bad this year as they have been about this time in past seasons.

In the tournament last Sunday, Cortez Green, of Williamston, had 7 hits on the blind bogey card, entitling him the first-place award of 3 golf balls. C. G. Crockett, Frank Margolis, Tom Lackland and Mr. Howell were second with 6 hits and received two balls each. Alton Harrison and Fred Potts, with 1 hit each, collected three balls apiece for lowest number of hits.

Following are the other entrants and number of hits on the blind bogey card: D. McGowan 2, Henderson 3, Goodmon, 3, Roy Manning 4, Llewellyn 2, Abbott Morris 3, Harrington 3, Wombie 5, Stillman 2, Julian Brinkley 4, E. H. Liverman 3, Cohoon 5, E. G. Arps 4, Spruill 2, Martin 4, Woolard 2, Cuningham 5, Booker 2, Bill Manning 5, Johnson 2, East 5, Leggett 5, Beam 5.

Plenty of Equipment Available for Organization of Softball League Here

So far there has been no effort made locally to organize a softball league this year, although a number have indicated they would like to take part if such an organization was formed. Corbett Swain, of the North Carolina Pulp Company, who has been active in promoting softball activities among employees of that firm in former years, said this week that little interest had been evinced by workmen there this year, but he believes some of them would like to play if a twilight league or a similar set-up was perfected.

Mr. Swain said that there was plenty of equipment on hand, as all the gloves and mitts were carefully oiled and put away at the close of last season, and there are a number of old balls on hand which could be used in the event it is difficult to buy new ones. The baseball park could be put in shape very quickly, and if an interested group was to take the lead, it is believed some four or five teams could be organized among the plant workmen and young men of the town.

Daylight saving time would make it possible to start games as late as 6 o'clock during the coming two or three months, and the sport would provide a lot of fun and recreation for those who take part. Any who are interested are asked to get in touch with Mr. Swain, and it is possible that an organization meeting could be held sometime in the near future to sound out general sentiment about this sport in Plymouth this season.

"Law of Tropics" at Plymouth Theatre Next Tuesday Only

Features Constance Bennett And Jeffrey Lynn in Starring Roles

"Law of the Tropics," a dramatic love story set in the slumbersome atmosphere of a tropical rubber plantation, will open at the Plymouth Theatre for one day only Tuesday, June 16. The film has a very fine cast featuring Constance Bennett and Jeffrey Lynn in the starring roles with Regis Toomey, Mona Maris and Hobart Bosworth in support.

Lynn, in the role of a young rubber planter, is informed while on his way to meet his fiancée from the United States, that she is already married. He stops off in a water-front dive to forget his troubles and he meets a singer, played by Constance Bennett. She listens to his tragic story and consents when he asks her to marry him and return to the plantation as the girl he had set out to meet. Unknown to him, the reason she consents so readily is the police are on her trail for a crime she had committed in New York.

At the plantation she finds that trouble still dogs her in the form of a detective who has traced her to her present home. Jeffrey and Constance have really fallen in love and she is in a dilemma as to whether or not she ought to confess to her crime. Things happen so swiftly and so surprisingly, that it would be unfair to reveal any more of the story.

Ray Enright directed "Law of the Tropics" which was adapted for the screen by Charles Grayson from a book by Alice Tisdale Hobart.

Ces C. Hutchins and daughter Rebecca spent Tuesday in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Davenport have moved in the home with Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Davenport.

Dock Furlough, of Washington, D. C., Coast Guard Service and Miss Mary Bland, of Long Ridge, were the guests of Mrs. W. R. Chesson Sunday.
