U. S. Diet Standards Studied

The average price increase for a moderate cost adequate diet for a family of four, for one week, has increased 24 per cent in the past year, according to the National Dairy Council. The foods chosen were based on dietary standards set up by the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. The prices were from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

Average price increases of each group of foods were computed from the latest retail prices in 51 cities compared to the same period of the previous year. The smallest price increase, 9 per cent, was for flour and cereals. Milk was the next smallest with an increase of only 15 per cent. The price increase for fats varied from 16 to 63 per cent with an average of 32 per cent. Among all fats butter with 16 per cent showed the lowest increase.

BALANCED MEALS SPEED VICTORY

BEHIND the battle lines in this war is a vital "home front" where civilians serve America. And for this job, we must be "armed" with those all-important "weapons"—good health and high morale.

time and energy for other household and national wartime activities.

American housewives are helping build healthier citizens and happier homes by co-operating in this nationwide nutritional effort.

Let's keep those "home fires" burning. Take care of your Electric Range!

We are proud to have a small part in helping them.

BREAD OR CEREAL—Whole-grain products or enriched white bread and flour; macaroni, spaghetti.

BUTTER, FATS, SWEETS—Vitamin-rich fats, peanut butter and similar spreads.

MEAT, POULTRY OR FISH—One or more servings daily. Dried beans, peas or nuts occasionally.

ORANGES, TOMATOES, GRAPEFRUIT—or raw cabbage or salad greens—at least one of these.

MILK—One quart for children and one pint for adults. Or cheese or evaporated or dried milk.

EGGS—At least 3 or 4 a week; cooked any way you choose or in "made" dishes.

VEGETABLES—Green, leafy or yellow; one big helping or more a day—some raw, some cooked.

OTHER VEGETABLES, FRUIT, potatoes, or other vegetables or fruits in season every day.
